CARRIE CONLEY, et al.  Plaintiffs,  v.  ALAN HIRSCH, et al.  Defendants.	No. 5:25-cv-00193
--	-------------------

DECLARATION OF HAYDEN JOHNSON

I, Hayden Johnson, declare as follows:

1. I am an attorney at Protect Democracy Project and am one of the attorneys representing Plaintiffs. I submit this declaration in support of Plaintiffs’ Motion for a Temporary Restraining Order and Preliminary Injunction. The facts stated herein are based upon my review of the files that are attached.

2. On February 11, 2025, I retrieved a pdf copy of the March 27, 2024 North Carolina Rules Review Commission Meeting Minutes indicating unanimous approval of NCSBE rule codified 08 NCAC 17.0109(d). That adopted permanent rule, effective April 1, 2024, states that there is an “exception for military and overseas voters” who are “casting a ballot pursuant to ... Article 21A, Part 1 is not required to submit a photocopy of acceptable photo identification” (emphasis added). A true and correct copy of the Meeting Minutes is attached as Exhibit A and available online at <https://perma.cc/HN9K-AZ8H>.

3. On February 11, 2025, I retrieved a pdf copy of the Joint Legislative Oversight Committee on General Government March 2024 Meeting Agenda (Mar. 26, 2024), which contains no mention of 08 NCAC 17.0109. A true and correct copy of the pdf is attached as Exhibit B and available online on the webpage at <https://perma.cc/BRR9-TGF4>.

4. On February 11, 2025, I retrieved a pdf copy via a webpage printout of the NCSBE's "FAQ: Voter ID" website containing the answer to the inquiry "Is photo ID required for military and overseas voters (aka, UOCAVA voters)?" The stated response is: "No. Photo ID is not required for military or overseas voters who vote using special absentee voting procedures that federal law makes available for such voters. Find more information at Military and Overseas Voting" (emphasis added). A true and correct copy of the webpage is attached as Exhibit C and available online at <https://perma.cc/26VJ-X4GZ>.

5. On February 11, 2025, I retrieved a pdf copy via a webpage printout of the September 19, 2024 NCSBE website press release titled "In NC, Absentee Voting Begins Friday for the 2024 General Election." The press release states that "Absentee voters, with the exception of military and overseas citizen voters, must provide a photocopy of an acceptable form of photo ID when they return their ballot or fill out and return the Photo ID Exception Form that comes with the ballot materials" (emphasis added). A true and correct copy of the webpage is attached as Exhibit D and available online at <https://perma.cc/WVL8-HUF5>.

6. On April 4, 2025, I retrieved a pdf copy via a webpage printout of the February 7, 2025 NC Newsline article titled "NC overseas voters were told they didn't need photo ID. Now their votes are in jeopardy." In the article, UOCAVA voter Aidan Hunt explains: "The State Board of Elections explicitly represented to me at the time of submitting my Federal Post Card Application, at the time of returning my UOCAVA Ballot, and at all times through the election and canvass that submission of a photo ID or photocopy thereof was NOT required for UOCAVA voters.” A true and correct copy of the webpage is attached as Exhibit E and available online at: <https://perma.cc/PWH2-MQCA>.

7. On April 6, 2025, I retrieved a pdf copy, via the Republican National Committee’s “Protect the Vote” website, of Exhibit A of the Complaint filed on October 2, 2024 in Kivett v. NCSBE, Case No. 24CV031557-910 (Wake Cnty. Sup. Ct. 2024), containing email communications from September 5, 2024, by NCSBE Counsel Paul Cox in which he states: “Unlike civilian voters, North Carolina law expressly exempts UOCAVA voters from the requirement to provide HAVA ID if the number fails to match across agency databases. See GS 163- 166.12(f)(3).” A true and correct copy of Exhibit A of the Complaint is attached as Exhibit F and available online (starting page 24 of the pdf) at <https://perma.cc/3L8X-SU53>.

8. On April 6, 2025, I retrieved a pdf copy, via the RNC’s “Protect the Vote” website, of Exhibit B of the Complaint filed on October 2, 2024 in the Kivett v. NCSBE, Case No. 24CV031557-910, Wake County Superior Court (2024), containing email communications from August 25, 2024, by NCSBE Executive Director Karen Brinson Bell, in which she states:

For civilian voters, if a number does not validate, state law requires the voter to provide an alternative form of ID before they vote for the first time. UOCAVA voters are expressly exempt from this requirement by state statute and have been for nearly 20 years. GS 163- 166.12(f)(3). When a military or overseas citizen voter submits their ballot, neither federal nor state law requires them to provide ID when returning their ballot.

A true and correct copy of Exhibit B of the Complaint is attached as Exhibit G and available online (starting page 26 of the pdf) at <https://perma.cc/3L8X-SU53>.

9. On February 11, 2025, I retrieved a pdf copy via a webpage printout of the NCSBE website page displaying the “11/05/2024 Official General Election Results - Statewide” for “Nc Supreme Court Associate Justice Seat 06.” The “Contest Details” report a total of 2,770,412 ballots for Allison Riggs and 2,769,678 ballots for Jefferson Griffin. A true and correct copy of the webpage is attached as Exhibit H and available online at bit.ly/3PA7R6P.

10. On April 5, 2025, I retrieved a copy of the NCSBE decision and order rejecting the election protests for In re Election Protests of Jefferson Griffin, Ashlee Adams, Frank Sossamon, and Stacie McGinn, N.C. State Bd. Elections (Dec. 13, 2024). A true and correct copy is attached as Exhibit I and available online at <https://perma.cc/V24M-PUPH>.

11. On February 11, 2025, I retrieved a pdf copy via a webpage printout of the December 10, 2024 NCSBE website press release titled “State Board Will Not Order Full Recount in NC Supreme Court Contest.” A true and correct copy of the webpage is attached as Exhibit J and available online at <https://perma.cc/86D3-2KYU>.

12. On April 4, 2025, I retrieved a pdf copy via webpage printout of the website (https://www.nc.gop/griffin\_protest) that recipients of the Griffin postcard would navigate to if they followed the QR code on the postcard. It contains the approximately 333 individual pdfs voters would have to navigate to try to learn more information about whether they are protested, by whom, and on what basis. The website is not static. A true and correct copy of the webpage as it existed at the time voters received the Griffin postcard in November 2024 is attached as Exhibit K and available online at https://web.archive.org/web/20241129185534/www.nc.gop/griffin\_protest.

13. On April 11, 2025, I retrieved a pdf copy via webpage printout of the North Carolina state rules page on the Federal Voting Assistance Program website. It contains the instructions for the Federal Write-in Absentee Ballot that overseas voters could use to vote in all elections. It lacks any instruction or opportunity to provide a photocopy of a voter ID when the person votes the Federal Write-in Absentee Ballot. The “Important information” section of this webpage also lists questions and answers for UOCAVA voters, including “I am an American citizen, but I have never lived in the U.S., can I vote in this state?” The listed answer to this question is “A U.S. citizen who has never resided in the U.S., and has a parent or legal guardian who was last domiciled in North Carolina, is eligible to vote in North Carolina.” A true and correct copy of the webpage is attached as Exhibit L and available online at <https://perma.cc/3N7X-DXEM>.

14. On April 12, 2025, I retrieved a pdf copy, via the State Court Report website, of Jefferson Griffin’s Petition for Writ of Prohibition filed on December 18, 2024 in the Griffin v. North Carolina Board of Elections, Case No. 320P24, (N.C. 2024). A true and correct copy of the Petition is attached as Exhibit M and available online at <https://perma.cc/3D74-DYZA>.

15. On April 12, 2025, I retrieved a pdf copy via webpage printout of the Forsyth County Board of Elections website titled “10 Facts About NC’s Photo ID Requirement for Voting.” The webpage states that “Photo ID is not required for military or overseas voters who vote using special absentee voting procedures that federal law makes available for such voters” (emphasis added). A true and correct copy of the webpage is attached as Exhibit N and available online at <https://perma.cc/F6DM-NBZB>.

16. On April 12, 2025, I retrieved a pdf copy via webpage printout, using the web archives “wayback machine” of the Guilford County Board of Elections website containing voting information for “Military and Overseas Citizens” as it instructed voters on May 11, 2024. The webpage sets out the two absentee voting processes separately, one for overseas and military voters and one for domestic civilian voters. It states that a photocopy of voter ID is required only for domestic civilian absentee. The website also shows the online transmission option for overseas voters, called the UOCAVA portal. A true and correct copy of the webpage is attached as Exhibit O and available online at <https://web.archive.org/web/20240511204556/https://www.guilfordcountync.gov/our-county/board-of-elections/absentee-voting-information/military-and-overseas-citizens>.

17. On April 12, 2025, I retrieved a pdf copy via webpage printout of the Buncombe County Board of Elections website that lists separate instructions for domestic civilian absentee voters and the distinct overseas and military absentee voters. The webpage states, when describing the process for domestic civilian voters, that “Voters who vote by mail must include a photocopy of an acceptable ID when returning their ballot, or they may complete an ID Exception Form.” No such guidance is provided for overseas and military voters. A true and correct copy of the webpage is attached as Exhibit P and available online at <https://perma.cc/5XRL-B59N>.

18. On April 12, 2025, I retrieved a pdf copy of the “Absentee Voting Quick Guide” accessible on the Forsyth County Board of Elections website. The guide separately details absentee voting instructions for overseas citizens and for civilians. A photo ID requirement is listed for civilian absentee voters but appears nowhere in the instructions for overseas citizens. A true and correct copy of the webpage is attached as Exhibit Q and available online at <https://perma.cc/8EC2-L6YW>.

19. On April 13, 2025, I retrieved a pdf copy of the Forsyth County Board of Elections “Media Guide” accessible on the Forsyth County Board of Elections website. The guide states that “Active duty military members, their dependents, and U.S. citizens living abroad may request an absentee ballot the same way as other registered voters. They may also apply to register and vote through special programs for military and overseas voters. Military and overseas voters may register and vote through the Federal Postcard Application (FPCA) or the Federal Write-in Absentee Ballot (FWAB).” A true and correct copy of the Petition is attached as Exhibit R and available online (starting page 26 of the pdf) at <https://perma.cc/XN3C-SPX2>.

20. On April 13, 2025, I retrieved a pdf copy via a webpage printout of the NCSBE webpage titled “Detailed Instructions to Vote by Mail.” This guidance informed domestic civilian absentee voters to “Place a copy of an eligible photo ID in the clear sleeve on the back of your ballot envelope.” UMOVA voters received no such instructions. A true and correct copy of the webpage is attached as Exhibit S and available online at <https://perma.cc/8XDS-KDFJ>.

21. On February 11, 2025, I retrieved a pdf copy via the NCSBE website of the Federal Write-In Absentee Ballot and attached voting instructions. There are no instructions regarding a photo ID requirement. A true and correct copy of the webpage is attached as Exhibit T and available online at <https://perma.cc/FKL4-ZLCH>.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Find answers to questions about North Carolina's voter ID requirement, including acceptable ID types, how to get a free ID, voting procedures, and exceptions.

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

Can I get an ID from the county board of elections during the early voting period?

Yes. County boards will be issuing voter photo IDs during early voting. They cannot issue IDs between the last day of early voting and Election Day, however.

Can a poll worker reject my photo ID because my appearance has changed since my photo was taken?

Election workers are looking to see if the photo on the ID “reasonably resembles” the voter. Election workers will be trained to understand that appearances may change over time. If the election worker checking the voter in does not believe the photo reasonably resembles the voter, the voter will still be allowed to vote a regular ballot unless the judges of election at the polling place unanimously agree that the photo does not bear a reasonable resemblance to the voter, in which case the voter will be allowed to vote a provisional ballot.

If I forgot ID, can I go get it and return to vote?

Yes. If a voter does not provide ID, instead of voting with an ID Exception Form or voting with a provision ballot and later returning with ID, the voter may simply decide not to request a ballot at that time, go get an ID, and then return to vote. Once a voter accepts a ballot, however, they may not return to vote.

What student and public employee IDs are approved for voting?

The State Board of Elections has approved 100 student and employee identification cards across the state for use in the 2023 municipal elections and 2024 primary and general elections in North Carolina. View the list at Student and Public Employee IDs Approved for Voting \(/voting/voter-id/student-and-public-employee-ids-approved-voting\). In the coming months, the State Board will announce additional ID application periods for the 2024 elections.

Will my ballot be counted if I properly fill out an ID Exception Form?

Yes. A ballot from an eligible, registered voter with a properly completed ID Exception Form must be counted. Such a ballot may only be rejected if the bipartisan county board of elections unanimously decides that the voter provided false information on the form.

Is photo ID required for military and overseas voters (aka, UOCAVA voters)?

No. Photo ID is not required for military or overseas voters who vote using special absentee voting procedures that federal law makes available for such voters. Find more information at Military and Overseas Voting \(/node/27\).

Where can I read the photo ID laws?

In NC, Absentee Voting Begins Friday for the 2024 General Election

On Friday, absentee ballots will be sent to military voters and citizens living outside the United States who requested them.

RALEIGH, N.C.

Absentee ballots will be sent on Friday to military voters and citizens living outside the United States who requested them, marking the official start of the 2024 general election in North Carolina.

Following a court decision two weeks ago requiring 2.9 million prepared ballots to be reprinted, the 100 county boards of elections, with the help of State Board staff and printing vendors, succeeded in printing new ballots ahead of the Sept. 21 federal deadline to send ballots to voters through the Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act (<https://www.fvap.gov/info/laws/uocava>) (UOCAVA).

Meanwhile, State Board staff worked to ensure all 2,347 ballot styles across the state will be available through the NC Absentee Ballot Portal (<https://votebymail.ncsbe.gov/app/home>). A ballot style refers to a unique combination of contests on a ballot based on voters' addresses and which contests they are eligible to vote in. Through the secure portal, any registered voter in North Carolina can request an absentee ballot. Military and overseas citizen voters can also receive and return their ballot electronically through the portal.

On Tuesday, Sept. 24, county boards of elections (<https://vt.ncsbe.gov/BOEInfo/>) will begin mailing absentee ballots to all other voters who requested them for the Nov. 5 election. Ballots will be mailed through the U.S. Postal Service, and voters may not get them until several days after they are mailed.

County boards were prepared to send absentee ballots out on Sept. 6, the deadline for absentee ballots to be sent under state law. However, rulings by the N.C. Court of Appeals and N.C. Supreme Court required election officials to remove the We The People party line from the presidential contest on the ballot, including the party's presidential nominee, Robert F. Kennedy Jr., and vice-presidential nominee, Nicole Shanahan.

As a result, election officials had to code, design, proof, and print new ballots without the We The People party line.

“The hard work of State Board staff, county board staff, and our printing vendors ensured that we could meet the federal deadline and start voting,” said Karen Brinson Bell, executive director of the NC State Board of Elections. “North Carolina voters, please take it from here.”

Statewide through Thursday morning, about 193,700 voters had requested absentee ballots, including nearly 16,000 military and overseas voters. For up-to-date data on absentee ballot requests, see the Daily Absentee Request Reports Folder (<https://dl.ncsbe.gov/?prefix=Press/2024%20General/NC%20Absentee%20Ballot%20Requests%20for%202024%20General/>).

10 Tips for Voters About Absentee Voting

1. Any registered voter in North Carolina can vote by mail. The easiest way to request an absentee ballot is through the NC Absentee Ballot Portal (<https://votebymail.ncsbe.gov/app/home>). For more information on absentee voting, see Vote By Mail (</voting/vote-mail>). Also see Detailed Instructions to Vote By Mail (</voting/vote-mail/detailed-instructions-vote-mail>).
2. The deadline to request an absentee ballot is 5 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 29. However, election officials recommend requesting and returning your ballot sooner to ensure it can be completed and received by the county board of elections (</voting/vote-mail/detailed-instructions-vote-mail>) by the return deadline. If you've already submitted an absentee ballot request for this election, you do not need to submit another one. (For military and overseas citizen voters only, the request deadline is 5 p.m. Nov. 4, the day before Election Day.)
3. Completed absentee ballots must be received by the voter's county board of elections (</voting/vote-mail/detailed-instructions-vote-mail>) by 7:30 p.m. on Election Day – Nov. 5. (For military and overseas citizen voters only, the receipt deadline is 7:30 p.m. on Election Day for voters who return their ballot electronically, and 5 p.m. Nov. 14 by mail.)
4. Sample ballots are now available through the State Board's Voter Search (<https://vt.ncsbe.gov/RegLkup/>) tool.
5. If you have questions about your absentee ballot, contact your county board of elections (<https://vt.ncsbe.gov/BOEInfo/>).
6. Absentee voters, with the exception of military and overseas citizen voters, must provide a photocopy of an acceptable form of photo ID when they return their ballot or fill out and return the Photo ID Exception Form that comes with the ballot materials.

7. Absentee voters can track their ballot using BallotTrax (<https://northcarolina.ballottrax.net/voter/>), starting Sept. 24.
8. Non-UOCAVA voters can return their ballot by mailing it or returning it in person to their county board of elections (<https://vt.ncsbe.gov/BOEInfo/>) or to any early voting site during the early voting period — Oct. 17 through Nov. 2. See Early Voting Sites Search (<https://vt.ncsbe.gov/EVSite/>).
9. The cost to return an absentee ballot by mail through the U.S. Postal Service has increased to $1.77, or three “Forever” stamps.
10. If you request a ballot by mail but do not return it, you can still vote in person during the early voting period (Oct. 17 through Nov. 2) or on Election Day. Simply discard your absentee ballot.

VOTING

NC overseas voters were told they didn't need photo ID. Now their votes are in jeopardy.

BY: LYNN BONNER - FEBRUARY 7, 2025 5:30 AM

📷 Republican state Supreme Court candidate Jefferson Griffin continues to pursue litigation in hopes of overturning the results of the November election he lost to incumbent Justice Allison Riggs. (File photos)

Felix Soto looked forward to voting in his first general election last year and made plans to cast a ballot from Costa Rica while on a UNC fellowship.

He decided to mail his ballot back to the Guilford County Board of Elections rather than submit it electronically.

He'd heard about heated conservative opposition to everything other than in-person voting, and wanted to avoid having his ballot being caught up in any conflicts. "This online portal seems like something they wouldn't like," he said.

Soto mailed a copy of his passport photo page with his ballot.

There was a problem with the first ballot, Soto said in an interview, so he had to submit another. He didn't send the passport copy a second time, he said, because the elections office said it wasn't necessary.

Soto is now on a list with more than 5,500 military and overseas absentee voters whose choices to fill a North Carolina Supreme Court seat may be erased. The Republican candidate for the seat, Appeals Court Judge Jefferson Griffin, wants to throw out those votes and more than 60,000 others he says were illegally cast.

"I wanted to make doubly sure that my ballot wasn't contested," Soto said. "Then to still have it be contested is like a slap in the face. I tried so hard, and still..."

Griffin believes rejecting these ballots will lift him to victory over incumbent Democratic Justice Allison Riggs, who leads by 734 votes.

After the Board of Elections dismissed his protest, Griffin asked the state Supreme Court to order the votes thrown out. Of the more than 60,000 he's contesting, his lawyers suggested the justices look first to tossing military and civilian overseas absentee votes because photo ID is not included with those ballots. He has challenged overseas and military ballots only from four of the state's most Democratic counties.

The Supreme Court told Griffin he had to take the normal route for an appeal and start at Wake Superior Court. A court hearing on Griffin's lawsuit is scheduled to begin Friday.

Photo ID was not required of overseas and military absentee voters

The state Board of Elections' rules do not require military voters and citizens living overseas to submit photo ID with their absentee ballots.

Of the multiple protests Griffin brought to the Board of Elections in December, the only protest the bipartisan board voted unanimously to dismiss was his protest over the issue of photo ID for military and overseas voters.

Griffin's lawyers said in a recent brief filed in Wake County Superior Court that the state Board of Elections was wrong to exempt military and overseas voters from the photo ID requirement.

“In the Supreme Court contest, 5,509 such ballots were unlawfully cast,” the brief says. “Judge Griffin anticipates that, if these unlawful ballots are excluded, he will win the election.”

Most absentee and in-person voters must show an acceptable photo ID. If they don’t have one, they must fill out a form saying why.

The state Republican Party, which is supporting Griffin, summed up its argument in a Facebook post this week.

“We The People put Photo ID in the North Carolina Constitution. The General Assembly put Photo ID into law. No ID? No Vote. It’s That Simple.”

North Carolina’s state solicitor general, in a court brief, refuted the argument that the board was wrong to exempt absentee military and overseas voters. Requiring IDs probably would have violated the U.S. Constitution, the brief says.

Absentee voting by service members and citizens overseas is governed by a 2011 state law the legislature passed unanimously, the brief said. That law allows those voters to use special procedures to register to vote, request a ballot, and submit a ballot, the brief said. These procedures don’t require voters to submit ID with their absentee ballots.

The state law mirrors the federal Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act, or UOCAVA.

“The Board concluded that imposing an identification requirement on voters covered by UOCAVA that is inconsistent with federal law would likely violate the Supremacy Clause of the U.S. Constitution,” the brief said.

Voters said it’s wrong to claim they should have complied with a rule that didn’t exist.

“I think it’s pretty obvious that you can’t change the rules after the election,” said Aidan Hunt, who voted while traveling in Asia.

“You can’t tell people explicitly there’s no need to submit it, then penalize people for not submitting it,” he said in an interview this week.

Hunt used the electronic portal to vote. He doesn't remember if there was even a way to send a copy of an ID.

"As best as I can recall, there's no function to upload random stuff going through that portal. There wasn't any place designated for an ID," he said. "It's not like an email message where you can just put whatever in there."

Hunt submitted his own brief when Griffin filed his protests with the Board of Elections.

"The State Board of Elections explicitly represented to me at the time of submitting my Federal Post Card Application, at the time of returning my UOCAVA Ballot, and at all times through the election and canvass that submission of a photo ID or photocopy thereof was NOT required for UOCAVA voters. Upon information and belief, the same is true for all affected Party Voters," he wrote.

He said in the interview that he knew the Board of Elections was going to hear from a lot of lawyers, and he wanted them to hear from a voter.

"I just wanted to make a point that citizens are reading this and are watching what the government's doing and they will be held accountable," Hunt said. "I wanted a citizen's name on the record."

He told them: "Let us make no mistake that discarding the ballots of citizens eligible to vote is the death penalty for democracy. Unlike a protest of disqualified voters, this protest aims to destroy the voices of North Carolinians unequivocally eligible to vote by law due to an alleged requirement that could not have been known to them at the time of voting."

Some overseas voters didn't receive required notices

In the months since Griffin filed his protests, some who voted in person and whose ballots Griffin is challenging said they never received the postcards the state GOP was required to send notifying them of the potential challenges. The same is true of overseas voters.

Soto said he didn't know until his mother plugged his name into an online search tool.

Kathryn Spann, who moved to Spain last year from Durham, didn't know her vote was being challenged until a reporter contacted her this week. Spann is a former lawyer turned cheesemaker who co-owned Prodigal Farm in Durham.

In an interview, Spann said she's been following Griffin's case, but never received an NC GOP postcard. Griffin is challenging her husband's ballot too.

Spann's sister is living in the Durham house where Spann lived before moving to Spain. No postcard arrived at that address. And she never received any notice in Spain.

"The idea that after the fact and selectively, not equally across the state, a sitting judge would choose to attack the established electoral system is repugnant," she said.

"Had I received basic and timely notice, I feel that I could have plugged into the attorneys filing the amicus brief or working with Democrats Abroad."

In 2008, Spann ran in a down-ballot race for Durham County Soil and Water District Supervisor.

"I've always been, perhaps not surprisingly, focused on doing research on all races, not just the top of the ticket," she said.

In October, she wrote on Facebook about her experience submitting an online ballot. She shared a link for overseas voter registration and encouraged people to vote the entire ballot.

"Our democracy depends on all of us informing ourselves on races up and down the ballot," she wrote.

Subject: PLEASE READ: UOCAVA Requests for new registrants

Directors (via BCC):

I'm writing to clarify the requirement for identification numbers for new registrants who register via FPCA or FWAB. I addressed this briefly in the Huddle chat last Wednesday, but we've gotten some additional questions. So we wanted to be clear about the proper procedures, since UOCAVA ballots start going out Friday.

If a person is registering for the first time using an FPCA or FWAB, the requirement to provide driver's license/DMV number or, if they don't have it, last four of their social security number, applies to these voters—just like for all other new registrants. This requirement in HAVA applies to all new registrants, whether they are civilian or UOCAVA registrants. See 52 USC 21083\(a\)\(5\)\(A\)\(i\).

These new registrants were included in the State Board's decision last December to require new registrations going forward to include one of these numbers, unless the registrant affirms that they don't have either number. We regret if that was not clear.

We are going to have our IT department run a list of new FPCA/FWAB registrants since the State Board's order was released in December 2023, to flag any that may have been processed without one of these numbers, and we'll share that data with your office for review and action. The list should not be very long, since most FPCA/FWAB voters come through the portal, and the portal doesn't allow a UOCAVA voter to submit their request without including one of these numbers.

In the meantime, please review your pending FPCAs before ballot transmission on Friday, to ensure that they included one of these numbers. Be sure to include that number when you enter data into VoterScan. If the record doesn't result in a database match, the FPCA (registration and ballot request) must still be processed. Unlike civilian voters, North Carolina law expressly exempts UOCAVA voters from the requirement to provide HAVA ID if the number fails to match across agency databases. See GS 163-166.12\(f\)\(3\).

If any new FPCA/FWAB registrant did not include DL/DMV number or last four of their SSN as of December 14, 2023, and they do not state in writing that they lack these numbers, you will need to reach out to the registrant to obtain one of these numbers before processing their registration/ballot request. Please email the voter the attached letter requesting this information. If you do not have an email address for the voter, contact the voter by any other means you have available to obtain the information. Should the letter be returned, you will need to scan in the letter as VOTER CHANGE/UPDATE DOCUMENT in the web scanning app. If the voter does not return the request for information the FPCA request will need to be spoiled. Please include in the comments "Spoiled-ID not provided." Spoiling a ballot will need to occur before ballots go out on Friday, for any pending requests that did not include one of the required numbers.

Best regards,

Subject: Your recent letter

Ms. Rebuck, (bcc: State Board Members and county election directors)

We write to express concern about a letter that you wrote that was forwarded to us by the elections director in another county, who received it from a state legislator asking her to respond. Your letter has been forwarded to a wide audience, and unfortunately, it contains false and misleading statements, and partisan remarks.

We are forwarding your letter and our response to the five members of the State Board of Elections and to all county directors so they can respond as necessary if they receive inquiries. This has required State Board staff to spend our limited resources drafting this letter and researching and providing the facts.

We are always available to county board members with questions or concerns about election administration, and we hope that in the future you will reach out to us should you need clarification to avoid the potential spread of false or misleading information, which undermines our common goals of administering elections according to the law and promoting confidence in our elections.

Please see our responses in red to your italicized statements below. We are happy to answer any questions you have about them.

"I am a member of the Henderson County Board of Elections and have served on the Board for over 6 years. I am frankly very discouraged about the upcoming election. I want to strongly state my belief that if you do not intervene immediately either legislatively or legally, we are going to lose NC to the Dems in November which will likely mean we lose the country. The responsibility will be yours, one way or the other."

Given the partisan statements in the above, we remind you of the requirements of Article 4A of Chapter 163 of the North Carolina General Statutes. Whether or not the statements violate these provisions, it undermines the public's confidence in the fair administration of elections if their elections officials are widely communicating their desire for a particular outcome in an election they oversee.

"I am aware that Henderson County has recently received hundreds of new UNOCAVA (Overseas Civilian) applications." There is NO requirement to verify these people AND they do NOT have to provide ID when sending back their vote (by mail or email)."

UOCAVA, which stands for Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act, is a federal law prescribing specific procedures for military and overseas citizens to be allowed to vote in federal elections. Our state has adopted laws under Article 21A of Chapter 163 to carry out these procedures. When military and overseas citizens register to vote under these procedures, they typically provide either their Social Security Number or driver's license on the prescribed federal form. When county officials input those values into the statewide database, the statewide database automatically attempts to validate those numbers with the DMV and Social Security Administration. For civilian voters, if a number does not validate, state law requires the voter to provide an alternative form of ID before they vote for the first time. UOCAVA voters are expressly exempt from this requirement by state statute and have been for nearly 20 years. GS 163-166.12(f)(3).

When a military or overseas citizen voter submits their ballot, neither federal nor state law requires them to provide ID when returning their ballot.

“I believe this is a concerted effort to turn Henderson County blue. However, I believe that if you check with other counties, you will see that the numbers have grown substantially in every county. I have heard numbers as high as 300,000 statewide so far. I believe that there is a statewide effort under way to undermine the election.”

Again, we caution you about statements favoring or opposing particular outcomes in the elections you oversee.

We spoke with the Henderson County director, and she confirmed on August 23 that Henderson had received fewer than 150 UOCAVA requests. In 2020, according to State Board data, Henderson County received 347 requests for absentee ballots from military and Henderson County voters living abroad at the time. So, the number of requests is not necessarily high in 2024 as you suggest. Ballots go out in two weeks.

It is also possible that advocacy groups and others are encouraging military and overseas voters who are U.S. citizens to request their ballots. There is nothing wrong with that and, in fact, that is activity protected by the First Amendment of the U.S. Constitution.

Until ballot styles are finalized, we do not know how many UOCAVA requests have come in statewide. However, the State Board has no evidence of a “statewide effort underway to undermine the election.” If you have actual evidence of such, please provide it to the State Board or to the law enforcement agency of your choice. Otherwise, your statements are sensationalistic and inflammatory and will undermine voter confidence with no facts to back them up.

“Additionally, Henderson County has received numerous new voter applications that do not have HAVA required information to register (missing Driver's License and/or last 4 of SS or those numbers were not validated). The State BOE has instructed Counties to go ahead and register them without verification.”

This is false. The State Board, both in emails and in a statewide Huddle training session, have instructed county boards as follows:

- If a new voter does not provide their driver's license number or last four digits of their Social Security number and does not check the box to indicate that they do not have either of these numbers, then the voter will not be registered and will be sent an incomplete letter seeking the missing information.
- If an applicant provides a driver's license number or last four of their Social Security number but that number does not validate, then their registration should be processed but they must be sent a “request for identification letter.” If the voter subsequently provides the ID information, their profile is updated. If they do not, they must provide an alternative ID proving their identity (so-called “HAVA ID”) before voting, or vote provisionally. See GS 163-166.12(c). See the Request for Identification Information letter.

- If a new voter checks the box to indicate they do not have either identification number, then they will be sent a “request for identification” letter and be required to show a HAVA ID before they vote.

“There have been over 10,000 voters registered state-wide in the last 3 months with unverified or no Dr License or last 4 of SS numbers and therefore HAVE NOT BEEN VERIFIED. So even though the information provided does not match (validated) the application is automatically approved. This is just common sense-the identity of the voter should be verified before entering them on the voter rolls. This is an open invitation for missing or unvalidated applications to be approved and entered into the system.”

See the note above about the additional verification requirement for voters whose ID numbers fail to validate.

Here’s some additional important context. When a number does not match, SEIMS will not populate that field, so if we run a query in the database to see which registrations lack these identifiers, the query shows registrations where an identifier was provided but the number did not validate. To attempt to validate DLs or last-four SSNs, the SEIMS system sends a database query to DMV databases and the Social Security Administration databases, asking those databases to attempt to match specific information in records on both sides. It is not uncommon for a person’s ID to fail validation. There are a number of benign reasons this can occur, and occur regularly, which has been well documented. The DMV/SSA requires exact field matching on name, DOB, DL/SSN so there is no current way to identify possible matches. Common reasons for validation failure are: misspelling of names, variation of names (Bob vs. Robert, maiden name vs. married name, varied designation of surnames for minority ethnicities, etc.), nickname or a missing suffix missing (Jr. or Sr.), inadvertent typos like missed numbers or transposed numbers in DL or last-four SSN, typos in birthdates, and situations where a registrant listed month/day/year in the wrong order on their registration form (there could be national origin-based reasons for this). Recognizing the faults in matching between distinct databases, the General Assembly enacted the provisions in GS 163-166.12(c) which allow a registrant whose DL or SSN did not match to provide HAVA ID either before or when first voting.

“Another concern is preventing non-citizens from voting. Putting the matter on the ballot in November is too little, too late. The legislature passed SB 747 requiring clerks of superior court to provide lists of people who have been excused from jury duty indicating that they are not US citizens. However, according to the SBOE this will not take place until after the November election.”

This is false. The superior court clerks are (and have) provided such lists, and State Board staff is reviewing those and contacting any registered voters who are identified and for whom a state and federal database check does not show they have obtained citizenship. After nearly every county clerk submitted any records of jurors excused for non-citizenship, there were 9 registrants total identified through these checks statewide. While it is true that federal law (NVRA) prevents us from outright removing these records this close to a federal election, we are nonetheless going to encourage any of these identified registrants to cancel their registration if they indeed lack citizenship. After the federal election, we can resume this program and conduct removals similar to how we process felon removals, rather than the notices and invitation to cancel registration which is as much as we can do and still comply with federal law.

“You have allowed the SBOE to drag its feet (I believe on purpose) on all of these matters. This must be rectified if you want to win in November. I am not asking for anything that would be unfair to anyone, I just want the laws enforced to make it fair for everyone. Frankly, the county BOEs are nothing more than a rubber stamp and we have to sit there and vote to certify without any real ability to legally object. Again, the success or failure of this election in November is on you. I implore you to either fix this legislatively or in Court.

Best wishes in November, you will need it!”

Again, we remind you of the prohibitions in the law on political activity by county board members.

We again invite you to contact us in the future to clear up your misunderstandings about election processes and the law.

Regards,

DECISION AND ORDER

At a public meeting held on December 11, 2024, the State Board of Elections (“State Board”) considered election protests filed by four candidates in the 2024 General Election: Jefferson Griffin, a Republican candidate for associate justice of the Supreme Court of North Carolina; Ashlee Adams, a Republican candidate for N.C. Senate District 18; Stacie McGinn, a Republican candidate for N.C. Senate District 42; and Frank Sossamon, a Republican candidate for N.C. House District 32 (collectively, the “Protesters”). The Board consolidated the protests filed by these candidates for its decision, because they all involve the same sets of legal issues.

Upon consideration of the protest materials submitted by the Protesters; the briefs submitted by the Protesters, opposing candidates, and other interested parties; the oral argument presented to the State Board by counsel for the candidates; and the matters upon which judicial notice was taken, the Board concluded that the protests did not substantially comply with the service requirements and did not establish probable cause to believe that a violation of election law or irregularity or misconduct occurred in the protested elections. The Board therefore dismisses these protests.

I. BACKGROUND

On November 19, 2024, the Protesters filed over 300 protests across the state challenging the apparent results of their elections. After the county boards of elections conducted recounts in all of these contests, the final canvassed results are as follows:

CONTEST	CANDIDATE	PARTY	BALLOT COUNT	PERCENT
Supreme Court Associate Justice	Allison Riggs	DEM	2,770,412	50.01%
	Jefferson G. Griffin	REP	2,769,678	49.99%
NC Senate District 18	Terence Everitt	DEM	59,667	48.47%
	Ashlee Bryan Adams	REP	59,539	48.36%
	Brad Hessel	LIB	3,906	3.17%
NC Senate District 42	Mrs. Woodson Bradley	DEM	62,260	50.08%
	Stacie McGinn	REP	62,051	49.92%
NC House District 32	Bryan Cohn	DEM	21,215	48.95%
	Frank Sossamon	REP	20,987	48.42%
	Ryan Brown	LIB	1,140	2.63%

Protests were filed in almost every county in the state.<sup>1</sup> Those protests are based on six categories of allegations that certain general election voters' ballots were invalid. Those six categories and the number of voters challenged per category are:

---

1. Ballots cast by registered voters whose voter registration database records contain neither a driver's license number nor the last-four digits of a social security number—60,273 voters challenged;
2. Ballots cast by overseas citizens who have not resided in North Carolina but whose parents or legal guardians were eligible North Carolina voters before leaving the United States—266 voters challenged;
3. Ballots cast by military or overseas citizens under Article 21A of Chapter 163, when those ballots were not accompanied by a photocopy of a photo ID or ID Exception Form—1,409 voters challenged;<sup>2</sup>
4. Ballots cast by voters who were serving a felony sentence as of Election Day—240 voters challenged;
5. Ballots cast by voters who were deceased on Election Day—156 voters challenged; and
6. Ballots cast by voters who registration was denied or removed—572 voters challenged.<sup>3</sup>

Across all counties and among the four Protesters, the protests alleging the same category of allegedly ineligible voters are structured and pleaded in the same fashion. The only differences among county protests of the same category are the identities of the voters being challenged—i.e., only voters registered in the county receiving the protest are part of a protest that the county board received.

<sup>2</sup> Griffin has sought to add voters to the second and third protest categories in supplemental filings submitted after the deadline to file an election protest. See G.S. § 163-182.9(b)(4). Because the Board determines these protests are legally deficient, it need not determine whether such supplementations are allowable under the General Statutes and Administrative Code.

<sup>3</sup> Some challenged voters are included in multiple protests filed in the same county. For instance, voters removed after dying before Election Day may be in both the deceased and removed protests. Additionally, Griffin has withdrawn his protests in a few counties. Accordingly, while these last three types of protests together appear to total 968 voters, in actuality they involve a combined 817 voters.

On Wednesday, November 20, 2024, the State Board held a meeting, noticed on an emergency basis under N.C.G.S. § 143-318.12, to consider whether to take jurisdiction over some of the protests, which the State Board may do under N.C.G.S. § 163-182.12. The Board voted unanimously to take jurisdiction over the first three categories of protests, which presented legal questions of statewide significance. The Board instructed the county boards of elections to retain jurisdiction to consider the remaining three categories of protests, which were focused on individual, fact-specific determinations of voter eligibility.

Currently, the last three categories of protests are at various stages in the election protest process, with some still pending with and yet to be finally decided by the county boards, some having been decided with no timely appeal, some that are subject to appeal, and some that have been withdrawn by the Protester.

This decision concerns the first three categories of election protests.

II. STANDARD OF DECISION

The State Board assumed jurisdiction over these protests pursuant to its authority under N.C.G.S. § 163-182.12, which states, in relevant part:

The State Board of Elections may consider protests that were not filed in compliance with G.S. 163-182.9, may initiate and consider complaints on its own motion, may intervene and take jurisdiction over protests pending before a county board, and may take any other action necessary to assure that an election is determined without taint of fraud or corruption and without irregularities that may have changed the result of an election.

When a protest is filed with a county board, the county board must first hold a “preliminary consideration” meeting. N.C.G.S. § 163-182.10(a). At that meeting, before a protest may advance to an evidentiary hearing on the allegations, the county board must first “determine whether the protest substantially complies with G.S. 163-182.9 and whether it establishes probable cause to believe that a violation of election law or irregularity or misconduct has occurred.” Id. Only if a protest satisfies both of these requirements will it advance to an evidentiary hearing. Id.

The first preliminary consideration requirement considers whether the protest satisfied the filing requirements in N.C.G.S. § 163-182.9. These requirements include the deadline by which a protest must be filed, how the protest must be filed, and the use of the State Board’s election protest form, which is promulgated in an administrative rule, 08 NCAC 02 .0111, pursuant to a statutory mandate for the State Board to “prescribe forms for filing protests.” N.C.G.S. § 163-182.9.

The second preliminary consideration requirement considers whether the substance of the protest meets the pleading threshold to advance to a hearing—“whether it establishes probable cause to believe that a violation of election law or irregularity or misconduct has occurred.” N.C.G.S. § 163-182.10(a)(1). This standard involves both legal and factual questions. Legally, the Board must decide whether the claims made in the protest are actionable via a protest as a matter of law—whether the allegations even amount to a violation, irregularity, or misconduct in the conduct of the election. If so, the Board must decide whether the factual allegations and evidence attached to the protest establish probable cause to believe that the alleged violation, irregularity, or misconduct actually occurred.

Probable cause is a commonsense, practical standard: Is the material submitted by the protester sufficient for a reasonable and prudent person to believe that election law violations, irregularities, or misconduct occurred in the conduct of the election. It does not mean that such a belief is necessarily correct or more likely true than false. A probability of an irregularity in the conduct of the election is sufficient. See Adams v. City of Raleigh, 245 N.C. App. 330, 336–37, 782 S.E.2d 108, 113–14 (2016).

The General Statutes are not clear whether the State Board must conduct preliminary consideration, which is prescribed for county board protest procedures in N.C.G.S. § 163-182.10, when the State Board exercises jurisdiction over a protest in the first instance under N.C.G.S. § 163-182.12. Nonetheless, the State Board adopts this established preliminary consideration procedure with regard to these protests, in the interest of the efficient administration of justice.

III. ANALYSIS

The protests at issue were not served on affected voters in accordance with law. Additionally, each of the three categories of protests is legally deficient. The protests are therefore dismissed.

A. Service of Protests on Challenged Voters<sup>4</sup>

The Board first concludes that the Protesters failed to serve the registered voters they seek to challenge in their protests in a manner that would comply with the North Carolina Administrative Code and be consistent with the requirements of constitutional due process.

When a board of elections conducts its preliminary consideration of a protest filing, it is tasked with first determining “whether the protest substantially complies with G.S. 163-182.9.” N.C.G.S. § 163-182.10(a)(1). That statute requires certain information to be contained within the protest filing (i.e., identification of the protestor, the basis of the protest, and the remedy requested), while also stating the following: “The State Board of Elections shall prescribe forms for filing protests.” N.C.G.S. § 163-182.9(c).

<sup>4</sup> A small number of the protests encompassed within this order may not have been timely filed under G.S. § 163-182.9(b)(4), including all of Adams’s protests and the Griffin protests filed in Moore, Orange, and Richmond counties. Nonetheless, the Board does not need to decide whether they were timely or whether the Board would exercise its jurisdiction under G.S. § 163-182.12 to consider such untimely protests, as it is dismissing these protests for other reasons.

The State Board has promulgated such a form in the administrative code at 08 NCAC 02 .0111. This rule, which carries the force of law, makes clear the protestor’s responsibilities in completing, filing, and serving the form. The Board promulgated this rule in 2020 under its specific statutory authority to do so under N.C.G.S. §§ 163-182.9(c) and 163-182.10(e), and under its general statutory authority for rulemaking under N.C.G.S. § 163-22(a).

Any voters whose right to vote is called into question by the protest are “affected parties” who must be served with copies of all protest filings, as follows:

You must serve copies of all filings on every person with a direct stake in the outcome of this protest (“Affected Parties”). . . . If a protest concerns the eligibility or ineligibility of particular voters, all such voters are Affected Parties and must be served. Address information for registered voters is available from the county board of elections or using the Voter Lookup at www.ncsbe.gov.

08 NCAC 02 .0111 (emphasis added).

The rule provides the following instruction for how and when to serve the protest filings:

*Materials may be served by personal delivery, transmittal through U.S. Mail or commercial carrier service to the Affected Party’s mailing address of record on file with the county board of elections or the State Board, or by any other means affirmatively authorized by the Affected Party. . . . Service must occur within one (1) business day of filing materials with the county board of elections. If service is by transmittal through the U.S. Mail or commercial carrier service, service will be complete when the properly addressed, postage-paid parcel is deposited into the care and custody of the U.S. Mail or commercial carrier service. It is [the protester’s] responsibility to ensure service is made on all Affected Parties.*

Id. (emphasis added).

The question at hand is whether the Protesters’ method of service satisfies the requirement in 08 NCAC 02 .0111 to “serve” the voters with “copies of all filings.”

i. Method of service used by the Protesters

The Protesters did not personally deliver physical copies of the filings to the voters or mail physical copies of the filings to the voters' address in their voter registration record. Instead, the Protesters mailed a postcard, with the sender identified as the North Carolina Republican Party, and this message: "your vote may be affected by one or more protests filed in relation to the 2024 General Election," and an instruction to scan a QR code<sup>5</sup> to view the protest filings. The postcard does not inform the voter that it is Griffin, Adams, McGinn, or Sossamon protesting, that they are challenging the voter's eligibility to vote, or include the text of the link that the QR code points to (https://www.nc.gop/griffin\_protest). This means that the method of service used by Griffin requires a recipient to somehow know this postcard is intended to be a legal document, and to trust the card is not a scam<sup>6</sup> or junk mail. The voter must also have a smartphone and know how to scan a QR code.<sup>7</sup> There is no other way from the face of the postcard for the recipient voter to know what website to visit to obtain access to the information and materials necessary to know the nature of the proceeding and how the voter is affected by it.

<sup>5</sup> "QR codes (or Quick Response codes) are two-dimensional codes that you can scan with a smartphone. The code contains information, usually a site address, and once you scan it, the code connects you with a resource on the web." Introduction to QR codes, Digital.gov, available at <https://digital.gov/resources/introduction-to-qr-codes/> (last visited December 9, 2024).

<sup>6</sup> While generally useful and increasingly more common, the federal government has made clear that there can be security issues with using QR codes, because "[c]ybercriminals can tamper with QR codes, replacing them altogether with QR code stickers or interfering with the link that's embedded in the code." Introduction to QR codes, Digital.gov (referring to guidance from the Federal Bureau of Investigations in 2022).

<sup>7</sup> See Symbology Innovations, LLC v. Lego Sys., 158 F. Supp. 3d 916, 922 (E.D. Va. 2017) ("To access information stored in the QR code, a consumer must have a QR code reader application ("app") installed on the consumer's smart phone. When presented with a QR code, the consumer opens the app, which activates the smartphone's camera to scan the QR code. The app then processes the QR code, decodes its message, and uses the encoded URL to access the online content sought by the consumer." (citations omitted)).

If the voter has a smartphone and knows how to scan the QR code, then they will be taken to a website, on the browser app of their smartphone, hosted by the North Carolina Republican Party containing links to the hundreds of protests filed by all four of the Protesters.<sup>8</sup> Despite the postcard informing the voter to “check under the county in which you cast a ballot to see what protest may relate to you,” only the Griffin protest is organized by county. The Adams protest filing links include names of counties that may clue in a voter that they must be registered to vote in that county to be subject to that particular protest, but the six McGinn protest filing links and five Sossamon protest filing links contain no such information. Again, the postcard does not inform the voter which candidate is challenging their eligibility, so a voter would need to review the Griffin, Adams, McGinn, and Sossamon protest filings to determine whether they are affected, and then choose from among the several categories of protests listed. All this must be done on the browser app of a voter’s smartphone if they have one.

Once a voter has located which of the hundreds of protest filings linked on the website might include them, they must then peruse the filings, on their smartphone, to locate their name in printouts of spreadsheets attached to a protest filing. These attachments do not list voters alphabetically and, depending on the basis of the protest, may contain hundreds of names across numerous pages. Take for instance the Lee County protests filed by Griffin. The “Incomplete Voter” protest alone contains almost 200 voters’ names across five pages,<sup>9</sup> with another 10 voters challenged across three other protest filings.<sup>10</sup> A Lee County voter in receipt of Griffin's postcard would have to read through every line of text in the spreadsheets attached to these four protests to determine if their name is on one or more of the lists of voters challenged by Griffin, as well as the other protests listed on the website. And even if the voter finds their name, in most instances the only way to confirm the name listed refers to them would be to look up their NCID number or voter registration number (VRN) on their voter registration card (if they have ready access to it) or voter profile on the State Board's website.<sup>11</sup> This is because the only demographic information listed on the spreadsheet for most of the protests is the voter's name and those identifier numbers, which are only relevant for administrative election purposes and are generally not known by a voter. The face of the protest form likewise does not contain any challenged voter's demographic information.

<sup>8</sup> Screenshots of the website as displayed on a smartphone are in Attachment A to this decision.

ii. Compliance with the service requirements

The method of service employed here does not comport with the plain text of the rule or the constitutional due-process requirements to serve an affected party.

First, a straightforward reading of the instructions in 08 NCAC 02 .0111 make it clear that the "materials" to be served through personal delivery or as a "parcel" in the mail are physical "copies of all filings."

This plain reading of the rule makes even more sense when considering how service is typically made in other contexts. For example, service of process on a natural person (i.e., a person, not a corporation) in a civil lawsuit must be done by “delivering a copy of the summons and of the complaint” to person, or their agent, by “leaving copies thereof” at the person’s home, by “mailing a copy of the summons and of the complaint” by certified mail or through a designated delivery service. N.C.G.S. § 1A-1, Rule 4(j)(1) (emphasis added). As another example, when documents other than the summons and complaint must be served directly on a party to a civil lawsuit, service must be done as provided in Rule 4, or by “delivering a copy to the party,” which means physically “handing it to the party,” or by “mailing a copy to the party at the party’s last known address,” or by email “if the party has consented to receive e-mail service in the case at a particular e-mail address, and a copy of the consent is filed with the court by any party.” N.C.G.S. § 1A-1, Rule 5(b)(2) (emphasis added). There is no North Carolina statute or rule that authorizes service of a document to be made by directing a recipient to a website through a QR code located on a postcard mailed in lieu actually including the document required to be served. This is especially important here because the postcard never states clearly that the recipient’s right to vote is being challenged.

<sup>10</sup> Copies of all protests filed by Griffin, including those that may have been late or not actually received by a county, are available on the State Board's website at: <https://dl.ncsbe.gov/?prefix=Legal/Nov%202024%20Protests/Griffin/>.

Second, the method of service employed by the Protesters violates the constitutional due process rights of the affected voters.

Election protests are quasi-judicial proceedings. Bouvier v. Porter, 386 N.C. 1, 12, 900 S.E.2d 838, 848 (2024). When a board of elections proceeds in its quasi-judicial capacity, the due process rights of the participants must be protected. See Rotruck v. Guilford Cty. Bd. of Elections, 267 N.C. App. 260, 265, 833 S.E.2d 345, 349 (2019) (applying Coastal Ready-Mix Concrete Co. v. Bd. of Comm’rs, 299 N.C. 620, 265 S.E.2d 379 (1980), in reviewing a voter registration challenge heard before a county board of elections). This protection is particularly important when the election protest challenges the eligibility of voters to vote in the protested contest, because a successful protest will mean the discarding of their votes. Voters have a constitutionally protected liberty interest in their right to vote. See Democracy N.C. v. N.C. State Bd. of Elections, 476 F. Supp. 3d 158, 227 (M.D.N.C. 2020).

At a minimum, due process requires “notice and opportunity for hearing appropriate to the nature of the case.” Mullane v. Cent. Hanover Bank & Tr. Co., 339 U.S. 306, 313, 70 S. Ct. 652, 656-57 (1950); see McMillan v. Robeson Cty., 262 N.C. 413, 417, 137 S.E.2d 105, 108 (1964) (incorporating these procedural due process requirements through the “law of the land” and “due process of law” provisions of the North Carolina Constitution.). “This right to be heard has little reality or worth unless one is informed that the matter is pending and can choose for himself whether to appear or default, acquiesce or contest.” Mullane, 339 U.S. at 314, 70 S. Ct. at 657.

“An elementary and fundamental requirement of due process in any proceeding which is to be accorded finality is notice reasonably calculated, under all the circumstances, to apprise interested parties of the pendency of the action and afford them an opportunity to present their objections.” Id. at 314, 70 S. Ct. at 657 (cleaned up); see In re Appeal of McElwee, 304 N.C. 68, 81, 283 S.E.2d 115, 123 (1981) (applying Mullane). “[W]hen notice is a person’s due, process which is a mere gesture is not due process. The means employed must be such as one desirous of actually informing the absentee might reasonably adopt to accomplish it. The reasonableness and hence the constitutional validity of any chosen method may be defended on the ground that it is in itself reasonably certain to inform those affected, or, where conditions do not reasonably permit such notice, that the form chosen is not substantially less likely to bring home notice than other of the feasible and customary substitutes.” Mullane, 339 U.S. at 315, 70 S. Ct. at 657–58 (cleaned up).

The Protesters' chosen method of service is not reasonably calculated under the circumstances to inform the challenged voters as to what action is pending, nor does it provide enough information for the voters to determine what they can even do about it. Instead, the postcard with a QR code method can reasonably be described as a "mere gesture" at providing the voters with notice. After all, not every voter will even have a smartphone or the wherewithal for scanning the QR code, or be trusting enough of an unsolicited postcard mailing from a political party to even follow that QR code. And the wording of the postcard is so vague that it is unlikely to clearly inform the recipient that a legal proceeding has been filed against them. For those voters who happen to understand that the postcard is notifying them that a legal proceeding has been filed against them, and who are trusting and savvy enough to follow the QR code on their smartphone, they still have to engage in a needle-in-a-haystack effort to locate what has been alleged about them and by whom, and what is the authority underlying the legal proceeding which would perhaps give them an indication of how and whether they can respond. The method of service chosen here is substantially less likely to give the voters notice than any other customary alternatives.

As Griffin notes in his brief, the Supreme Court of North Carolina has observed that the election protest process is supposed to be "simple so that everyone, not just lawyers, can use it." Bouvier v. Porter, 386 N.C. 1, 4, 900 S.E.2d 838, 843 (2024).<sup>12</sup> The applicable rule is quite simple when it comes to service of the protest filings on affected parties. And following its direction would indeed ensure that the affected party receives adequate notice of the proceedings. Yet, instead of simply mailing to each voter a physical copy of the filing that is actually <sup>12</sup> This notion should apply to not only the people bringing the protest, but obviously, for those who may have their votes stripped through the protest, as well.

applicable to the voter, the Protesters chose to have their political party send each of voters they have challenged on a journey that would likely leave many of the voters wishing they had a digital-age Lewis and Clark to lead the way. Accordingly, the Protesters have failed to meet this “elementary and fundamental requirement of due process” with their chosen method of service. Mullane, 339 U.S. at 314, 70 S. Ct. at 657.

In sum, the Protesters have failed to show substantial compliance with the requirement of 08 NCAC 02 .0111 to “serve” the voters they are challenging with “copies of all filings,” and their decision to employ the postcard QR code method of service was not reasonably certain to inform the affected voters of the matter such that they could choose for themselves how to respond.

For these reasons, the State Board concludes, by a vote of 3 to 2, that the protests were not properly served on affected parties required to receive service of copies of the protest filings and therefore do not substantially comply with N.C.G.S. § 163-182.9. The Board will nonetheless address the remaining aspects of preliminary consideration review, because the General Statutes call for reviewing the protest for both procedural compliance and probable cause at the preliminary consideration stage. See N.C.G.S. § 163-182.10(a)(1) (“If the board determines that one or both requirements are not met, the board shall dismiss the protest.” (emphasis added)).

B. Alleged Incomplete Registrations

The protests regarding allegedly incomplete voter registration forms fail to establish probable cause that a violation, irregularity, or misconduct in the election, that is actionable via a post-election protest, has occurred.

The Protesters filed a series of protests across the state which challenged the eligibility of over 60,000 voters who cast ballots in the November 2024 general election and whose electronic voter registration database records displayed neither a driver's license number nor the last four digits of a social security number. The Protesters conclude that these voters never submitted either of these numbers when registering to vote. Accordingly, the Protesters request that these voters' ballots be removed from the official count, or, if the voters submit the missing information in some post-canvass information-gathering procedure yet to be devised, their vote may count.

i. Factual basis for the protests

As an initial matter, the Protest filings include insufficient allegations and evidence to establish probable cause to believe that their challenged voters failed to provide one of these identification numbers on their voter registration application.

The Protesters and their affiant in support of their protest filings make the factual assumption that a list of voters who lack certain data in the voter registration database record never provided that data. As their affiant states, to produce their list, they requested a list of voters who "do not contain data in one or more of the following data fields: (1) Driver's License Number; or (2) Last Four Digits of Social Security Number." It requires a factual inference to then conclude that the absence of these data elements in a database means that a voter's registration application was incomplete when submitted. It would be an unwarranted inference, based on the language of our statutes and prior Board decisions on this issue.

First, a voter who submits a registration application without one of these identification numbers because they do not have one is nonetheless allowed to register to vote, despite their form lacking these numbers. See N.C.G.S. § 163-82.4(b) ("The State Board shall assign a unique identifier number to an applicant for voter registration if the applicant has not been issued either a current and valid drivers license or a social security number.”); see also 52 U.S.C. § 21083(a)(5)(ii) (similar).

Second, when a registrant provides one of these numbers but the number does not validate through a database match among different government databases, their voter registration database record will lack such a number. When a person submits a voter registration application with a driver’s license number or the last four digits of a social security number, the county board must attempt to validate that number using N.C. Division of Motor Vehicles (NCDMV) and Social Security Administration databases. See N.C.G.S. § 163-82.12(6)–(9). If that number does not validate, then the person must be informed of that fact and offered an alternative means of confirming their identity before they first vote. Id. §§ 163-82.12(9), 163-166.12(d). They may do so by presenting a “current and valid photo identification,” or a “copy of one of the following documents that shows the name and address of the voter: a current utility bill, bank statement, government check, paycheck, or other government document.” Id. § 163-166.12(a), (d). Unvalidated identification numbers are not retained in a voter’s registration record. See In re: HAVA Complaint of Joanne Empie, N.C. State Bd. of Elections, at 7 (Nov. 11, 2024) (“Once that happens, the database removes the unverified driver’s license number or last four digits of a social security number from the electronic registration record, although the data is still retained elsewhere within the system.”).<sup>13</sup>

<sup>13</sup> Available at <https://s3.amazonaws.com/dl.ncsbe.gov/HAVA%20Administrative%20Complaints/2024-08-07%20Empie/ED%20Recommendation%20-%20HAVA%20Complaint%20Decision%20-%20Empie.pdf>. The State Board takes judicial notice of its prior decisions on the issue of identification numbers on voter registration applications. Such notice was announced at the State

Accordingly, it would be an unwarranted inference to conclude that the lack of numbers in a voter registration database field for a driver's license number or last four digits of a social security number means that the person registered to vote without providing one of these numbers, despite having such a number. The Protesters offer no reason in their protest papers to conclude that any of the voters they are challenging fall outside these categories. The Protests therefore lack sufficient factual enhancement to establish probable cause to believe a violation of law, irregularity, or misconduct in the conduct of the election has occurred, even assuming what has been alleged is such a violation. N.C.G.S. § 163-182.10(a)(1).

ii. Legal basis for the protests

Even assuming the facts alleged and the affidavit accompanying the protests established probable cause to believe some voters registered without providing their identification numbers and they actually possessed such numbers, the fact that these registered voters cast ballots is not a violation, irregularity, or misconduct in the conduct of the election, for the following reasons.

a. Previous decisions foreclose these protests.

The legal requirement to require one of these identification numbers derives from federal law, and the complained-of issue has been remedied consistent with federal law.

No provision of North Carolina law clearly states that a county board may not process a registration application from a voter who does not provide one of these identification numbers. The General Statutes provide that the voter registration form must "request" this information. N.C.G.S. § 163-82.4(a). It requires an inference, based on the fact that specific other items are referred to as “optional” in the statute, to conclude that the absence of such “request[ed]” information on a voter registration application requires a county board to reject a person’s registration application as a matter of state law, as the Protesters contend. They perhaps draw that inference from another subsection of the same statute, subsection (f), which states, “If the voter fails to complete any required item on the voter registration form but provides enough information on the form to enable the county board of elections to identify and contact the voter, the voter shall be notified of the omission and given the opportunity to complete the form at least by 5:00 P.M. on the day before the county canvass as set in G.S. 163-182.5(b).” (Emphasis added.) But it’s a question-begging argument to assert that the “request[ed]” identification numbers identified in subsection (a) of this statute is a “required item” under subsection (f), simply because subsection (f) refers indiscriminately to a “required item” on the form.

To be sure, the State Board considers this a required item, not because of state law, but because of federal law. Since 2004,<sup>14</sup> the federal Help America Vote Act (HAVA) has prohibited a state from processing a voter registration application without one of these numbers, if the voter has one. 52 U.S.C. § 21083(a)(5)(A). But this Board and a federal court, examining this very issue prior to and during this election, determined that any previous failure to implement this federal requirement cannot be held against already-registered voters casting ballots in this election, as explained below.

After receiving a HAVA administrative complaint in 2023 seeking a similar remedy based on the alleged registration of voters who did not provide these numbers despite having them, this Board determined that retroactively requiring this information of registered voters was a remedy not authorized by HAVA. In re: HAVA Complaint of Carol Snow, N.C. State Bd. of Elections, at 4 (Dec. 6, 2023).<sup>15</sup> In its determination, the Board noted that “the law’s purpose of identifying the registrant upon initial registration is already accomplished because any voter who did not provide a driver’s license number or the last four digits of a Social Security number would have had to provide additional documentation to prove their identity before being allowed to vote, by operation of the separate provision of HAVA . . . . In other words, no one who lacked this information when registering since the enactment of HAVA would have been allowed to vote without proving their identity consistent with HAVA.” Id. at 4–5.

That separate provision of HAVA states that a new voter registration applicant must provide an alternative form of identification before or upon voting for the first time, if the state did not have a system complying with the requirement to collect a driver’s license number or last four digits of a social security number. See 52 U.S.C. § 21083(b)(1)–(3). Those alternative forms of identification, as discussed already, include “a current and valid photo identification,” or “a copy of a current utility bill, bank statement, government check, paycheck, or other government document that shows the name and address of the voter.” Id. § 21083(b)(2)(A)(i)–(ii). North Carolina’s election officials refer to these alternative forms of identification as “HAVA ID.” As

The motion that the Board unanimously adopted at this hearing stated, “the State Board resolve[s] the HAVA complaint filed by Carol Snow by determining that a violation of Section 303 of HAVA could occur as a result of the voter registration application form failing to require an applicant to provide an identification number or indicate that they do not possess such a number, and that the appropriate remedy is the implementation of staff’s recommended changes to the voter registration application form and any related materials.” See Minutes of Meeting, N.C. State Bd. of Elections (Nov. 28, 2023), available at https://s3.amazonaws.com/dl.ncsbe.gov/State\_Board\_Meeting\_Docs/State\_Board\_Meeting\_Minutes/2023%20SBOE%20Minutes/SBE%20Open%20Session%20Minutes%2011.28.23.pdf.

noted in this prior Board decision on the HAVA complaint, the boards of elections require voters without these numbers in their database record to provide HAVA ID before they can first cast a ballot. In re: HAVA Complaint of Carol Snow at 4–5.

Prior to the General Election, the Republican National Committee and North Carolina Republican Party filed a lawsuit seeking the same relief sought by Protesters here. The federal district court for the Eastern District of North Carolina acknowledged the legal flaw in awarding such relief in the instant election, given that there had been no meaningful opportunity for the voters at issue to address any potential deficiency far enough in advance of the election to comply with the law. The court noted that it was a meritorious contention that equitable principles “prohibit[] granting Plaintiffs relief in connection with the most recent election.” Order at 4, Repub. Nat’l Comm. v. N.C. State Bd. of Elections, No. 5:24-cv-547 (Nov 22, 2024). The court further affirmed, when discussing the equitable doctrine of laches, that “Plaintiffs in this action are not going to obtain any relief in connection with the most recent election.” Id.

Accordingly, to the extent there is a potential violation of HAVA involved in the registration of voters in the past, it was remedied consistent with a separate provision of HAVA, and a federal court has determined that no further remedy would be permissible for the current election.

b. Protests cannot be used to remove ballots of eligible voters who did everything they were told to do to register.

A violation, irregularity, or misconduct does not occur when a voter does everything the government requires of them to register, they possess the qualifications to vote, and they vote. Because the protests do not allege otherwise, they have failed to allege a protest that is actionable as a matter of law.

Assuming that the protests provide a sufficient basis to conclude that any of the challenged voters registered without providing an identification number and did not indicate that they lacked such numbers, the Protesters admit that it would not have been the voter's fault that they were able to nonetheless register. They explain, correctly, that for a number of years and spanning multiple Board administrations, the voter registration form in North Carolina did not fully inform voters that these identification numbers were required to be submitted with the form. As the State Board concluded when considering the aforementioned HAVA complaint, "a violation of [HAVA's requirement to gather these numbers during registration] could occur as a result of the current North Carolina voter registration application form failing to require an applicant to provide an identification number or indicate that they do not possess such a number." In re: HAVA Complaint of Carol Snow, N.C. State Bd. of Elections, at 4 (Dec. 6, 2023). The Board therefore ordered the form be changed in December 2023 and ordered that county boards be instructed that such numbers must be obtained before processing registrations going forward, unless the voter affirmed that they lacked these numbers. Id.

With regard to already-registered voters, the Board explained that any voters who were able to register without providing one of the identification numbers would have been required to use HAVA's alternative means of confirming their identity before voting: a current and valid photo identification, or a copy of a current utility bill, bank statement, government check, paycheck, or other government document that shows the name and address of the voter. See id. at 4–5 (citing to 52 U.S.C. § 21083(b)(2)(A)). Moreover, in all elections since April 2023, all such voters, whether they had provided an identification number at registration or presented an alternative form of ID when they first voted, have been asked to provide a valid photo ID under state law to prove their identity during every election. N.C.G.S. § 163-166.16.

Accordingly, at best, the Protesters' argument is that the voters they challenge did everything that was asked of them to prove their identity to register and vote, yet through an administrative error in the processing of registration forms, the boards of elections did not collect these voters' driver's license or last four digits of the social security number. Importantly, the Protesters do not allege that any of the challenged voters in this category lack the substantive qualifications to vote. This category of protests hinges only on alleged noncompliance with voter registration procedures. Under North Carolina law, however, this sort of challenge to an election is forbidden.

In a directly applicable case from the North Carolina Supreme Court, the court concluded that an error by election officials in the processing of voter registration cannot be used to discount a voter's ballot. Woodall v. W. Wake Highway Com., 176 N.C. 377, 388, 97 S.E. 226, 231 (1918). There, registrars failed to administer an oath to voters, which was a legal prerequisite to registration. The court held,

A vote received and deposited by the judges of the election is presumed to be a legal vote, although the voter may not actually have complied entirely with the requirements of the registration law; and it then devolves upon the party contesting to show that it was an illegal vote, and this cannot be shown by proving merely that the registration law had not been complied with.

Id. at 389, 97 S.E. at 232. The court further explained,

Where a voter has registered, but the registration books show that he had not complied with all the minutiae of the registration law, his vote will not be rejected. Such legislation is not to be regarded as hostile to the free exercise of the right of franchise, and should receive such construction by the courts as will be conclusive as to a full and fair expression of the will of the qualified voters.

Id.

The Supreme Court reaffirmed the holding in Woodall decades later in Overton v. Mayor & City Comm'rs of Hendersonville, 253 N.C. 306, 316, 116 S.E.2d 808, 815 (1960). The court stated, [A] statute prescribing the powers and duties of registration officers should not be so construed as to make the right to vote by registered voters depend upon a strict observance of the registrars of all the minute directions of the statute in preparing the voting list, and thus render the constitutional right of suffrage liable to be defeated, without the fault of the elector, by fraud, caprice, ignorance, or negligence of the registrars.

Id. (quoting Gibson v. Bd. of Comm'rs, 163 N.C. 510, 513, 79 S.E. 976, 977 (1913)).

Counsel for the Protesters offered no response to this directly applicable legal authority on which they had notice prior to the argument on these protests, even despite a Board member's request during argument for the Protesters to rebut it.

Not only does North Carolina law forbid this type of election protest, federal law also forbids it because it would violate substantive due process protections under the U.S. Constitution.

In Griffin v. Burns, 570 F.2d 1065 (1st Cir. 1978), election officials in Rhode Island, believing the issuance of absentee ballots in party primaries was authorized, and acting in accordance with a practice that had existed for about seven years in the case of primaries, advertised and issued those ballots for use in a party primary. Id. at 1067. After the primary, the losing candidate for the first time questioned the statutory and constitutional authority of the election officials to issue and count the ballots. Id. After being denied relief by the state elections board, the Rhode Island Supreme Court invalidated those absentee ballots and quashed the certificate of nomination, finding “there is no constitutional or statutory basis for allowing absentee and shut-in voters to cast their votes in a primary election.” Id. at 1068. The prevailing candidate then filed a lawsuit in federal court. The First Circuit found that the retroactive invalidation of the ballots cast constituted “broad-gauged unfairness” prohibited under substantive due process jurisprudence, because the “issuance of such ballots followed long-standing practice; and in utilizing such ballots voters were doing no more than following the instructions of the officials charged with running the election.” Id. at 1075-76 (emphasis added).

The Fourth Circuit has adopted the Griffin framework as “settled” law. Hendon v. N.C. State Bd. of Elections, 710 F.2d 177, 182 (4th Cir. 1983); see also Bennett v. Yoshina, 140 F.3d 1218, 1226–27 (9th Cir. 1998) (adopting the Griffin framework and explaining, “a court will strike down an election on substantive due process grounds if two elements are present: (1) likely reliance by voters on an established election procedure and/or official pronouncements about what the procedure will be in the coming election; and (2) significant disenfranchisement that results from a change in the election procedures.”).

Here, the protests are premised on voters not supplying their driver’s license or social security number when registering to vote, and the county boards of elections processing those forms. The grounds for the protest resulted from the State Board-produced voter registration form and past guidance from the State Board that would lead those counties to treat forms without such an identifier as requiring the voter to show a HAVA ID before voting rather than be considered incomplete. That is what the voters were informed to do to validly vote, and they relied on that information. Under these circumstances, to remove the ballots of any of these voters—whether automatically in resolution of the protest after hearing the evidence<sup>16</sup> or upon

<sup>16</sup> Even if the State Board agreed with the Protesters that should voters’ ballots could be removed pursuant to the protest, before doing so, evidence would need to establish that each of these voters was actually registered after the effective date of HAVA without providing a driver’s some post-canvass notice procedure involving the voters, as the Protesters suggest would be permissible—would result in “the kind of ‘broad-gauged unfairness’ that renders an election patently and fundamentally unfair.” Lecky v. Va. State Bd. of Elections, 285 F. Supp. 3d 908, 916 (E.D. Va. 2018). As Chief Judge Myers of the Federal District Court for the Eastern District of North Carolina stated during oral argument over this same class of voters, “We certainly can’t be disenfranchising people who did what they were told to do who are eligible voters.” Transcript at 64:7–9, Doc. 63, Repub. Nat’l Comm. v. N.C. State Bd. of Elections, No. 5:24-cv-547 (Oct. 20, 2024). Accordingly, regardless of whether state law permits this election protest to proceed, the federal constitution does not.

c. Removing these voters’ ballots on this basis would violate the registration laws.

To grant the Protesters the relief they request in these protests, moreover, would violate state and federal voter registration laws. Without question, these challenged voters are registered voters. State and federal statutes restrict the removal of voters from “the official list of eligible voters” in an election unless those voters do not meet the substantive qualifications to vote. 52 U.S.C. § 20507(a)(3); N.C.G.S. § 163-82.14(a).

license number or last four digits of their social security number on their voter registration application, if they had one. As noted in the previous section, voter records routinely lack these numbers for other permissible reasons. Any such evidentiary review would also need to factor in routine data entry errors where county workers do not enter all the data from a registration form into the database, situations when a voter supplied such a number in a previous application under a different registration record than the one challenged, and situations when a voter registered prior to the effective date of HAVA but a new registration was created for them that is not linked to that older registration, among other potential reasons that any of the challenged voters may have been registered consistent with HAVA but nonetheless their database record lacks these numbers.

Under state law, “[e]very person registered to vote by a county board of elections in accordance with this Article shall remain registered until: (1) The registrant requests in writing to the county board of elections to be removed from the list of registered voters; or (2) The registrant becomes disqualified through death, conviction of a felony, or removal out of the county; or (3) The county board of elections determines, through the procedure outlined in G.S. 163-82.14, that it can no longer confirm where the voter resides.” N.C.G.S. § 163-82.1(c) (emphasis added). None of these provisions apply to permit the removal of the registrants challenged by the Protesters.

Under federal law, the National Voter Registration Act (NVRA), once a person is registered to vote, “a registrant may not be removed from the official list of eligible voters except” (A) at the request of the registrant; (B) by reason of criminal conviction or mental incapacity under state law; or (C) through list maintenance based on change of residency or death. 52 U.S.C. § 20507(a)(3), (a)(4), (c)(1). None of those reasons apply here. Another provision of the NVRA prohibits a state from conducting “any program” to “systematically remove the names of ineligible voters from the official lists of eligible voters” within 90 days of a federal election. Id. § 20507(c)(2).<sup>17</sup>

<sup>17</sup> It cannot reasonably be contended that removing voters under such a program from the list of voters eligible to cast a ballot in an election would be permissible if done immediately after an election and that removal is retroactive to the election. The result is the same—the voter has been removed from the “official list of eligible voters” in that election in a manner that occurred too late under federal law. 52 U.S.C. § 20507(a). The Protesters sought to draw a distinction at oral argument between a voter being on the list of eligible voters in an election and that voter having their ballot removed from the count in that election yet remaining on the list of eligible voters. To describe that attempted distinction is to prove its lack of logic. It would completely undermine the purpose of having a list of voters who are eligible to vote in an election if a voter is on that list yet the government removes their ballot. See Majority Forward v. Ben Hill Cty. Bd. of Elections, 512 F. Supp. 3d 1354, 1368 (M.D. Ga. 2021) (rejecting this same argument as

A separate federal law, HAVA, requires that any maintenance of the voter lists by a state be “conducted in a manner that ensures that—(i) the name of each registered voter appears in the computerized list; [and] (ii) only voters who are not registered or who are not eligible to vote are removed from the computerized list.” 52 U.S.C. § 21083(a)(2)(B). Like the reasons set forth in the NVRA, those reasons for removal do not apply here either, by Protesters own admission.

Our state law directs that we maintain the voter rolls in compliance with the NVRA, N.C.G.S. § 163-82.14(a1), and this provision of HAVA, id. § 163-82.11(c). In other words, North Carolina has what is called a “unified” registration system, meaning that we have the same rules for registration for voters in state and federal elections, and there is one eligible voter list for both types of elections. Republican Nat’l Comm. v. N.C. State Bd. of Elections, 120 F.4th 390 (4th Cir. 2024).

Retroactively removing these voters from the list of voters eligible to cast a ballot in the election would violate all of these federal law provisions. Accordingly, this protest does not allege a violation, irregularity, or misconduct that is legally actionable via a post-election protest.

d. The protests contravene the intent of North Carolina law.

This category of protests is also unlawful under state law because it would undermine the clear intent of the legislature with regard to how a voter may have their eligibility to vote challenged in an election.

The General Statutes provide that the only basis to discount a registered voter’s ballot is to properly allege and prove that such a voter lacks the substantive qualifications to vote in the election, the voter has already voted or is being impersonated, or the voter failed to follow the photo ID law. See N.C.G.S. ch. 163, art. 8 (governing voter challenges). The voter challenge statutes of Chapter 163 provide that the only valid bases to challenge the right of someone's ballot to count in a general election are:

- the voter is not a resident of voting jurisdiction,
- the voter is not 18 years of age (or will not be by Election Day),
- the voter is serving a felony sentence,
- the voter is dead,
- the voter is not a citizen of the United States,
- the voter is not who he or she represents himself or herself to be,
- the voter already voted,
- the voter does not present photo identification in accordance with N.C.G.S. § 163-166.16.

N.C.G.S. §§ 163-85(c), -87, -89(c). The Protesters allege none of these disqualifications among the voters they challenge.

For the State Board to permit an election protest to seek to disqualify voters' ballots on bases that are not permitted by the voter challenge statutes would violate the clear intent of state law. The General Assembly has specifically provided the specific substantive grounds for challenging the eligibility of voters in an election. Allowing an election protest to expand on those grounds would work an end-run around that law. DTH Media Corp. v. Folt, 374 N.C. 292, 300, 841 S.E.2d 251, 257 (2020) ("When multiple statutes address a single matter or subject, they must be construed together, in pari materia, to determine the legislature's intent."); Cooper v. Berger, 371 N.C. 799, 810, 822 S.E.2d 286, 296 (2018) ("Under the doctrine of expressio unius est exclusio alterius, when a statute lists the situations to which it applies, it implies the exclusion of situations not contained in the list. . . . In other words, sometimes a provision is written (or a set of provisions are written) in such a way that a reasonable negative inference can and should be drawn.”).

For all these reasons, the State Board concluded, by a vote of 3 to 2, that this category of protests does not establish probable cause to believe a violation of law, irregularity, or misconduct occurred in the conduct of the general election. N.C.G.S. § 163-182.10(a)(1).

C. U.S. Citizens Whose Parents Were North Carolina Residents but Who Have Never Resided in the United States

Next, the Board concludes that the protests regarding overseas-citizen voters who have never resided in the United States but whose parents resided in North Carolina before moving abroad fails to allege a violation, irregularity, or misconduct in the conduct of the election.

With regard to this category of protests, the Protesters are asking the State Board of Elections, an administrative agency, to ignore a statute of the General Assembly under the theory that the State Board should deem that statute unconstitutional. This, the Board cannot do.

In June 2011, the North Carolina General Assembly, while under the control of the Protesters’ political party, unanimously adopted Session Law 2011-182, entitled “An Act to Adopt Provisions of the Uniform Military and Overseas Voters Act Promulgated by the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Law, While Retaining Existing North Carolina Law More Beneficial to Those Voters.”<sup>18</sup> The act referenced in the title of the session law is a federal law that extends certain absentee voting privileges to military members and their families and overseas citizens that are not available to civilians living in the United States. See 52 U.S.C. §§ 20301 – 20311.

Session Law 2011-182 specifically authorized U.S. citizens who have never lived in the United States to vote in North Carolina elections if they have a familial connection to this state. The session law enacted Article 21A of Chapter 163 of the General Statutes, or the Uniform Military and Overseas Voters Act. That Act allows “covered voters” to use unique procedures to register to vote, request an absentee ballot, and submit an absentee ballot, which are not available to civilian voters in the United States who may only vote absentee using procedures in Article 20 of Chapter 163. See N.C.G.S. §§ 163-258.6 through -258.15. Particularly relevant here, the Act defines “covered voters” to include the following:

An overseas voter who was born outside the United States, is not described in sub-subdivision c. or d. of this subdivision, and, except for a State residency requirement, otherwise satisfies this State’s voter eligibility requirements, if:

1. The last place where a parent or legal guardian of the voter was, or under this Article would have been, eligible to vote before leaving the United States is within this State; and
2. The voter has not previously registered to vote in any other state.

Id. § 163-258.2(1)e.

The Act further reiterates the special procedures afforded such voters when it deems, for the purpose of voter registration, that the residence assigned to such voters shall be “the address of the last place of residence in this State of the parent or legal guardian of the voter. If that address is no longer a recognized residential address, the voter shall be assigned an address for voting purposes.” Id. § 163-258.5. Such voters are authorized to use special forms, developed by the United States Government for military and overseas-citizen voters, to register to vote and request an absentee ballot. Id. §§ 163-258.6, -258.7.

The Act is very clear that such voters are entitled to cast an absentee ballot under these procedures: “An application from a covered voter for a military-overseas ballot shall be considered a valid absentee ballot request for any election covered under G.S. 163-258.3 held during the calendar year in which the application was received.” Id. § 163-258.8. The Act is also clear that a validly returned absentee ballot from such voters must be counted: “A valid military-overseas ballot cast in accordance with G.S. 163-258.10 shall be counted if it is delivered to the address that the appropriate State or local election office has specified by the end of business on the business day before the canvass conducted by the county board of elections held pursuant to G.S. 163-182.5 to determine the final official results.” Id. § 163-258.12(a).

The foregoing statutes have been the law of North Carolina for thirteen years and have been faithfully implemented in 43 elections in this state since that time.<sup>19</sup>

In spite of the clear instructions from the General Assembly in the Act, the Protesters ask the State Board to invalidate the ballots of a specific category of “covered voters,” thereby contravening the governing statutes. The State Board of Elections will not do this.

As an administrative agency, the State Board is bound to follow the law that governs it. The Protesters suggest that this law need not be followed because, in their view, it violates the North Carolina Constitution. The State Board does not have the authority to declare an act of the General Assembly to be unconstitutional and thereby ignore it. In re Redmond, 369 N.C. 490, 493, 797 S.E.2d 275, 277 (2017) (“[I]t is a well-settled rule that a statute’s constitutionality shall be determined by the judiciary, not an administrative board.” (internal quotations omitted)).

Absent a judicial decision declaring the aforementioned laws unconstitutional, they are presumed to be valid and in compliance with the constitutional. Hart v. State, 368 N.C. 122, 126, 774 S.E.2d 281, 284 (2015).

Additionally, for the reasons discussed above regarding the identification number protests, even if it were later determined that these statutes are unconstitutional, it would violate the federal constitution’s guarantee of substantive due process to apply such a newly announced rule of law to remove voters’ ballots after an election, when those voters participated in the election in reliance on the established law at the time of the election to properly cast their ballots.

The State Board therefore concludes, by a vote of 3 to 2, that this category of protests does not allege a violation of law, irregularity, or misconduct in the conduct of the general election. N.C.G.S. § 163-182.10(a)(1).

D. Military and Overseas Citizen Absentee Voters Who Did Not Send Photo ID

Finally, the Board concludes that the protests regarding military and overseas-citizen voters who did not include a photocopy of photo identification or an ID Exception Form with their absentee ballots fails to allege a violation, irregularity, or misconduct in the conduct of the general election.

As with the prior category of protests, the body of law that applies to the voters challenged in this category of protests is Article 21A of Chapter 163 of the General Statutes. That article comprehensively addresses the requirements for voting by absentee ballot for “covered persons.” By contrast, the provisions of Article 20 comprehensively address the requirements for civilian absentee voting. The requirements of one article do not apply to the class of individuals subject to the other article, unless otherwise stated in statute.

To request a ballot under Article 21A, a covered voter must apply for an absentee ballot, which typically involves the submission of a standard federal form, a federal postcard application (FPCA) or a federal write-in absentee ballot (FWAB).<sup>20</sup> N.C.G.S. § 163-258.7. The State Board also makes the FPCA available through a secure online portal that covered voters may use to request and submit their absentee ballots. Id. §§ 163-258.4(c), -258.7(c), -258.9(b), -258.10. To confirm the voter’s identity, the standard federal forms require the voter to provide their name, birthdate, and their driver’s license number or social security number. The voter must also attest under penalty of perjury that the information on the forms “is true, accurate, and complete to the best of my knowledge.” Additionally, Article 21A requires covered voters to complete a declaration where they “swear or affirm specific representations pertaining to the voter's identity, eligibility to vote, status as a covered voter, and timely and proper completion of an overseas-military ballot.” Id. § 163-258.4(e); see id. § 163-258.13.

These are the sole provisions applying to the authentication of a covered voter who uses the provisions of Article 21A to vote by absentee ballot. Nowhere in Article 21A is there any reference to a covered voter supplying a photocopy of a photo ID with their absentee ballot. To remove any doubt about whether a separate authentication is required, a provision in Article 21A spells this out plainly: “An authentication, other than the declaration specified in G.S. 163-258.13 or the declaration on the federal postcard application and federal write-in absentee ballot, is not required for execution of a document under this Article.” The declaration and any information in the declaration may be compared against information on file to ascertain the validity of the document.” Id. § 163-258.17(a) (emphasis added).

The requirement to provide a photocopy of photo ID with an absentee ballot appears in Article 20 of Chapter 163, which governs civilian absentee voters residing in the United States. The relevant statute reads, “Each container-return envelope returned to the county board with application and voted ballots under this section shall be accompanied by a photocopy of identification described in G.S. 163-166.16(a) or an affidavit as described in G.S. 163-166.16(d)(1), (d)(2), or (d)(3).” Id. § 163-230.1(f1) (emphasis added). When the statute refers to “this section,” it is referring to N.C.G.S. § 163-230.1, which is a statute that provides requirements for requesting and completing absentee ballots for civilian voters under Article 20. Recall that the requirements for covered voters to request and complete absentee ballots appear in a completely different article of Chapter 163, at sections 163-258.7 and 163-258.12 of Article 21A. In addition to requiring photo ID from civilian absentee voters, Article 20 also requires two witnesses or a notary to authenticate a civilian absentee voter. Id. § 163-231. Article 20 also requires a civilian absentee voter, when they request an absentee ballot, to complete a request form created by the State Board (not the federal government) that includes their personal information, their birth date, and either an NCDMV identification number or the last four digits of the voter’s social security number. Id. § 163-230.2(a).

Additionally, the methods and deadlines for submitting absentee ballot requests and absentee ballots for civilian voters are completely distinct from such provisions for military and overseas-citizen voters. Compare id. §§ 163-230.2, -230.3, -231 (civilian), with id. §§ 163-258.7, -258.8, -258.10, -258.12 (military and overseas).

As the foregoing shows, by setting forth two distinct sets of comprehensive regulations for requesting and casting absentee ballots for two distinct classes of voters, and separating those comprehensive regulations in different statutory articles, the General Assembly clearly did not intend for the State Board to pick and choose laws from one article and apply those laws to persons subject to the other article, as the Protesters would have the State Board do.

To be sure, “covered voters” subject to Article 21A are expressly authorized to decline to use the absentee voting procedures of that article, and may choose instead to vote using the procedures applicable to civilian voters in Article 20. A covered voter “may apply for a military-overseas ballot using either the regular application provided by Article 20 of this Chapter or the federal postcard application.” Id. § 163-258.7(a). This just reiterates the distinction between the two application methods. If a covered voter chooses to submit an “application provided by Article 20,” that application is required to be “accompanied by” a photocopy of a photo ID. Id. § 163-230.1(f1). But the federal postcard application has no such requirement. Similarly, Article 21A “does not preclude a covered voter from voting an absentee ballot under Article 20 of this Chapter.” Id. § 163-258.7(f). This express authorization to vote by either method further proves that the legislature intended these methods of voting to be governed by different bodies of law.

The crux of Protesters’ argument that the provisions of Article 20 apply to voters using the provisions of Article 21A is language from a section of Article 20, section 163-239. That section is entitled, “Article 21A relating to absentee voting by military and overseas voters not applicable.” (Emphasis added.) It states, “[e]xcept as otherwise provided therein, Article 21A of this Chapter shall not apply to or modify the provisions of this Article.” Id. § 163-239. This language, and especially the title of the statute, prove the point that the legislature intended to establish two distinct absentee voting schemes for these distinct classes of voters. This provision merely highlights that the special provisions applicable to military and overseas-citizen voters “shall not apply to or modify” the provisions of Article 20, which apply to all other voters. The clear intent is to remove any doubt that only voters subject to Article 21A may use the procedures in Article 21A to vote by absentee ballot.

Even if the State Board were to adopt the Protesters’ reading of this statute and assume that Article 20 applied to covered voters, it would still do so “[e]xcept as otherwise provided [in Article 21A].” Id. And, as explained, when it comes to voter identification requirements, Article 21A provides otherwise. It states that “the voter’s identity” is affirmed by a specific declaration applicable only to covered voters. Id. § 163-258.4(e). And it confirms that “[a]n authentication, other than the declaration specified in G.S. 163-258.13 or the declaration on the federal postcard application and federal write-in absentee ballot, is not required for execution of a document under this Article.” Id. § 163-258.17(a) (emphasis added). Accordingly, the statute the Protesters rely on for their argument actually undermines their reading of the law.

In recognition of the fact that Article 21A includes no requirement for covered voters to include a photocopy of their photo ID, the State Board has promulgated an administrative rule through permanent rulemaking that makes it clear that the county boards of elections may not impose the photo ID requirement on such voters. In a Rule entitled “Exception for Military and Overseas Voters,” the Code provides that “A voter who is casting a ballot pursuant to G.S. 163, Article 21A, Part 1 is not required to submit a photocopy of acceptable photo identification under Paragraph (a) of this Rule or claim an exception under G.S. 163-166.16(d).” 08 NCAC 17

.0109(d). This Rule has been in effect, first as a temporary rule that became effective on August 1, 2023, and now as a permanent rule that became effective April 1, 2024.<sup>21</sup>

During the rulemaking process, none of the Protesters submitted comments on this Rule objecting to it. Nor did they seek to use administrative or judicial procedures to challenge the validity of this Rule prior to the election. The North Carolina Republican Party, which is participating in the prosecution of these protests, submitted thorough comments on this Rule but notably did not object to this aspect of the Rule, or seek to invalidate that aspect of the Rule using administrative or judicial procedures.<sup>22</sup> The Rule was approved unanimously by the Rules Review Commission,<sup>23</sup> an agency appointed by the leadership of the General Assembly that is required to object to rules proposed by an administrative agency if those rules exceed the authority of the agency to adopt them. G.S. § 150B-21.9(a)(1). This Rule is therefore directly applicable and enforceable.

Even if there was no such rule, it is questionable whether the State Board could have imposed a photo ID requirement on voters covered under the federal Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act (UOCAVA).

Federal law, specifically 52 U.S.C. §§ 20301 – 20311, as implemented through Article 21A of Chapter 163, governs the process for a covered voter to request and submit a ballot. Specifically, under 52 U.S.C. § 20302(a)(3) and (4), a state is required to permit such voters to use the federal write-in absentee ballot (FWAB) to vote in general elections for federal office and use the federal postcard application (FPCA) as both a registration application and absentee ballot application. These federally prescribed forms and their instructions, like Article 21A of our general statutes, do not include a requirement for covered voters to include a photocopy of photo identification. In fact, a review of the Federal Voting Assistance Program's (FVAP) comprehensive 2024-2025 Voting Assistance Guide reveals no instruction from any state to its UOCAVA voters stating that they must comply with a photo ID requirement when requesting or voting their ballot.<sup>24</sup> FVAP is an agency of the U.S. Department of Defense that is tasked with administering the federal responsibilities of UOCAVA, see 52 U.S.C. § 20301, and the Guide provides UOCAVA voters with instructions on how to register to vote, request a ballot, and transmit their ballot back to their local election office, including the use of an FWAB. There are only two instances where “photo ID” is even mentioned, neither of which apply a photo ID requirement for the submission and counting of a UOCAVA voter's ballot.<sup>25</sup>

Under the Supremacy Clause of the federal Constitution, and even under our state constitution, an effort to place additional, state-level requirements on UOCAVA voters casting a ballot by methods ultimately provided and governed by federal law would be of questionable validity. U.S. Const. art. VI, cl. 2; see N.C. Const. art. I, § 5 (“Every citizen of this State owes paramount allegiance to the Constitution and government of the United States, and no law or ordinance of the State in contravention or subversion thereof can have any binding force.”). Notably, FVAP has taken that view in the past, informing a state that applying a photo ID requirement to a UOCAVA voter using an FPCA “may likely be in conflict with federal statute.”<sup>26</sup>

In sum, as this Board has determined through rulemaking, military and overseas-citizen voters are not subject to the requirement to provide a photocopy of their photo ID with their absentee ballot when voting under the provisions of Article 21A. This has been the clear, established law in North Carolina ever since the photo ID law was given effect in April 2023, through six separate elections. In accordance with this established law, no voters using the Article 21A processes were ever informed that they were required to provide photo ID with their absentee ballots.

For these reasons, as with the prior two categories of protests, even if it were later determined that the state photo ID requirement actually applies to these voters, it would violate the federal constitution’s guarantee of substantive due process to apply such a newly announced rule of law to remove voters’ ballots after an election, when those voters participated in the election in reliance on the established law at the time of the election to properly cast their ballots.

For these reasons, the State Board concludes, by a 5 to 0 vote, that this category of protests fails to allege a violation, irregularity, or misconduct in the conduct of the general election.

IV. CONCLUSION

When a person challenges the results of an election by alleging that certain voters cast ineligible ballots, our law requires that person to provide adequate notice to these voters. That was not done here. These protests therefore fail to substantially comply with the requirements to initiate a protest under N.C.G.S. § 163-182.9. Even if the voters challenged in these protests had received adequate notice, the grounds for these protests are legally invalid for the reasons outlined in this decision.

The protests are DISMISSED.

State Board Will Not Order Full Recount in NC Supreme Court Contest

A partial hand recount resulted in additional votes for candidate Allison Riggs.

RALEIGH, N.C.

The State Board of Elections will not order a full hand recount of all ballots in the NC Supreme Court Associate Justice contest, after a partial recount resulted in additional votes for the leading candidate, Democrat Allison Riggs.

Riggs, who leads the contest by 734 votes after a statewide machine recount, picked up more votes than her opponent — Republican Jefferson G. Griffin — in the partial hand count. Riggs garnered 70 additional votes compared to 56 for Griffin in the hand count, which concluded today. The recounts were conducted by bipartisan teams in all 100 counties over the past week.

Under state law, for a full hand recount to be ordered, Griffin would have had to pick up at least 35 more votes than Riggs in the partial hand count of the ballots in 3% of the Election Day precincts and early voting sites in each county.

Please see [NC Supreme Court Partial Hand-to-Eye Recount Results (PDF).

(https://s3.amazonaws.com/dl.ncsbe.gov/Press/2024%20General/NC\_Supreme\_Court\_Recount\_Audit\_Report.pdf)]

Election administrators expect candidates to pick up votes in a hand recount because some voters do not properly mark their ballot, and as a result, the tabulator cannot read their selections.

However, in hand-to-eye recount, humans can identify marks that show which candidate the voter intended to select, as determined by bipartisan county board members, and count those ballots.

The partial hand-to-eye recount followed a full machine recount of the more than 5.5 million ballots cast in the Supreme Court contest. That recount showed Riggs with a 734-vote lead.

“We once again owe our gratitude to the county boards of elections, and all of the workers who have made sure that ballots were counted accurately in this contest,” said Karen Brinson Bell, executive director of the State Board of Elections. “Recounts, especially hand recounts, are tedious, difficult work.”

Important information

What is UOCAVA?

The Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act is commonly referred to as UOCAVA. UOCAVA citizens are U.S. citizens who are active members of the Uniformed Services, the Merchant Marine, the commissioned corps of the Public Health Service and the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, their eligible family members and other U.S. citizens residing outside the United States. The law provides the legal basis for absentee voting requirements for federal offices.

What is the Federal Post Card Application (FPCA)?

The FPCA (Federal Standard Form 76) allows UOCAVA citizens to register to vote and request an absentee ballot. This form is also used to update your contact information.

What is the Federal Write-In Absentee Ballot (FWAB)?

The FWAB (Federal Standard Form 186) serves as an emergency backup ballot for UOCAVA citizens. If you do not receive your absentee ballot from your state in time to return it to your election official to participate in the election, use the FWAB.

What is the Prepaid Mail Label 11- DoD?

Overseas Uniformed Service members can use this label for general election absentee ballots. It provides free express mail service to your election official for general election absentee ballots. You can request to have a Prepaid Mail Label 11-DoD applied to your absentee ballot at Military Postal Office locations (APO/FPO). Keep part of the tracking label to track your absentee ballot through the U.S. Postal Service.

What is a primary election?

A primary election is an election held before the general election to determine the candidates that can be placed on the general election ballot.

What is a runoff election?

A runoff election is an election held if the state requires that a candidate receive a certain percentage of the votes in order to advance to a general election or take public office.

I am an American citizen, but I have never lived in the U.S., can I vote in this state?

A U.S. citizen who has never resided in the U.S., and has a parent or legal guardian who was last domiciled in North Carolina, is eligible to vote in North Carolina.

I am a National Guardsman activated on state orders; does my state afford me UOCAVA privileges?

SUPREME COURT OF NORTH CAROLINA
*****

JEFFERSON GRIFFIN,

Petitioner,

v.

NORTH CAROLINA BOARD OF ELECTIONS,

Respondent,

From the North Carolina
State Board of Elections

*****
PETITION FOR WRIT OF PROHIBITION OF
THE HONORABLE JEFFERSON GRIFFIN

IMMEDIATE ACTION REQUESTED BEFORE
MONDAY, 23 DECEMBER 2024

TO THE HONORABLE SUPREME COURT OF NORTH CAROLINA:

The Honorable Jefferson Griffin respectfully petitions this Court to issue a writ of prohibition to stop the State Board of Elections from counting unlawful ballots cast in the 2024 general election. In addition, Judge Griffin also requests a temporary stay from the Court before Monday, 23 December 2024. That stay is necessary to enable the Court to consider and rule on Judge Griffin's petition for a writ of prohibition.

SUMMARY OF REQUEST FOR RELIEF

Judge Griffin first moves the Court to immediately issue a temporary stay of (1) the State Board's certification of the election for Seat 6 of the North Carolina Supreme Court and (2) the requirement that Judge Griffin file a petition for judicial review within 10 days of service of the State Board's decision. As explained below, a temporary stay will protect this Court's jurisdiction to decide the questions of law that are raised in Judge Griffin's election protests—questions that our nation's system of federalism reserves for state courts, not federal courts.

Second, Judge Griffin asks the Court to exercise its power—as granted by the North Carolina Constitution—to supervise inferior tribunals, such as the State Board. Judge Griffin asks the Court to issue a writ of prohibition that prohibits the State Board from counting ballots cast in violation of North Carolina's statutes and constitution. As explained below, the State Board has continued to issue rulings and administer our elections in violation of North Carolina law, and the Board's lawlessness cannot be allowed to continue.

INTRODUCTION

Judge Griffin seeks a writ of prohibition to stop the counting of unlawful ballots by the State Board of Elections. The State Board is an administrative agency that has knowingly broken the law and refused to do anything about it. Indeed, the Board has been breaking our election laws for decades. This lawlessness was brought to the Board's attention back in 2023, before the 2024 general election, but the Board refused to correct its errors. Now those chickens have come home to roost. In the 2024 general election, the Board's errors changed the outcome of the election for the open seat on this Court. When those errors were raised again in valid election protests, the Board then claimed that it was too late to fix its law-breaking.

At bottom, this case presents a fundamental question: who decides our election laws? Is it the people and their elected representatives, or the unelected bureaucrats sitting on the State Board of Elections? If the Board gets its way, then it is the real sovereign here. It can ignore the election statutes and constitutional provisions, while administering an election however it wants.

Judge Griffin, currently a judge of the North Carolina Court of Appeals and candidate for Seat 6 on the Supreme Court of North Carolina, seeks to restore the supremacy of the democratic process and the preeminence of the rule of law. He filed election protests across all North Carolina counties to challenge the State Board's lawless administration of his electoral contest. With this petition for a writ of prohibition, there are three types of election protests at issue.

First, the Board intends to count ballots that were cast by people who did not lawfully register to vote. Since 2004, state law has required voter applicants to provide their drivers license or social security number before lawfully registering to vote. However, the State Board chose to ignore this law for decades. Thus, approximately 60,000 people cast votes in the protested judicial race without providing that statutorily required information on their voter applications. These voters were not allowed to cast a ballot in this race because they were not “‘legally registered’ to vote.” Bouvier v. Porter, 386 N.C. 1, 4 n.2, 900 S.E.2d 838, 843 n.2 (2024) (quoting N.C. Gen. Stat. § 163-54).

Second, the State Board decided to count ballots cast by voters who have, by their own admission, never resided in North Carolina or anywhere else in the United States.

Since 1776, our state constitution has limited eligible voters in state races to bona fide North Carolina residents. See id. (“Certain categories of individuals are also categorically ineligible to vote, such as . . . nonresidents . . .”). But ballots were accepted in the Supreme Court race from people who were born outside the United States and have never lived anywhere in the United States. Counting the votes of these “Never Residents” was illegal.

Third, the Board has accepted absentee ballots cast by people who failed to provide photo identification with their ballots. Thousands of overseas voters cast ballots without providing their photo identification. But state law requires all voters to provide photo identification to vote; overseas voters casting absentee ballots do not get special treatment. The Board likewise broke the law by counting these ballots.

In response to these protests, the State Board and the opposing candidate, Justice Allison Riggs, have claimed that Judge Griffin is seeking a retroactive change in the election laws. That flatly mischaracterizes the timeline. Our registration statutes required drivers license or social security numbers back in 2004. Our state constitution has imposed a residency requirement since 1776. And photo identification has been required for absentee voting since at least 2018. The laws that should have governed this election were, therefore, established long before this election. The State Board simply chose to break the law.

But the State Board of Elections is no super-legislature. It doesn’t get to make up its own rules, disregard state statutes, or rewrite the state constitution. Rather, the Board was required to discount votes that were cast in violation of state law. Like this Court explained twenty years ago, in an identical situation, “[t]o permit unlawful votes to be counted along with lawful ballots in contested elections effectively ‘disenfranchises’ those voters who cast legal ballots, at least where the counting of unlawful votes determines an election’s outcome.” James v. Bartlett, 359 N.C. 260, 270, 607 S.E.2d 638, 644 (2005).

Through its lawlessness, the State Board of Elections is attempting to change the outcome of this election. Such threatened misconduct should be prohibited. Given the public’s interest in reaching finality on this contested race, and the lack of alternative remedies given the need for an expeditious and final determination, issuance of the writ of prohibition is a proper exercise of this Court’s constitutional duty to supervise and control the exercise of judicial power in the state. N.C. Const. art. IV, § 12(1).

STATEMENT OF THE FACTS

On Election Day, Judge Griffin maintained a sizeable lead over Justice Riggs. However, as ballots continued to trickle in over the next week, Justice Riggs took the lead. As of today, Justice Riggs leads by 734 votes.

A. The Election Protests

On 19 November 2024, Judge Griffin filed election protests in each of North Carolina’s 100 counties.<sup>1</sup> In total, Judge Griffin filed six categories of election protests. However, only three categories of protests are relevant here. Those three relevant categories are described briefly below, as well as the likely impact of each on the outcome of the election.

1 Three candidates for the state legislature filed similar protests for their respective districts. Although the State Board rejected their protests on the same grounds, the appeal for state legislative candidates goes to the respective houses of the General Assembly for a final decision. N.C. Gen. Stat. § 163-182.14(c).

Election protests matter when they change the outcome of an election. Bouvier, 386 N.C. at 4, 900 S.E.2d at 843 (discussing N.C. Gen. Stat. § 163-182.12).

Incomplete Voter Registrations. Since 2004, the General Assembly has required someone registering to vote to provide his drivers license or last four digits of his social security number on his voter registration application. N.C. Sess. Law 2003-226, § 9 (codified as amended at N.C. Gen. Stat. § 163-82.4). However, until December 2023, the State Board of Elections chose not to enforce this law. And even when the Board admitted its decades of lawlessness, it refused to cure the improper registrations, and only began requiring the information from new registrants. In the race for Seat 6 of this Court, over 60,000 people cast ballots, even though they had never provided the statutorily required information to become lawful voter registrants. Under state law, unless someone is lawfully registered to vote, he cannot vote. N.C. Const. art. VI, § 3(1); N.C. Gen. Stat. § 163-82.1(a).

The form of the protests that Judge Griffin filed with the county boards is the same, except for attachments that identify particular voters in the county. A sample of the protest for incomplete voter registrations can be found at appendix pages 1745-1830, for Guilford County.

Judge Griffin anticipates that, if these unlawful ballots are excluded, then he will have won the contest.

Never Residents. Our state constitution limits voters for state offices to people who actually reside in North Carolina. N.C. Const. art. VI, § 2(1); Bouvier, 386 N.C. at 4 n.2, 900 S.E.2d at 843 n.2 (explaining that “nonresidents” are “categorically ineligible to vote” for state offices). Nonetheless, the State Board allowed approximately 267 people to vote in the protested election who have never resided in North Carolina or anywhere else in the United States. These voters self-identified themselves as such, stating on a form “I am a U.S. citizen living outside the country, and I have never lived in the United States.” Counting these ballots is unlawful. An example of this type of protest can be found in the appendix at pages 1729-1744.

It is unknown whether this category of election protests will affect the outcome of the election, standing alone. As it stands, fewer than 300 Never Residents voted in the election, and the current margin between the candidates is over 700 votes. Judge Griffin filed other categories of election protests that are currently making their way through the administrative process, including protests targeting deceased voters, felon voters, and voters who had their registrations denied. The impact on the outcome of the election from those other protests, which target considerably fewer voters, is presently unknown. These other protests only affect about 817 voters. App. 40 n.3.

No Photo ID. It’s well known that photo identification is required for all voters, both those voting absentee ballots and those voting in person. N.C. Gen. Stat. § 163-230.1(a)(4), (b)(4), (e)(3), (f1) (absentee ballots); id. § 163-166.16(a) (in-person voting); N.C. Const. art. VI, §§ 2(4), 3(2) (same). Yet the State Board decided not to require photo identification for absentee ballots cast by voters who live overseas. State law, however, doesn’t exempt overseas voters from the photo-identification requirement. An example of this type of protest can be found in the appendix at pages 1831-1878.

Thousands of such ballots were unlawfully cast in the election. Judge Griffin anticipates that, if these unlawful ballots are excluded, he will win the election.

B. Further Proceedings

After Judge Griffin filed his protests, the State Board took over jurisdiction from the county boards for the three categories of protests just described. App. 1-2.

On 26 November 2024, Judge Griffin filed a motion to disqualify a Board member, Siobhan Millen, from participating in the Board's adjudication of his protests. App. 81-90. Siobhan Millen is married to Justice Riggs' lead attorney at Womble Bond Dickinson ("Womble"). Womble has been Justice Riggs' legal counsel both before and after Election Day. Pressley Millen is a partner at Womble; and, leading up to Election Day, he held himself out as Justice Riggs' lead attorney. App. 93-94. Admittedly, Mr. Millen has disappeared from Justice Riggs' legal team. But the Millen family's ownership of a partnership share of Womble, App. 101, nonetheless disqualifies Ms. Millen from ruling on Judge Griffin's protests. See Canon 3(C)-(D)(iii), N.C. Canon of Judicial Ethics; see also Guide to Judiciary Policy, Vol. 2B, Ch. 2, § 220, Ethics Advisory Opinion No. 58 (Disqualification When Relative Is Employed by a Participating Law Firm). The State Board, however, refused to disqualify Ms. Millen and, instead, allowed her to be the deciding vote on many of two of the three categories of protests. App. 117-18.

Meanwhile, on 6 December 2024, the North Carolina Democratic Party (NCDP) preemptively filed a lawsuit inviting the federal courts to decide Judge Griffin's protests. The NCDP, acting as a surrogate for its nominee Justice Riggs, and purporting to act on behalf of all voters in the state, filed a federal lawsuit against the individual members of the State Board of Elections. App. 131-56. The NCDP has brought four claims for relief. The complaint alleges (1) a violation of the National Voter Registration Act by removing voters from the voter rolls after an election; (2) a violation of procedural due process under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and the Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution because of risk of discounting illegally cast ballots; (3) a further violation of § 1983 and the fundamental right to vote; and (4) a violation of the Help America Vote Act by discounting unlawful ballots.

Because the NCDP chose not to name Judge Griffin as a party, he has moved to intervene in the NCDP's federal action. Otherwise, nothing has happened in the case. A copy of the current federal docket is included in the appendix. App. 157-61.

Back at the State Board, the parties filed briefs, and the State Board heard arguments on the protests on 11 December 2024. On 13 December 2024, the Board emailed the parties a copy of its final decision on these categories of protests. App. 38-77.

This decision consolidated the Board's treatment of a number of the protests. The decision is a final decision as to hundreds of protests. Although voluminous, the protests dismissed by the State Board's order are included in the appendix to this petition for completeness. App. 352-3902.

MOTION FOR TEMPORARY STAY

Pursuant to Appellate Rule 23(e), Judge Griffin respectfully applies to the Court for a temporary stay. A petition for a writ of prohibition, like with supersedeas, is generally paired with a temporary stay of inferior court proceedings. State v. Whitaker, 114 N.C. 818, 822, 19 S.E. 376, 377 (1894) (“When entertained, the usual course, unless prior notice of the petition has been given, is to issue a notice to the lower court to show cause why the writ should not issue, and to order a stay of proceedings in the meantime.”); State v. McElrath, 351 S.E.2d 557 (N.C. 1986) (issuing temporary stay of proceedings pending this Court’s consideration of the petition); State v. Hunt, 357 N.C. 454, 456, 591 S.E.2d 502, 503 (2003) (staying further proceedings).

A temporary stay is necessary here to perform two functions: (1) stay the issuance of a certificate of election by the State Board, and (2) stay the deadline for Judge Griffin to file a petition for judicial review in the superior court. Both stays are necessary for this Court to be able to exercise jurisdiction over the petition itself.

As to the first point, once the certificate of election issues, election protests, like those here, become moot. In re Protest of Whittacre, 228 N.C. App. 58, 59, 743 S.E.2d 68, 69 (2013) (dismissing appeal as moot because “[t]he declaration of election as contained in the certificate conclusively settles prima facie the right of the person so ascertained and declared to be elected to be inducted into, and exercise the duties of the office” (quoting Cohoon v. Swain, 216 N.C. 317, 319, 5 S.E.2d 1, 3 (1939))); In re Election Protest of Fletcher, 175 N.C. App. 755, 759, 625 S.E.2d 564, 567 (2006) (same). A temporary stay, therefore, preserves this Court’s jurisdiction to decide the petition.

On the second point, absent a stay, Judge Griffin will have to file a petition in superior court within 10 days of service of the Board’s final decision. N.C. Gen. Stat. § 163-

182.14(b). But the State Board and Justice Riggs have given every indication that, upon the filing of a petition for judicial review, they will try to strip state courts of jurisdiction to decide this case by improperly removing it to federal court. Judge Griffin's election protests raise only questions of state law. However, the State Board, following the argument of Justice Riggs, has injected various federal statutes into this case, even though those federal statutes, by their own terms, do not apply. The federal statutes on which they have relied in this action, as well as in Justice Riggs's duplicative federal action, are the Help America Vote Act (HAVA) and the National Voter Registration Act (NVRA).

As explained in more detail below, infra Argument §§ I.D, the State Board and Justice Riggs have repeatedly relied on HAVA and the NVRA to excuse the State Board's lawlessness. Yet each of these statutes state that they only apply to "an election for Federal office." 52 U.S.C. § 21081(a) (HAVA); id. § 21083(A)(1)(a)(viii) (HAVA); James, 359 N.C. at 268, 607 S.E.2d at 643 ("HAVA, which does not apply to state and local elections, was initiated in the wake of allegations of irregularity and fraud in the 2000 presidential election." (emphasis added)); 52 U.S.C. § 20507(c)(2)(A) (NVRA); id. § 20501(b)(1)-(2) (NVRA).

Even setting aside the plain language, it's impossible for these federal laws to apply to this case. Congress enacted HAVA and the NVRA under the federal constitution's elections clause. Arizona v. Inter Tribal Council of Arizona, Inc., 570 U.S. 1, 15 (2013) (NVRA); H.R. Rep. No. 107-329, pt. 1, at 57 (2001), 2001 WL 1579545 (explaining the constitutional authority for HAVA); Colon-Marrero v. Velez, 813 F.3d 1, 19 (1st Cir. 2016) (same). But under the elections clause, Congress can only create rules for elections to federal office, not state office. See U.S. Const. Art. I, § 4, cl. 1; Wash. State Grange v. Wash. State Republican Party, 552 U.S. 442, 451 (2008) (elections clause makes clear that states have “control over the election process for state offices”).

Once Judge Griffin files his petition for judicial review in superior court from the State Board’s dismissal of his election protests, the Board and Justice Riggs will remove the case to federal court. An eventual remand back to state court from federal court is inevitable because these federal statutes cannot apply to an election for state office. Nonetheless, it will take considerable time before a remand motion is briefed and ruled on, and then the Board and Justice Riggs are certain to delay the matter further by taking an appeal. See 28 U.S.C. § 1447(d) (permitting appeal of remand orders for cases removed under 28 U.S.C. § 1443(2)). It could be 2026 before those proceedings end and the case returns to state court. Although Justice Riggs would holdover in her office until her successor is determined, this Court has expressed grave concern about letting an improperly elected official exercise the duties of her office in cases of great public significance. See N.C. State Conf. of NAACP v. Moore, 382 N.C. 129, 165, 876 S.E.2d 513, 539 (2022).

By issuing a temporary stay of Judge Griffin’s deadline to file his petition for judicial review, this can all be avoided. The Court that has the final say on questions of state law will be able to exercise its lawful jurisdiction without an illegitimate detour through federal court. Conversely, without a temporary stay that tolls the deadline for filing a petition for judicial review, Judge Griffin will have to file his petition by 23 December 2024 to have a right to seek judicial review in state court of the dismissal of his election protests. N.C. Gen. Stat. § 163-182.14 (petition must be filed within 10 days' of service of Board's final decision). And then the Board and Justice Riggs will remove that petition to federal court. In fact, just a few months ago, the State Board used this same removal tactic to place a state lawsuit concerning the Board's incomplete-voter registrations in the hands of the federal courts. See infra Argument § I.D.3.

This Court can and has exercised its powers to change deadlines of this sort. For instance, in Harper v. Hall this Court changed the date of the state's primary elections from March to May as well as the candidate-filing deadline, and then stated that it had the power to make "other administrative adjustments" as well. 379 N.C. 656, 658, 865 S.E.2d 301, 302 (2021). The Court justified the exercise of these extraordinary powers by pointing to "the great public interest in the subject matter of these cases, the importance of the issues to the constitutional jurisprudence of this State, and the need for urgency in reaching a final resolution on the merits at the earliest possible opportunity." Id. Here, the need for this Court's intervention is at least as pressing.

For these reasons, Judge Griffin respectfully requests a temporary stay that (1) stays the issuance of a certificate of election by the State Board, and (2) stays the deadline for Judge Griffin to file a petition for judicial review in the superior court. Judge Griffin respectfully requests that this Court grant the temporary stay without awaiting a response, given the time-sensitive nature of the request. See N.C. R. App. P. 23(e).

THE COURT’S POWER TO ISSUE THE WRIT OF PROHIBITION

This Court has the power to issue a writ of prohibition to stop the State Board from counting unlawful ballots. A writ of prohibition issues from this Court to an inferior tribunal to halt threatened, unlawful action, especially in matters of great public significance.

I. The Constitution Empowers the Court to Issue Writs to Inferior Tribunals.

This Court “may issue any remedial writs necessary to give it general supervision and control over the proceedings of the other courts.” N.C. Const. art. IV, § 12(1). Those “other courts” include all kinds of judicial and quasi-judicial bodies. For example, this Court has explained that it may issue a writ of prohibition to “inferior courts” and quasi-judicial officers below the superior court, such as “probate court,” “justices of the peace,” and the clerk of superior court. Whitaker, 114 N.C. at 820-22, 19 S.E. at 376-77; Mountain Retreat Ass’n v. Mt. Mitchell Dev. Co., 183 N.C. 43, 45, 110 S.E. 524, 525 (1922).

The writ also extends to administrative agencies. As this Court has explained, the Court’s constitutional power and duty to control and supervise the exercise of judicial power in the state extends to issuing writs that “will aid State agencies in the performance of their duties.” Moses v. State Highway Comm’n, 261 N.C. 316, 317, 134 S.E.2d 664, 665 (1964). The prerogative writs have historically been “used to regulate administrative agencies performing judicial functions.” Comm. to Elect Dan Forest v. Emps. Pol. Action Comm.,

376 N.C. 558, 568 n.11, 853 S.E.2d 698, 708 n.11 (2021) (citing Raoul Berger, Standing to Sue in Public Actions: Is It a Constitutional Requirement?, 78 Yale L.J. 816, 821-22 (1969)).<sup>2</sup>

This Court’s power to issue such writs to quasi-judicial agencies is not an anomaly. Federal courts likewise have the power to issue writs to administrative agencies. The leading treatise on federal procedure, Wright and Miller, explains that the writ is a “tradition-bound technique for seeking judicial review of agency action. Courts may use this writ to enjoin a judicial or quasi-judicial action.” 33 Charles A. Wright & Arthur R. Miller, Federal Practice and Procedure § 8306 & n.14 (2d ed. Westlaw June 2024 update).

The writ of prohibition is unique. It is not a civil action, pitting parties against each other. Instead, “[i]t is, in effect, a proceeding between two courts—a superior and an inferior—and is the means whereby the superior exercises its due superintendence over the inferior, and keeps it within the limits and bounds of the jurisdiction prescribed to it by law.” Mayo v. James, 53 Va. (12 Gratt.) 17, 23 (1855). For that reason, as this Court has explained, “[t]he main feature of the traditional form [of the writ] is the opportunity it provides for the affected judicial officer to participate directly. This feature may be important when the conduct drawn in question is alleged to contain elements of abuse of power, or to reflect a recurring pattern in similar cases.” N.C. R. App. P. 22, Drafting Committee Note (1975), reprinted at 287 N.C. 671, 732.

<sup>2</sup> This influential law review article explained that the writs of certiorari and prohibition were both used to control administrative agencies at common law. Berger, supra, at 821-22.

The writ falls within this Court's constitutional duty to supervise and control the exercise of judicial power by inferior tribunals. N.C. Const. art. IV, § 12(1). Because this Court's general supervisory powers spring from the state constitution, they can't be limited by statute. State v. Ellis, 361 N.C. 200, 639 S.E.2d 425 (2007).<sup>3</sup> This Court will use its constitutional supervisory powers in cases like this one. For instance, this Court will use its "general supervisory authority when necessary to promote the expeditious administration of justice, and may do so to consider questions which are not properly presented according to its rules." Id. at 205, 639 S.E.2d at 428. The Court will even exercise its supervisory power in the middle of a proceeding when "the parties desire an answer to a question which is fundamental in determining their rights, is also of public importance, and when decided will aid State agencies in the performance of their duties." Moses, 261 N.C. at 317, 134 S.E.2d at 665. Such immediate intervention is warranted so that a case of great public significance "may be tried on the correct theory below and unnecessary delay in the administration of justice be thereby prevented." Greene v. Charlotte Chem. Lab'ys, Inc., 254 N.C. 680, 694, 120 S.E.2d 82, 91 (1961).

Although Judge Griffin believes the applicable law here is clear, the writ of prohibition will issue "to promptly resolve a novel issue of great import," even if the law was unclear when passed upon below. Beaufort Cnty. Bd. of Educ. v. Beaufort Cnty. Bd. of Comm'rs,

3 Which makes sense: "The General Assembly shall have no power to deprive the judicial department of any power or jurisdiction that rightfully pertains to it as a co-ordinate department of the government." N.C. Const. art. IV, § 1.

363 N.C. 500, 506-07, 681 S.E.2d 278, 283 (2009). Indeed, the appellate courts “will not hesitate to exercise” this supervisory power when, as here, there is a need for “the expeditious administration of justice.” Park Terrace, Inc. v. Phoenix Indem. Co., 243 N.C. 595, 597, 91 S.E.2d 584, 586 (1956); see also, e.g., Ellis, 361 N.C. at 205, 639 S.E.2d at 428; State v. Stanley, 288 N.C. 19, 26, 215 S.E.2d 589, 594 (1975).

II. The Standard for a Writ of Prohibition.

This Court has explained that a writ of prohibition is an appropriate remedy in any of three instances: “[1] to restrain other Courts either from proceeding in a matter not within their jurisdiction, or [2] from acting in a matter, whereof they have jurisdiction, by rules at variance with those which the law of the land prescribes, or [3] from proceeding therein after a manner which will defeat a legal right.” State v. Allen, 24 N.C. (2 Ired.) 183, 188-89 (1841); see also White v. Willett, 456 S.W.3d 810, 812 (Ky. 2015) (“An appellate court has discretion to grant a writ where a trial court is proceeding within its jurisdiction upon a showing that the court is (1) acting or is about to act erroneously, (2) there exists no adequate remedy by appeal or otherwise, and (3) great injustice and irreparable injury will result if the petition is not granted.”).

The State Board has acted under rules that violate the law of North Carolina, and in a way that will defeat the right of Judge Griffin and the public to an accurate counting of ballots. Under the state constitution and the General Assembly’s enactments, the State Board was not permitted to count the votes of unlawful registrants, Never Residents, or voters who did not present photo identification. Yet the State Board has said that is exactly what it plans to do. The Board has determined that it can ignore registration information mandated by the legislature. The Board is also giving state statutes an interpretation that plainly conflicts with the state constitution. And the Board says that it will follow its own administrative rules, despite their conflict with statutes.

When a state agency acts lawlessly on a matter of such great public importance, and when there is such need for judicial expediency, the only adequate remedy is in this Court, which holds the fullness of the judicial power. N.C. Const. art. IV. §§ 1, 12(1); see also N.C. R. App. P. 2 (this Court has the power to suspend the rules to “prevent manifest injustice to a party, or to expedite decision in the public interest”).

ISSUES PRESENTED

Whether the Court should issue a writ of prohibition, ordering the State Board of Elections not to count ballots from people who failed to complete their registrations, from Never Residents, and from overseas absentee voters who did not provide photo identification.

REASONS WHY THE WRIT SHOULD ISSUE

The writ of prohibition should issue because the State Board intends to count unlawful ballots, and thereby change the outcome of the election.

The merits of each of the three categories of election protests are addressed below, as well as the grave errors committed by the State Board. All the issues presented in this petition are questions of law that are reviewed de novo. See, e.g., Appeal of Ramseur, 120

N.C. App. 521, 523-24, 463 S.E.2d 254, 256 (1995). As the State Board agreed, these protests present “legal questions of statewide significance.” App. 41.

After addressing the merits, the brief addresses the State Board’s attempt to dismiss the protests, on alternative grounds, for procedural defaults. But it is easy to see that the Board had no justification for trying to disqualify Judge Griffin from challenging the election results. Judge Griffin’s protests complied with all of the relevant procedural requirements.

Next, Justice Riggs raised a hodgepodge of federal laws that, she has argued, requires the State Board to count illegal ballots and declare her the winner of this race. But federal law has nothing to say about the issues in Judge Griffin’s protests.

Finally, Judge Griffin addresses the objections of the State Board and Justice Riggs that, because the ballots of ineligible voters have already been counted, it’s too late to do anything about it. While voting is a constitutional right, the U.S. Supreme Court has long explained that the right must be balanced with the State’s duty to protect the integrity of elections.

Judge Griffin respectfully requests that the Court rule on each of the issues addressed in this brief. The candidates and the public have a vital interest in this election receiving finality as expeditiously as possible. See, e.g., Perloff v. Edington, 293 Ala. 277, 281, 302 So. 2d 92, 96 (1974) (“The public has an interest in the speedy determination of election contests . . . .”); Kinsey v. Garver, 91 N.E.2d 54, 56 (Ohio Com. Pl. 1950) (“an interest in the public exists in the speedy determination of election results”); Mansfield v.

McShurley, 911 N.E.2d 581, 585 (Ind. Ct. App. 2009) (“The public has an interest in the speedy determination of controversies affecting elections . . .”). By ruling on each of these issues, including issues of federal law, this Court can ensure finality across all litigation, for cases pending both in state and federal tribunals.

I. It’s Unlawful to Count the Votes of People Who Did Not Lawfully Register to Vote.

Before someone can vote for in a state race in North Carolina, he must be lawfully registered to vote. To lawfully register, a person must, by statute, provide his drivers license or social security numbers in his voter registration application. This information is used to verify the voter’s residence and identity via government databases. But our election boards have been registering people to vote who never provided this statutorily required information for decades. The ballots cast by these improper registrants lack statutory authorization because no one can vote if he is improperly registered.

A. State law prohibits anyone from voting unless he has provided a drivers license or social security number when registering to vote.

Under state law, a person must provide his drivers license or social security number at the time of registration before he can lawfully cast a ballot.

Before voting in an election, a person must lawfully register to vote. Under article VI of the state constitution, “[e]very person offering to vote shall be at the time legally registered as a voter as herein prescribed and in the manner provided by law.” N.C. Const. art. VI, § 3(1). That’s also true by statute: “No person shall be permitted to vote who has not been registered under” the state’s registration statutes. See N.C. Gen. Stat. § 163-

82.1(a) (making registration a “prerequisite to voting”); see also id. § 163-54 (“Only such persons as are legally registered shall be entitled to vote in any primary or election held under this Chapter.”).

The protests here involve people who were not legally registered to vote in a manner provided by law, section 163-82.4, because they failed to provide statutorily required application information. Since January 2004, state law has required voter registrants to provide their drivers license or social security number in their voter application. N.C. Sess. Law 2003-226, § 9 (amending N.C. Gen. Stat. § 163-82.4), § 22 (amendment effective 1 January 2004). This information is used with a statewide computer registration system to verify the voter’s identity and important details about the voter. See, e.g., N.C. Gen. Stat. § 163-82.11.

The State Board of Elections is required to create an application form for voter registration. Id. § 163-82.3(a). From 2004 onward, the General Assembly commanded that the form require an applicant to provide his “[d]rivers license number or, if the applicant does not have a drivers license number, the last four digits of the applicant’s social security number.” Id. § 163-82.4(a)(11). However, a board can accept an application without a drivers license or social security number only if the applicant “has not been issued either a current and valid drivers license or a social security number.” Id. § 163-82.4(b) (emphasis added).

There’s a statutory cure process for somebody who omits their drivers license and social security numbers, but the omissions raised in these protests have never been cured by this process. If a person has a drivers license or social security number, but fails to provide those numbers on their voter application, then the election board shall not allow the person to vote unless the voter cures the deficient application before the county canvass deadline. Id. § 163-82.4(f). The statutory cure procedure applies to a voter who “fails to complete any required item on the voter registration form.” Id. The board shall notify the voter of the omission and request completion of a corrected application before the county canvass. Id. Only if the required information is delivered by that time will the voter’s ballot be counted. Id. (“If the correct information is provided to the county board of elections by at least 5:00 P.M. on the day before the county canvass, the board shall count any portion of the provisional official ballot that the voter is eligible to vote.”). No state law, however, permits a board of elections to count a ballot for a person who never provided a drivers license or social security number on his voter registration form.

Mandating such information from voter registrants is not unique to North Carolina. For elections to federal offices, Congress, through HAVA, also requires the states to collect the drivers license or social security number from registrants. 52 U.S.C. § 21083(a)(5)(A)(i). If a person with a drivers license or social security card fails to provide those identifiers on a voter application form, then the application “may not be accepted or processed by a State.” Id.

Although HAVA and federal law don’t apply to elections for state offices—such as the election at issue here—this federal prerequisite to voting in federal elections corroborates the importance of collecting such information from would-be voters. In other words, the information required by the General Assembly is not some new law designed to burden voters but a decades-old feature of election law that protects the integrity of our elections.

B. The State Board admits that it broke the law.

No one thinks that the State Board actually complied with the law. Instead, it's clear that the Board broke the law for twenty years.

Despite the clarity in the law since enactment in 2003, the State Board did not require voters to provide a drivers license or social security number when people registered to vote. Before December 2023, the voter application form appeared like this:

As this image reveals, the application did not tell registrants that these identifiers were required because it was not in red text. Yet this information is required. N.C. Gen. Stat. § 163-82.4(a)(11).

The Board admitted that it allowed voters to register in violation of the law when it entered an order on an administrative complaint from 2023 that raised the issue. In that order, the Board concluded that similar provisions of HAVA could be violated “as a result of the current North Carolina voter registration application form failing to require an applicant to provide an identification number or indicate that they do not possess such a number.” Order at 4, In re HAVA Complaint of Carol Snow (N.C. State Bd. of Elections Dec. 6, 2023) [App. 165]. The Board ordered its staff to revise the form going forward.<sup>4</sup> Id. But the Board refused to remedy its past legal violations.

Now, however, the issue has caused irregularities in the protested election, and those irregularities are outcome dispositive.

C. The unlawful registrations haven’t been “cured.”

The State Board said nothing in its final decision to suggest it followed the law. Instead, the State Board sought to excuse its lawlessness by reimagining the election laws. The Board reasoned that any error by a voter was harmless because the people who did not properly register cured their defects by providing additional documents as allowed by state law. See App. 55-56. The Board’s logic is rejected by the relevant statutes’ plain language.

First, there is no state law permitting a “cure” by providing additional documents. The only state law to which the State Board could possibly cite would be subsections (a) and (b) of N.C. Gen. Stat. § 163-166.12.<sup>5</sup> Both of these provisions plainly require a person “who has registered to vote by mail” to provide additional documentation when they actually vote. N.C. Gen. Stat. § 163-166.12(a), (b) (emphasis added); see Fla. State Conf. of NAACP v. Browning, 522 F.3d 1153, 1169 (11th Cir. 2008) (holding that HAVA’s identical requirements “impos[e] additional restrictions on those individuals who registered by mail before they can vote either a regular or a provisional ballot”). Again, to be registered, a person must first provide a drivers license or social security number. See N.C. Gen. Stat. § 163-82.4(a)(11). A statute that places an additional obligation on a voter who is registered (by mail) cannot be a “cure” for somebody who failed to register properly.

4 In light of this order, the Board’s counsel has advised county boards that they cannot register new voter applicants who fail to provide a drivers license or social security number and who also fail to “state in writing that they lack these numbers.” Email of Paul Cox, N.C. State Bd. of Elections, to Directors of County Bds. of Election (Sept. 4, 2024) [App. 167-68].

5 Strangely, the State Board cited the provisions of HAVA—which govern federal elections, e.g., 52 U.S.C. § 21081(a)—rather than the similar provisions found in North Carolina law—which govern this state election. See App. 55.

Moreover, subsections (a) and (b) cannot be a cure for somebody who failed to provide a drivers license or social security number because the additional documentation required by these subsections is not a substitute for providing a drivers license or social security number. At the time of registration, the State Board is supposed to verify the identity of the registrant by matching the registrant’s drivers license or social security number to other government databases. See id. § 163-82.12(6), (8), (9). And if the drivers license or social security numbers don’t result in a match, the Board must take additional steps to verify the applicant’s identity. Id. § 163-166.12(d).<sup>6</sup> In contrast, subsections (a) and (b) let a registered voter provide any of the following documents: current and valid photo identification, a current utility bill, bank statement, government check, paycheck, or other government document showing the voter’s address. Id. § 163-166.12(a)-(b). The mere presentation of those documents is not the equivalent of an identity match with government databases. They are apples and oranges. The people who cast the ballots at issue here never went through that verification procedure, and the fact that they might have provided additional documents when they voted does nothing to remedy the registration defect.

This is also why Justice Riggs was wrong to argue to the State Board that the unlawful registrants cured their registration defects when they presented a photo identification in 2024. See generally id. § 163-166.16. This theory fails for at least two reasons. First, although voter identification laws were in place in 2024, the laws allowed a plethora of alternative forms of photo identification (e.g., student, teacher, and tribal identification cards) and even permitted voters to provide no identification at all in certain circumstances. See id. § 163-166.16(a), (d). Second, photo identification guards against voter impersonation (i.e., an imposter claiming to be a person who is a registered voter); it does not guard against somebody registering by manufacturing a fake identity. Absent a drivers license or social security number, the State Board simply cannot verify the identity of somebody registering to vote. Photo identification requirements are not a substitute for providing a drivers license or social security number.<sup>7</sup>

Nor did the General Assembly provide that these provisions can cure an improper voter registration. The General Assembly has decided that there is precisely one way to cure an improper registration. Id. § 163-82.4(f). The individuals challenged by Judge

<sup>7</sup> Indeed, even if a voter provided a drivers license when voting, see id. § 163-166.16(a)(1)(a), the poll worker simply looked at the picture and handed the voter a ballot. The poll worker certainly did not write down the drivers license number, turn the number over to the State Board, and wait for the State Board to perform a match against government databases.

Griffin did not use this statutory cure process. The State Board doesn't have the authority to reinvent state law to create its own "cure" procedures. It has a duty to follow state law, not make law.

D. Judge Griffin's protests do not implicate federal election laws.

The State Board plainly rejected Judge Griffin's interpretation of state laws and, therefore, dismissed his protests on that basis alone. However, as an alternative ground for the Board's outcome, the Board attempted to inject federal law—the Help America Vote Act (HAVA) and the National Voter Registration Act (NVRA)—into a state-law election issue. App. 54-57. But HAVA and the NVRA have nothing to do with this case.

1. HAVA has no bearing on state elections.

Judge Griffin has protested ballots cast in a state election by people who sought to register in violation of state law, as the above discussion showed. The State Board, however, attempts to rely on HAVA as justification for flouting state law. Invoking HAVA makes no sense here because HAVA does not apply to elections for state offices, as this Court has held. James, 359 N.C. at 268, 607 S.E.2d at 643 ("HAVA, which does not apply to state and local elections, was initiated in the wake of allegations of irregularity and fraud in the 2000 presidential election." (emphasis added)). The plain language of HAVA leaves no doubt. The registration systems mandated by HAVA apply only to "an election for Federal office." 52 U.S.C. § 21081(a); id. § 21083(A)(1)(a)(viii). Thus, no one can claim a HAVA violation related to an election for state office. James, 359 N.C. at 268, 607 S.E.2d at 643. As in James, the issue is controlled by "state law." Id.

2. The NVRA has no bearing on votes counted in state elections.

The State Board also reasons that, as an alternative basis for its ruling, the NVRA prohibits Judge Griffin’s election protests. See App. 62-64. But the NVRA has nothing to do with this case because this federal law doesn’t apply to elections for state offices, nor does it apply to election protests.

The NVRA, by its own terms, applies only to elections for federal offices and not elections to state offices. The stated purpose of the law is just to affect participation in “elections for Federal office.” 52 U.S.C. § 20501(b)(1)-(2). Indeed, Congress enacted the NVRA under the federal constitution’s elections clause, and that clause, by its own terms, only lets Congress regulate the “Times, Places, and Manner” of selecting Senators and Representatives to Congress. U.S. Const. art. I, § 4, cl. 1.<sup>8</sup>

That’s equally true of the particular provision cited by the Board. In its order, the State Board explains that the NVRA “restricts the removal of voters from ‘the official list of eligible voters’ in an election.” App. 62 (quoting 52 U.S.C. § 20507(a)(3)). The State Board knowingly omitted that these restrictions apply “to voter registration for elections

<sup>8</sup> If the NVRA purported to regulate elections for state offices—which it doesn’t—then it would exceed Congress’s authority under the federal constitution’s election clause. Many courts have therefore acknowledged the only reasonable conclusion from the text of the NVRA: it cannot apply when the argument is about an election to a state office. See, e.g., Dobrovolsky v. Nebraska, 100 F. Supp. 2d 1012, 1028 (D. Neb. 2000); Broyles v. Texas, 618 F. Supp. 2d 661, 691 (S.D. Tex. 2009), aff’d, 381 F. App’x 370 (5th Cir. 2010); Pree v. D.C. Bd. of Elections & Ethics, 645 A.2d 603, 605 (D.C. 1994). Thus, no one can complain about NVRA issues in a state election.

for Federal office.” 52 U.S.C. § 20507(a) (emphasis added). Judge Griffin did not stand for election to a federal office.

Relying on the NVRA presents another threshold problem: the statute applies only to state efforts to remove voters from the voter rolls. 52 U.S.C. § 20507(a)(3), (c). But Judge Griffin has not requested in his protests for anyone to be removed from the voter rolls. Indeed, his election protest challenges only the outcome of his election—it doesn’t even affect an ineligible voter’s vote in another race in 2024 elections, much less cause that voter to be removed from the voter rolls.

As explained below, the function of an election protest is to challenge the results of an election, not to remove anyone from the voter rolls. See infra Argument § IV.A. By law, a successful election protest does not result in anyone being removed from the voter rolls. Instead, it results in inaccurate results being corrected, or vote being recounted. N.C. Gen. Stat. § 163-182.10(d)(2)(e)(1)-(2). As Bouvier explained, “[w]here the irregularity affects the accuracy of the election results, the county board of elections may order the ineligible ballots excluded from the vote total, and in some instances, may order a full recount.” 386 N.C. at 4, 900 S.E.2d at 843.

3. The issues raised in Judge Griffin’s protests have not been decided by the federal courts’ rulings in the ongoing RNC case.

To buttress its attempt to inject HAVA and the NVRA into a state-election dispute, the State Board sought to manufacture connections between Judge Griffin’s protests and Republican National Committee v. North Carolina State Board of Elections, No. 5:24-cv-547

(E.D.N.C.) (the “RNC case”), which is a case pending in U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of North Carolina. See App. 57. The State Board reasoned that the federal courts in the RNC case have already resolved Judge Griffin’s claims here. The Board is wrong.

Before the 2024 general election, the RNC filed a two-count complaint against the State Board in state court. Count one sought a writ of mandamus directing the State Board to comply with HAVA and its analogous state-law provision. Count two alleged that the State Board violated the equal protection clause of the North Carolina Constitution through violations of HAVA. The gravamen of RNC’s request for relief was to remove certain ineligible voters from the voter rolls ahead of the election.

After the State Board and NCDP removed the case to federal court, the federal district court dismissed the first count on the grounds that the relevant statutes didn’t provide for a private right of action. The district court then declined to exercise supplemental jurisdiction over the second count (the state constitutional claim) and remanded it to state court. The Fourth Circuit, though, reversed the district court’s remand order, holding that the state constitutional claim contained an embedded federal question related to HAVA and the NVRA, over which the district court had jurisdiction. The case is still pending.

Critically, the RNC case, according to the Fourth Circuit, was about the interplay between federal and state law as they apply to the state’s maintenance of voter rolls. The RNC case did not involve a request to correct a vote count in a state race based on a violation of state law—which is what Judge Griffin does in this case. The rulings in the RNC case did not consider, much less adjudicate, any of the questions presented here.

II. The Boards of Election Cannot Count the Votes of People Who Have Never Lived Here.

Although United States citizenship may be a birthright, the right to vote in North Carolina elections for state offices is not. Instead, it is a right granted only to those who reside here. Our state constitution restricts voting rights to people who reside in North Carolina “to preserve the basic conception of a political community.” Lloyd v. Babb, 296 N.C. 416, 449, 251 S.E.2d 843, 864 (1979). That is why, just months ago, this Court confirmed that “nonresidents” are “categorically ineligible to vote” for state offices. Bouvier, 386 N.C. at 4 n.2, 900 S.E.2d at 843 n.2.

Yet people voted in the 2024 general election who, by their own admission, were born overseas and have never resided in North Carolina or anywhere else in the United States. These overseas voters are United States citizens, but they aren’t residents of North Carolina who can vote for state contests. It’s unlawful to count the votes of these Never Residents.

A. The state constitution forbids counting the votes of Never Residents.

The North Carolina Constitution defines the political community for purposes of voting in our elections. No one can vote in a state election unless they meet the “qualifications” in article VI of the constitution. N.C. Const. art. VI, § 1. The constitution then sets out the first of the qualifications in the voter residency clause. Under that clause, to vote in an election for a state office, a person must have “resided in the State of North Carolina for one year . . . next preceding an election.” Id. § 2(1). This requirement is nothing new. In our original constitution, a person could vote for a legislator only in the county in which he “reside[d].” See N.C. Const. of 1776, art. VIII.

Despite the constitution’s plain language, the election boards permitted people to vote in the general election who have never resided in North Carolina or anywhere else in the United States. The State Board, in response to a public records request, identified overseas voters who voted in the 2024 general election but who self-identified as having never lived in the United States. App. 1736-37 ¶¶ 10-13. The Board identified a list of voters who, the Board explained, checked a box on a federal post card application that stated, “I am a U.S. citizen living outside the country, and I have never lived in the United States.” App. 1736-37, 1741 (sample FPCA).

Someone who has never lived in the United States has never resided in North Carolina. These people, therefore, were not qualified to vote in our state elections under the voter residency clause. Yet the State Board chose to count their votes anyway. That was unlawful.

B. The residency clause is not preempted by the federal constitution.

Proponents of Never Resident voting have argued that our state constitution violates the federal constitution. But this broadside attack on the state constitution cannot prevail.

In Dunn v. Blumstein, the U.S. Supreme Court considered whether a one-year durational residency requirement, as a prerequisite to registering to vote, violated the equal protection clause of the Fourteenth Amendment. 405 U.S. 330, 334 (1972). The Court held that a one-year residency requirement was too long to comply with the equal protection clause. Id. at 334. In so holding, the Court made clear that it was not ruling on whether Tennessee could “restrict the vote to bona fide Tennessee residents.” Id. Indeed, the Court emphasized that its prior precedent had already established the constitutionality of “bona fide residence requirements.” See id. at 343-44.

This Court has since considered the impact of Dunn on the residency requirement of our own state constitution and explained that Dunn drew a “careful distinction . . . between durational residence requirements and bona fide residence requirements.” Lloyd, 296 N.C. at 439, 251 S.E.2d at 858. Therefore, “[a]ppropriately defined and [u]niformly applied bona fide residence requirements are permissible” under the federal constitution. Id. at 440, 251 S.E.2d at 859. And just a few months ago, this Court confirmed that “non-residents” are “categorically ineligible to vote” under the residency clause of the state constitution. Bouvier, 386 N.C. at 4 n.2, 900 S.E.2d at 843 n.2 (citing N.C. Const. art. VI, §§ 1-2).

As these cases show, Dunn does not invalidate the state constitution’s bona fide residency requirement. The voters at issue with this protest have told the election boards that they have never resided in North Carolina or anywhere else in the United States. They’ve never been bona fide state residents. Therefore, counting the votes of Never Residents violates the North Carolina Constitution.

C. If UMOVA permits these votes to be counted, it is unconstitutional as applied to these circumstances.

The State Board turned to a state statute, UMOVA, to justify Never Resident voting. Of course, if the statute permits voting by those ineligible to vote under the constitution, it violates the constitution. UMOVA, therefore, should not be read to conflict with the state constitution.

In 2011, the General Assembly enacted the Uniform Military and Overseas Voters Act (UMOVA). N.C. Sess. Law 2011-182 (enacting N.C. Gen. Stat. §§ 163-258.1 to - 258.20). As the name suggests, this bill was originally drafted by the Uniform Law Commission, which recommended its adoption among the states.

UMOVA lets a “covered voter” register to vote in various ways for elections for federal and state offices. See N.C. Gen. Stat. § 163-258.3 (defining elections covered by UMOVA); id. § 163-258.6 (setting out methods of registration). At issue is who counts as a “covered voter.” The relevant definition is provided here in full:

(1) “Covered voter” means any of the following:

- a. A uniformed-service voter or an overseas voter who is registered to vote in this State.
- b. A uniformed-service voter defined in subdivision (7) of this section whose voting residence is in this State and who otherwise satisfies this State’s voter eligibility requirements.
- c. An overseas voter who, before leaving the United States, was last eligible to vote in this State and, except for a State residency requirement, otherwise satisfies this State’s voter eligibility requirements.

d. An overseas voter who, before leaving the United States, would have been last eligible to vote in this State had the voter then been of voting age and, except for a State residency requirement, otherwise satisfies this State's voter eligibility requirements.

e. An overseas voter who was born outside the United States, is not described in sub-subdivision c. or d. of this subdivision, and, except for a State residency requirement, otherwise satisfies this State's voter eligibility requirements, if:

1. The last place where a parent or legal guardian of the voter was, or under this Article would have been, eligible to vote before leaving the United States is within this State; and
2. The voter has not previously registered to vote in any other state.

Id. § 163-258.2(1).

Judge Griffin is challenging ballots cast by overseas voters who identified themselves as United States citizens who have never resided in the United States. Such voters could only plausibly count as UMOVA "covered voters" under subsection (1)(e).

UMOVA doesn't define the phrase "State residency requirement" that such a voter needs to comply with. The term is not defined anywhere in the Act. As it stands, the phrase is ambiguous as to whether it means a durational residency requirement or a bona fide residency requirement. If the ambiguous phrase were interpreted to mean just a durational residency requirement, it's possible that UMOVA would, at least in some circumstances, be constitutional under the residency clause, as that clause is limited by Dunn. But if, on the other hand, the ambiguous clause were interpreted to let someone vote who has never been a resident, it would be unenforceable under the bona fide residency requirement of the state constitution.

The canon of constitutional avoidance requires the Court to interpret N.C. Gen. Stat. § 163-258.2(1)(e) as exempting overseas voters only from a durational residency requirement, and not a bona fide residency requirement. Only such an interpretation could save the statute from being invalidated. “[W]here one of two reasonable constructions will raise a serious constitutional question, the construction which avoids this question should be adopted.” N.C. State Bd. of Educ. v. State, 371 N.C. 149, 160, 814 S.E.2d 54, 62 (2018) (quoting In re Arthur, 291 N.C. 640, 642, 231 S.E.2d 614, 616 (1977)).

Before the State Board, Judge Griffin asked the Board to apply the canon of constitutional avoidance to this subsection of UMOVA. But the State Board just misconstrued that as a request to find the provision unconstitutional. App. 66. The State Board held that it was incompetent to hold a state statute unconstitutional. App. 68-69. The Board then decided to opine on the constitutional question anyway, stating in one sentence that, if this subsection of UMOVA violated the state constitution, then the federal constitution’s doctrine of substantive due process would reinstate the state law. App. 69. The theory appears to be that applying our state constitution to this election would be applying a “newly announced rule of law.” App. 62. The Board, however, has confused the chronology. The residency requirement in the state constitution has existed and persisted since the Revolutionary War. UMOVA was enacted 235 years later. Not exactly a new rule of law.

Even setting aside the statute of constitutional avoidance, if the Court does not believe section 163-258.2(1)(e) is reasonably susceptible to Judge Griffin’s proposed interpretation, then the Court should refuse to enforce the statute as it applies to Never Residents.

When “there is a conflict between a statute and the Constitution, this Court must determine the rights and liabilities or duties of the litigants before it in accordance with the Constitution, because the Constitution is the superior rule of law in that situation.” In re Chastain, No. 283A22-2, 2024 WL 5100940, at *6 (N.C. Dec. 13, 2024) (Riggs, J.) [App. 128]. And the constitution is clear: only bona fide residents can vote for state offices.<sup>9</sup>

D. This argument has no impact on votes cast for federal elections, military voters, or North Carolina residents living overseas.

To be clear, Judge Griffin is not challenging the votes of military voters, nor is he challenging any vote cast for federal contests.

Judge Griffin was not a candidate for federal office. And federal statutory law, which imposes duties on states for uniformed services voters and other overseas voters, applies only to “elections for Federal office.” See 52 U.S.C. § 20302(a). Besides, it’s highly unlikely the Never Residents includes servicemembers, because these are people who were born abroad and have never lived anywhere in the United States.<sup>10</sup>

<sup>9</sup> This argument is not required to be decided by a three-judge panel in superior court. First, UMOVA can and should be interpreted not to permit Never Resident voting. Second, this is not a facial challenge to UMOVA but is at most an as-applied challenge. Even accepting the Board’s interpretation of UMOVA, Judge Griffin is challenging only a small subset of UMOVA-covered voters, and he’s not seeking relief “far beyond the particular circumstances” of this election protest. Singleton v. N.C. Dep’t of Health & Hum. Servs., 906 S.E.2d 806, 808 (N.C. 2024). Finally, an appellate petition never requires transfer. Transfer is appropriate only if the “complaint,” “answer,” or “responsive pleading” contains a facial challenge to a state statute. N.C. R. Civ. P. 42(b)(4). This filing is none of those things.

<sup>10</sup> Because this case does not involve an election for a federal office, other provisions of the state constitution are not implicated. Article VI of the North Carolina Constitution lets the General Assembly reduce the residency requirement, but such short-

UMOVA also distinguishes between, on one hand, uniformed-service voters and overseas voters who have resided in this state, N.C. Gen. Stat. § 163-258.2(1)(a)-(d), and, on the other hand, overseas voters who were born abroad and have never resided in this state, id. § 163-258.2(1)(e). Judge Griffin has challenged the votes of this latter group only.

Anyway, a servicemember who previously resided in North Carolina but is deployed overseas does not lose his North Carolina residency. Unless a servicemember leaves the state and intends never to return, he remains a resident of the state. See Lloyd, 296 N.C. at 444, 251 S.E.2d at 861 (student who leaves for college becomes resident at the place of his college unless he intends to return to his former home after graduation). Unless the servicemember has “abandoned” his home in North Carolina, he remains a resident here for voting purposes. Id. at 449, 251 S.E.2d at 864. By contrast, the Never Residents never had a home in North Carolina that they could abandon.

E.     Residency isn’t inheritable under the state constitution’s voter qualifications.

Justice Riggs has argued that Never Residents inherit the residences of their parents. She analogizes to the law of domiciliary for infants. Yet the analogy crumbles upon inspection because infants can’t vote. N.C. Const. art. VI, § 1 (voting rights limited to those at least “18 years of age”). Unlike an infant, an 18-year-old chooses where he resides. If he wishes to become a member of North Carolina’s political community, he must decide, as term residents can only vote for president and vice president. N.C. Const. art. VI, § 2(2).

an adult, to reside in North Carolina. Otherwise, he is not a member of our political community entitled to vote. There is no such thing as “birthright residency” for purposes of voting in our state.

Inherited voting rights also make no sense when applied to the circumstances of the Never Residents. Under Justice Riggs’ theory, a child’s residence or domicile is the same as his parents. But recall that the Never Residents were born abroad and have never lived in the United States. That means that the parents of the Never Residents have been abroad for all eighteen years of the Never Resident’s childhood. But a person can only establish residency in a place in which they have actually lived. When the Never Resident turned 18, his residence was where his parents had set up their international abode. Wherever that was, it wasn’t in North Carolina.

By its own terms, UMOVA doesn’t care whether the Never Residents’ parents set up a fixed habitation somewhere abroad. Instead, it ascribes to the parent a North Carolina residency, even when the parent has settled down in a foreign country eighteen years ago. See N.C. Gen. Stat. § 163-258.2(1)(e). Justice Riggs argues that this is constitutional because the legislature can ascribe a fictional residency to a person by statute. That is true when the residency matters for other statutory or common law purposes. But the legislature is powerless to rewrite the meaning of “residency” as it’s set out in the North Carolina Constitution. The ratifiers of our constitution would not have imposed a residency requirement in our charter of government just so the legislature can override it. The word “residency” continues to carry the original public meaning that it has carried through our state’s history. To suggest that the legislature could ignore this meaning or change it by statute is an affront to judicial review. Bayard v. Singleton, 1 N.C. (Mart.) 5 (1787); Marbury v. Madison, 5 U.S. (1 Cranch) 137, 177-78 (1803).

The original public meaning of “residency” as used of voting rights in our constitution has always required the would-be voter to, at a minimum, live in North Carolina. That commonsense requirement of physical presence cannot be eliminated by statute. It is fundamental to the identity of our political community, and our constitution does not let the General Assembly change our community by granting voting rights to Never Residents. UMOVA doesn’t do that because doing so would be unconstitutional.

If the Board counts the votes of people who have never been members of our political community, it will violate our state constitution. That harms not only Judge Griffin, but also the true members of our state’s political community.

III. Overseas Voters Who Did Not Provide Photo Identification Cannot Cast a Ballot in State Elections.

The final category of protests before the State Board involved ballots cast by overseas voters more generally. State law requires these voters to submit photo identification along with their absentee ballots, just like all other voters. But the State Board decided to accept overseas absentee ballots without accompanying identification, in violation of state law.

A. Article 21A, which governs overseas absentee voters, incorporates Article 20's requirements for absentee voters.

Subchapter VII of Chapter 163 of the General Statutes contains the requirements for all types of absentee-ballot voting in North Carolina. Article 20 of that subchapter sets out the general rules for absentee voting. See N.C. Gen. Stat. §§ 163-226 to -239. Article 21A (which is UMOVA) layers on additional rules for absentee voting by military and overseas voters. See id. §§ 163-258.1 to -258.31. The general absentee voting provisions of Article 20 apply to overseas absentee voting under Article 21A, and not vice versa. Section 163-239 states, “Except as otherwise provided therein, Article 21A of this Chapter [for overseas absentee voting] shall not apply to or modify the provisions of this Article [20].”

One of the key provisions of Article 20 is the requirement of photo identification for absentee voting. N.C. Gen. Stat. § 163-230.1(a)(4), (b)(4), (e)(3), (f1). These provisions equalize the burden of voting: both in-person voters and absentee voters must show photo identification to cast a ballot. See id. § 163-166.16(a) (requiring photo identification for in-person voting); N.C. Const. art. VI, §§ 2(4), 3(2) (same). The General Assembly first enacted UMOVA in 2011 to regulate absentee ballots cast by overseas voters. See N.C. Sess. Law 2011-182. The General Assembly then added legislation to require photo identification for absentee ballots. See, e.g., N.C. Sess. Law 2019-239, § 1.2(b). When it did so, it did not exempt overseas voters. If our legislature intended to exempt overseas absentee voters from the photo identification requirement, it would have said so explicitly.

But overseas voters are not exempt from this equalization requirement and must provide photo identification to vote. All absentee ballots—cast under either Article 20 or Article 21A—must be transmitted to the relevant county board of elections by placing it in a “sealed container-return envelope.” N.C. Gen. Stat. § 163-231(b)(1). This reference to a sealed container-return envelope applies expressly to absentee ballots cast under both Articles 20 and 21A. To understand what an overseas voter must put in the “sealed container-return envelope,” the voter must look at the requirements under Article 20, since Article 21A does not answer the question. See id. §§ 163-258.1 to -258.31.

Article 20 is clear that the “sealed container-return envelope” exists, in part, to hold the photo identification of all absentee ballots. The container-return envelope must contain a valid photo identification: “Each container-return envelope returned to the county board with application and voted ballots under this section shall be accompanied by a photocopy of identification . . . .” Id. § 163-230.1(f1). The failure to include a photo identification in the container-return envelope is a curable deficiency, but only if the proper identification is received the day before the county canvass. Id. § 163-230.1(e). None of the challenged ballots were cured.

Even at a more general level, absentee ballots cast both within and without the United States (Article 20 and Article 21A absentee ballots) are generally treated alike and are all considered absentee ballots:

- “The county board shall report ballots cast during early voting under Part 5 of Article 14A of this Chapter separately from mail-in absentee ballots cast under Article 20 or 21A of this Chapter.” Id. § 163-132.5G(a1)(4).
- “The sealed container-return envelope in which executed absentee ballots have been placed shall be transmitted to the county board of elections who issued those ballots as follows . . . All ballots issued under the provisions of this Article and Article 21A of this Chapter shall be transmitted by one of the following means . . . .” Id. § 163-231(b).
- The lawful procedure for counting absentee ballots cast under both Article 20 and Article 21A are set out in Article 20. Id. § 163-234.

The State Board reasoned that Article 21A excused overseas voters from providing photo identification because section 163-258.17(b) established the exclusive means to authenticate the identity of the voter. App. 70-71. But subsection (b) says no such thing.

That subsection states that the lone “authentication” required “for execution of a document” for overseas voters are the declarations permitted for overseas voters. N.C. Gen. Stat. § 163-258.17(b) (emphasis added); see id. § 163-258.4 (describing declaration that acknowledges misstatements are grounds for perjury). Subsection (b) cannot exempt an overseas voter from the photo-identification requirement because photo identification is not the “authentication” of a document—it’s the authentication of the voter’s identity.

This conclusion is easily confirmed by looking at Article 20. Similar to section 163-258.17(b)'s authentication requirement, Article 20 also requires absentee ballots to be authenticated by notarization or a witness. See id. § 163-231. Notably, the photo identification requirement is an entirely separate requirement found in another statute within Article 20. Id. § 163-230.1. Why? Because photo identification is not an “authentication” of a document.

Justice Riggs argued to the Board that Article 21A prohibits a photo identification requirement because section 163-258.17(a) permits the counting of improper ballots cast by overseas voters if the ballots are missing “nonessential” information. Id. § 163-258.17(a). The statute gives examples of nonessential requirements that can be ignored: failing to use “paper or envelopes of a specified size or weight.” Id. Photo identification is a material requirement; it isn't “nonessential.” Anyone suggesting that photo identification is immaterial must have missed the last decade and a half of legislation, litigation, and constitutional amendments surrounding photo identification. Notably, the Board declined to adopt Justice Riggs' argument.

C. The fact that the Board issued a rule excusing overseas voters from providing photo identification does not immunize the Board's decision from judicial review.

The State Board also defended its decision to excuse overseas voters from the photo identification requirement on the grounds that the Board had already issued a rule saying so. App. 73-74 (citing 8 N.C. Admin. Code 17.0109(d)). But the General Assembly never delegated to the State Board the power to make the major policy decision of whether to require photo identification from a class of voters. Photo identification was a decision made by the legislature (and even the voters, through a constitutional amendment).

Indeed, the delegation of such an important question would be unconstitutional. An administrative agency cannot be “asked to make important policy choices which might just as easily be made by the elected representatives in the legislature.” Adams v. N.C. Dep’t of Nat. & Econ. Res., 295 N.C. 683, 697-98, 249 S.E.2d 402, 411 (1978). If such legislative power could be delegated, it would be “delegation running riot.” A.L.A. Schechter Poultry Corp. v. United States, 295 U.S. 495, 553 (1935) (administrative delegation held unconstitutional under non-delegation doctrine); see also State v. Harris, 216 N.C. 746, 6 S.E.2d 854, 860 (1940) (same).

As the Supreme Court of the United States has observed, when an administrative agency makes an extraordinary claim of authority with “political significance,” that gives courts a “reason to hesitate” before concluding that the legislature meant to confer the claimed authority. West Virginia v. EPA, 597 U.S. 697, 721 (2022). Under the major questions doctrine, courts recognize that the legislature does not “hide elephants in mouseholes.” Whitman v. Am. Trucking Ass’ns, 531 U.S. 457, 468 (2001) (Scalia, J.). “[S]eparation of powers principles” caution against such unrestrained readings of administrative authority. West Virginia, 597 U.S. at 723.

There is no textual indication that the General Assembly ever intended for the State Board to decide whether to require photo identification for any kind of voter, much less overseas voters. And even if there were some “colorable textual basis,” id., the major questions doctrine would caution the Court to interpret the statutes against a delegation.

The rule would also collapse under the state constitution. If voters are to be treated differently, there must be a rational basis for differential treatment. See N.C. Const. art. I, § 19 (“No person shall be denied the equal protection of the laws . . . .”); Lloyd, 296 N.C. at 439, 251 S.E.2d at 858 (“[A] citizen has a constitutionally protected right to participate in elections on an equal basis with other citizens in the jurisdiction.” (quoting Dunn, 405 U.S. at 336); N.C. Bar & Tavern Ass’n v. Cooper, 901 S.E.2d 355, 373 (N.C. Ct. App.), review allowed, 901 S.E.2d 232 (N.C. 2024); Askew v. City of Kinston, 906 S.E.2d 500, 507 (N.C. Ct. App. 2024). But there is no legitimate reason to impose a greater burden—photo identification—on those living in North Carolina than is imposed on those living abroad. There is no reason to think that the General Assembly intended that bizarre, differential treatment, which could violate the state constitution’s equal protection clause.

D. Federal law has no bearing on the photo-identification requirement.

Because state law offered by the State Board provides no refuge, the Board also sought to intertwine its reasoning with federal law, citing 52 U.S.C. § 20302. App. 74-76. But, as with HAVA and the NVRA, federal law has no application here. The statute on which the Board relies, by its own terms, only applies “elections for Federal office.” E.g., 52 U.S.C. § 20302(a)(1)-(3), (6)-(8), (b)(1), (c).

* * *

Ultimately, it would make no sense to require photo identification for voters present in the United States, but not for overseas voters. The General Assembly did not require photo identification for one category of voter and not the other. Rather, everyone voting in a North Carolina election, whether voting in person or by any kind of absentee ballot, must submit a photo identification to vote.

Therefore, these absentee ballots, submitted under Article 21A, cannot be counted for the contests that are the subject of these election protests.

IV. The State Board Manufactured Procedural Defects.

To reject Judge Griffin's protests, the State Board not only misconstrued North Carolina law, it also tried to disqualify the protests on procedural technicalities. It is clear, however, that Judge Griffin's protests complied with all relevant procedural requirements.

A. The protests should not have been filed as voter challenges.

The Board reasoned that it should dismiss the protests because they were untimely voter challenges. App. 64-66. But the State Board had already rejected its own argument in 2016, and this Court said the same thing earlier this year.

In 2016, an election protest was filed by the Pat McCrory campaign in the governor's race, challenging the eligibility of certain voters to cast ballots in that election. Bouvier, 386 N.C. at 5-6, 900 S.E.2d at 843-44. McCrory's opponent, Roy Cooper, argued that the protests should be dismissed because they merely challenged the eligibility of certain voters, and therefore should have been brought as voter challenges instead. See Bouvier v. Porter, 279 N.C. App. 528, 542, 865 S.E.2d 732, 741-42, rev'd in part and remanded, 386 N.C. 1, 900 S.E.2d 838 (2024); In re Consideration of Certain Legal Questions Affecting the Authentication of the 2016 General Election (N.C. State Bd. of Elections Nov. 28, 2016) [App. 344-45].

The State Board rejected Cooper's argument. App. 334-45. In an order on Cooper's request to dismiss the protests, the Board explained that an election protest "must prove the occurrence of an outcome-determinative violation of election law, irregularity, or misconduct." App. 344 ¶ 3. Although an election protest "may not merely dispute the eligibility of a voter," an election protest may challenge a voter's eligibility if the "claims regarding the eligibility of certain voters" are presented "as evidence that an outcome-determinative violation of election law, irregularity, or misconduct has occurred." App. 345 ¶ 5. Thus, an election board may "discount a ballot cast by an unqualified voter" if an election protest shows "that ineligible voters participated in number sufficient to change the outcome of the election." App. 345 ¶ 7.

The McCrory election protest spun off collateral litigation that wound up at this Court as Bouvier v. Porter, 386 N.C. 1, 900 S.E.2d 838 (2024). One of the issues in Bouvier continued to be whether an election protest can challenge the eligibility of certain voters. The Court affirmed the logic of the Board's 2016 order, explaining that "an election protest may address any 'irregularity' or 'misconduct' in the election process, including the counting and tabulation of ballots cast by ineligible voters." Id. at 4, 900 S.E.2d at 843 (citations omitted). Such ineligible voters, who could be targeted by an election protest, include “nonresidents,” who are “categorically ineligible to vote.” Id. at 4 n.2, 900 S.E.2d at 843 n.2. It also includes people who are not “‘legally registered’ to vote.” Id. (quoting N.C. Gen. Stat. § 163-54).

The Board’s final decision on Judge Griffin’s protests made no effort to reconcile its reasoning with its prior 2016 order or Bouvier. It is but another example of the State Board ignoring the law and exercising power untethered to principle.

B. The Board wrongly dismissed the protests for lack of service.

Before addressing the merits of the three categories of protests, the State Board alternatively dismissed Judge Griffin’s protests because he did not properly serve the protests on affected voters. The State Board’s ruling is wrong because (1) the Board does not have statutory authority to impose a service obligation on protestors and (2), even if it did, Judge Griffin’s service satisfied the Board’s service demands.

The State Board promulgated a protest template that includes a demand that protestors “must serve copies of all filings on every person with a direct stake in the outcome of this protest.” 8 N.C. Admin. Code § 02.0111 (the protest-form template). The service can be accomplished by “transmittal through U.S. Mail” and has to “occur within one (1) business day” of filing a protest. Id.

First, there is no statutory authority for the Board to force protestors to serve copies of protests on affected parties. The State Board claims that it can compel protestors to serve parties because the Board has the power to “prescribe forms for filing protests.” App. 43-44 (citing N.C. Gen. Stat. § 163-182.9(c)). But the power to merely create a template for a protest does not include the power to burden protestors with providing notice to affected parties. That is especially so when the protest statutes explicitly burden someone else with the duty to provide notice to affected parties: the county boards. See N.C. Gen. Stat. § 163-182.10(b). The General Assembly never authorized the State Board to outsource the county boards' notice obligations to protestors and then penalize those protestors for failing to do the county boards' jobs for them. The Board acted beyond its authority in dismissing protests on service grounds.

Second, Judge Griffin nevertheless complied with the Board's service demand by mailing a postcard by U.S. First-Class Mail to over 60,000 voters at the voters' addresses of record. The postcard stated the following:

* * * NOTICE * * *

[[First Name]] [[Middle Name]] [[Last Name]], your vote may be affected by one of more protests filed in the 2024 general elections. Please scan this QR code to view the protests filings. Please check under the county in which you cast a ballot to see what protest may related to you.... For more information on when your County Board of Elections will hold a hearing on this matter, please visit the State Board of Elections' website link found on the Protest Cite (via the QR code).

App. 175 (Offerman Aff., Attach. 1).

The State Board criticized Judge Griffin's service efforts as "junk mail" because it was (1) a postcard that (2) didn't announce that the protests were "challenging the voter's eligibility" and (3) used a QR code to provide access to the filed materials. App. 45-51. The Board concluded that such postcards did not properly inform voters of the protests and provide them an opportunity to object. App. 49.

The Board’s critique of Judge Griffin’s service efforts is misplaced. First, the State Board cannot belittle postcards as “junk mail” when the Board itself routinely mails cards to voters. See N.C. Gen. Stat. § 163-82.8(c) (mailing of voter registration cards); id. § 163-82.14(d)(2) (confirming address by mailing cards). Second, the postcard states that “your vote may be affected by one of more protests” and instructs voters to contact their county boards for information on “a hearing on this matter.” App. 175. The postcard, thus, notifies voters that their vote is being implicated by a legal proceeding and, appropriately, directs them to find more information on the proceeding. Finally, the Board’s distrust of QR codes is belied by the Board’s own use of QR codes in the “Voter Photo ID” mailers that it recently distributed across the state. See N.C. State Bd. of Elections, Press Release: State Board Launches Photo ID Educational Campaign (Feb. 13, 2024) [App. 346-49], available at <https://www.ncsbe.gov/news/press-releases/2024/02/13/state-board-launches-photo-id-educational-campaign> (visit the link “Voter Photo ID Mailer (PDF)”).<sup>11</sup>

To be clear, the constitutional standard for notice is that it be “reasonably certain to inform those affected.” Mullane v. Cent. Hanover Bank & Tr. Co., 339 U.S. 306, 315 (1950). The standard does not demand perfection. See id. at 319 (“We think that under such circumstances reasonable risks that notice might not actually reach every beneficiary are 11 The Board’s press release boasted that its new voter ID “campaign is designed to reach every corner of North Carolina, including rural and urban areas, in as many ways as possible.” Id. (emphasis added). The Board posted the “Voter Photo ID Mailer (PDF)” at <https://s3.amazonaws.com/dl.ncsbe.gov/Voter%20ID/Voter-ID-Mailer.pdf>. It is available in the appendix at pages 350-51.

justifiable.”). Moreover, Judge Griffin served over 60,000 voters. The interests of each voter “is identical with that of a class” and, therefore, “notice reasonably certain to reach most of those interested in objecting is likely to safeguard the interests of all, since any sustained would inure to the benefit of all.” Id. Given that Judge Griffin’s service on 60,000 voters replicates the State Board’s own methods of notifying voters, the Board had no grounds to claim his method of service was deficient.

C. Judge Griffin timely filed his protests.

The Board mentions, in passing, that some of Judge Griffin’s protests might have been untimely filed and, therefore, could be subject to dismissal. App. 6 n.4. This is baseless. The General Statutes are explicit that only “substantial compliance” is required with the filing deadlines for election protests; and Judge Griffin’s protests substantially complied with the protest-filing deadline.

Section 163-182.9 sets forth the requirements of an election protest. In addition to a protest being in writing and containing certain information, the section sets forth deadlines for filing a protest. N.C. Gen. Stat. § 163-182.9(b). “If the protest concerns an irregularity other than vote counting or result tabulation, the protest shall be filed no later than 5:00 P.M. on the second business day after the county board has completed its canvass and declared the results.” Id. § 163-182.9(b)(4)(c).

The next statute, section 163-182.10, then dictates an elections board’s review of whether a protest complies with these requirements. Section 163-182.10 explicitly states that a board shall “determine whether the protest substantially complies with G.S. 163-182.9

and whether it establishes probable cause to believe that a violation of election law or irregularity or misconduct has occurred.” Id. § 163-182.10(a)(1) (emphasis added). Therefore, for a protest to proceed to a review of its merits, the protest must substantially comply with the 5:00 P.M. filing deadline.

The affidavit of Kyle Offerman establishes that all of Judge Griffin’s protests were submitted via email to the county board before the 5:00 P.M. deadline. App. 172 (Offerman Aff. ¶¶ 8-9). The possibility that some of these protests might have hit election officials’ inboxes a few minutes after 5:00 P.M. is irrelevant. The protests would have nonetheless been filed in substantial compliance with the statutory filing deadline.

North Carolina courts have, for decades, explained what is required when a statute demands only substantial compliance with certain requirements. In such statutes, substantial means “[i]n a substantial manner, in substance, essentially. It does not mean an accurate or exact copy.” Graham v. Nw. Bank, 16 N.C. App. 287, 291, 192 S.E.2d 109, 112 (1972) (cleaned up). In other words, substantial compliance with a requirement is something less than precise satisfaction of the requirement.

This standard of leniency is not uncommon. It also appears in litigation. For example, the North Carolina Court of Appeals applies a substantial compliance standard to the application of the appellate rules: “[T]his court has held that when a litigant exercises ‘substantial compliance’ with the appellate rules, the appeal may not be dismissed for a technical violation of the rules.” Pollock v. Parnell, 126 N.C. App. 358, 362, 484 S.E.2d 864, 866 (1997). Thus, a substantial-compliance standard precludes a judicial body from dismissing a filing for mere failure to comply with the technical rules.

There is no doubt that a filing received by the board of elections within minutes of the deadline in section 163-182.9 is in “substantial compliance” with the deadline. The filing of a protest within minutes of a deadline would be “essentially” or “in substance” complying with the deadline, even if it is not technically complying with the deadline. Under section 163-182.10(a)(1), any such protest must, as a matter of law, be allowed to proceed to the merits.

V. No Other Federal Statute Bars the Protests.

Justice Riggs argued that additional federal statutes preclude Judge Griffin’s protests from succeeding. The Board did not address these statutes because they are irrelevant to the protests at issue.

A. The Civil Rights Act does not impact the protests.

Justice Riggs argued to the State Board that the “materiality provision” of the federal Civil Rights Act of 1964 barred Judge Griffin’s election protests based on ballots cast by people with incomplete voter registrations. But her argument has already been rejected by other courts.

The Civil Rights Act’s materiality provision prohibits any “person acting under color of law” from denying an individual’s vote due to an error or omission “if such error or omission is not material in determining whether such individual is qualified under State law to vote in such election.” 52 U.S.C. § 10101(a)(2)(B). The Eleventh Circuit has already determined that a drivers license or social security number is material in determining whether an individual is qualified by law to vote. See Browning, 522 F.3d at 1174 n.22 (“because Congress required the identification numbers [drivers license numbers or partial social security numbers] to be on voter registration applications, they are per se material under [the Civil Rights Act’s materiality provision]”).

Indeed, the materiality provision only applies to the provision of “trivial information” that serves no purpose other than “inducing voter-generated errors that could be used to justify rejecting applicants.” Id. at 1173. The General Assembly has determined that some information on the voter application form is immaterial and can be lawfully omitted—like “race, ethnicity, gender, or telephone number.” N.C. Gen. Stat. § 163-82.4(a). But drivers license and social security numbers are far from immaterial. The information at issue is used to validate the identity of the applicant. Id. § 163-82.12(8), (9). Thus, the Eleventh Circuit described such information as “per se” material under the Civil Rights Act. Browning, 522 F.3d at 1174 n.22. The court was skeptical that the government “would mandate the gathering of information—indeed, that it would make that a precondition for accepting registration application—that it also deems immaterial.” Id. at 1174.

B. The Voting Rights Act does not impact the protests.

At the State Board, Justice Riggs claimed that the Voting Rights Act of 1965 (VRA) prevents the State Board from enforcing the election laws identified in Judge Griffin’s protests. That is wrong.

The Voting Rights Act prohibits refusing to count the vote of anyone “who is entitled to vote under any provision of this Act or is otherwise qualified to vote.” 52 U.S.C. § 10307(a). Justice Riggs never pointed to any provision of the Act that the election protests purportedly violate. Indeed, the enforcement provision of the VRA exists just to enforce “the Act’s comprehensive scheme to eliminate racial discrimination in the conduct of public elections.” Powell v. Power, 436 F.2d 84, 86 (2d Cir. 1970). Absent racial discrimination, “the Act provides no remedy.” Id. at 87. As the U.S. Supreme Court has recently explained, the VRA is Congress’s effort to bring to “an end to the denial of the right to vote based on race.” Brnovich v. Democratic Nat’l Comm., 594 U.S. 647, 655 (2021). No one has ever suggested that this case involves racial discrimination—it quite obviously doesn’t. So the Voting Rights Act is irrelevant.

VI. The Protests Comport with Equal Protection and Substantive Due Process.

The right to vote is fundamental. But like all fundamental rights, voting is not an absolute right. The U.S. Supreme Court has established a test that balances the right to vote with a state’s interest in ensuring election integrity. The protests, which seek to enforce laws that go to the heart of election integrity, satisfy this balancing test.

A. The Anderson-Burdick test.

Voting is a fundamental right. E.g., Burdick v. Takushi, 504 U.S. 428, 433 (1992). Yet, the U.S. Supreme Court has recognized that “[t]here must be a substantial regulation of elections if they are to be fair and honest and if some sort of order, rather than chaos, is to accompany the democratic processes.” Storer v. Brown, 415 U.S. 724, 730 (1974).

The U.S. Supreme Court has established the Anderson-Burdick test to strike a balance between the right to vote and the need for fair elections. See Libertarian Party of N.C. v. State, 365 N.C. 41, 47-48, 707 S.E.2d 199, 203-04 (2011) (discussing test). The test requires that a regulation imposing a severe burden on voting be “narrowly drawn to advance a state interest of compelling importance.” Burdick, 504 U.S. at 434 (internal quotation marks omitted). Severe burdens are defined as invidious restrictions that “are unrelated to voter qualifications.” Crawford v. Marion Cnty. Election Bd., 553 U.S. 181, 189 (2008).

The test also accounts for non-severe burdens, which include “‘evenhanded restrictions that protect the integrity and reliability of the electoral process itself.’” Id. at 189-90 (quoting Anderson v. Celebrezze, 460 U.S. 780, 788 n.9 (1983)). These lesser burdens are subject to a flexible balancing standard, which “weigh[s] ‘the character and magnitude of the asserted injury’” against “‘the precise interests put forward by the State as justifications for the burden imposed by its rule.’” Burdick, 504 U.S. at 434 (quoting Anderson, 460 U.S. at 789). Such burdens are usually justified by “a State’s important regulatory interests.” Timmons v. Twin Cities Area New Party, 520 U.S. 351, 351 (1997).

B. The protests do not seek to impose severe limitations on voting.

Judge Griffin is not asking the State Borad to enforce laws that would severely burden voting.

To start, the North Carolina Constitution establishes that both lawful registration and residency are voter qualifications. N.C. Const. art. VI, §§ 2(1), 3(1). And anybody who wants to vote in North Carolina must be a resident and lawfully registered—no exceptions are allowed. Judge Griffin’s request that the State Board enforce this evenhanded pair of voter qualifications cannot, as a matter of law, severely burden the right to vote. See Crawford, 553 U.S. at 189-90.

The third law that Judge Griffin asked the State Board to enforce (overseas voters providing photo identification) is enshrined in the General Statutes. See supra Argument § III. Like registration and residency, this requirement is also evenhanded—applying to all voters equally. Indeed, Judge Griffin filed the protest because the State Board unlawfully exempted one demographic of voters—those living overseas—from this universal requirement. The U.S. Supreme Court has already concluded that reasonable photo-identification requirements do not impose “a substantial burden on the right to vote.” Crawford, 553 U.S. 191-98.

The State Board never mentions the Anderson-Burdick test anywhere in its order. Rather, in discussing the incomplete-registration protests, the Board defends its dismissal of those protests on the grounds that the individuals “did everything they were told to do to register.” App. 57. The Board then relies on this Court’s decisions in Overton v. Mayor & City Commissioners of City of Hendersonville, 253 N.C. 306, 116 S.E.2d 808 (1960), and Woodall v. W. Wake Highway Commission, 176 N.C. 377, 97 S.E. 226 (1918), for the Board’s conclusion that “error by election officials in the processing of voter registration cannot be used to discount a voter’s ballot.” App. 59-60. But the decisions in Woodall and Overton do not hold such. Rather, those decisions reasoned that, because registrars had a duty to issue oaths (while voters had no obligation to take an oath), a registrar’s failure of his personal duty could not result in a voter being disqualified. See Overton, 253 N.C. at 315, 116 S.E.2d at 815; Woodall, 176 N.C. 377, 97 S.E. at 232.

Here, in contrast, a North Carolina statute imposes a duty on applicants to provide a drivers license or social security number that validates the applicants' identities. See N.C. Gen. Stat. § 162-82.4(a)(11), (d), (f). The Board's willingness to register applicants without this information does not excuse applicants of their duty to provide it. Moreover, Woodall and Overton cannot stand for an absolute rule that election-official errors can never result in the disqualification of voters because the Court plainly held otherwise in James, 359 N.C. at 270, 607 S.E.2d at 644, where the Court disqualified thousands of voters who (unlawfully) voted out of precinct at the instruction of poll workers. James even cited to Burdick to justify its result, seeing no conflict with this remedy and the Anderson-Burdick framework. Id.

Unlike in Woodall, Overton, and James, this is not an instance in which an election official's error prevented eligible voters from casting their ballots. This is an instance in which, after the State Board decided to not inform individuals of certain requirements, the individuals' ignorance resulted in them failing to take the steps necessary to become eligible voters. As courts have often held, "ignorance of the law is no excuse for a failure to comply with the law." Orange Cnty. v. N.C. Dep't of Transp., 46 N.C. App. 350, 377, 265 S.E.2d

890, 908 (1980). It's not unconstitutional to require the public to be as knowledgeable of election laws as other laws.<sup>12</sup>

C. The laws at issue are tailored to compelling state interests.

But even if the Court were to find that the enforcement of the laws at issue severely burdened the right to vote, North Carolina is well justified in enforcing these laws.

The State has an undeniable interest in restricting voting to only those who are eligible to vote, thereby ensuring that the votes of eligible voters are not diluted by ineligible ballots. Bush v. Gore, 531 U.S. 98, 105 (2000). Indeed, counting only eligible ballots is the ultimate means of accomplishing the State's "compelling interest in preserving the integrity of its election process." Purcell v. Gonzalez, 549 U.S. 1, 4 (2006) (cleaned up). Demanding that only qualified voters—those lawfully registered, residing in North Carolina, and producing photo identification—be allowed to cast a ballot is perfectly tailored to protecting eligible voters from vote dilution.

The State's compelling interest in election integrity also empowers the States to enact protections against possible voter fraud, because such protections assuage the public's

12 Even assuming citizens could blame the State Board for their failure to become eligible to vote, human error by government employees does not automatically create a constitutional violation. See Pettengill v. Putnam Cnty. R-1 Sch. Dist., Unionville, Mo., 472 F.2d 121, 122 (8th Cir. 1973) (holding no constitutional violation absent "aggravating factors such as denying the right of citizens to vote for reasons of race, or fraudulent interference with a free election by stuffing of the ballot box, or other unlawful conduct which interferes with the individual's right to vote" (citations omitted)); Powell, 436 F.2d at 88 (holding that neither the Equal Protection and Due Process Clauses of the Fourteenth Amendment "guarantee against errors in the administration of an election").

“fear [that] legitimate votes will be outweighed by fraudulent ones.” Id. Thus, the State is justified in requiring that all voters provide photo identification as a means of identity verification. Moreover, the Anderson-Burdick standard does not demand an “elaborate, empirical verification” of efforts to counteract voter fraud. Timmons, 520 U.S. at 364. Rather, the State is free to protect against voter fraud “with foresight rather than reactively,” so long as the protections are “reasonable” and don’t “significantly impinge” constitutional rights. Munro v. Socialist Workers Party, 479 U.S. 189, 195-96 (1986).

It is no longer debatable that universal photo-identification requirements are a constitutionally acceptable way to guard against impersonation of registered voters. See Crawford, 553 U.S. at 194-97 (Stevens, J.); see also id. at 209 (Scalia, J., concurring) (“The universally applicable requirements of Indiana’s voter-identification law are eminently reasonable.”).

It is equally established that North Carolina’s requirement that individuals, in order to be qualified to vote, verify their identities via a drivers license or social security number guards against fraudulent registrations. See Browning, 522 F.3d at 1168 (describing HAVA’s mirror requirement for such information as being “Congress’s attempt to . . . prevent[] voter impersonation fraud”). “‘The electoral system cannot inspire public confidence if no safeguards exist . . . to confirm the identity of voters.’” Crawford, 553 U.S. at 194 (quoting Building Confidence in U.S. Elections § 2.5 (Sept. 2005)).

VII. The Appropriate Remedy Is Discounting the Illegal Ballots.

In the end, the State Board and Justice Riggs do not disagree with Judge Griffin's reading of the law—they simply believe it's too late to comply with the law. But the results of an election cannot be tainted by ballots unlawfully cast. Judge Griffin's protests satisfy the legal standards established in the election-protest statutes and, therefore, the Court should order that any unlawful vote be discounted.

A. To succeed, Judge Griffin need only provide substantial evidence of an outcome-determinative violation of election law.

To ensure that no election is subject to the taint of inaccurate results, the General Assembly provided a lenient standard for the success of an election protest.

Our state constitution requires that elections be “free.” N.C. Const. art. I, § 10. An election is free only if “the votes are accurately counted. Inherently, votes are not accurately counted if ineligible voters' ballots are included in the election results.” Bouvier, 386 N.C. at 3, 900 S.E.2d at 842 (quoting Harper v. Hall, 384 N.C. 292, 363, 886 S.E.2d 393, 439 (2023)).

The election-protest process is the legislature's recognition that free—and, thus, accurate—elections “are vital to maintaining the public's trust and confidence in our system of self-government.” Id. at 4, 900 S.E.2d at 842. The election-protests process is meant “to assure that an election is determined without taint of fraud or corruption and without irregularities that may have changed the result of an election.” Id. at 4, 900 S.E.2d at 843.

Given the critical role that protests play in ensuring the public's confidence in the democratic process, the General Assembly provided for a lenient standard for a successful protest. This is because election boards "must expeditiously resolve election protests to facilitate appeals and the timely certification of elections." Id. at 16, 900 S.E.2d at 850. Election protests, therefore, "proceed rapidly, and the process does not lend itself to exhaustive discovery and absolute precision." Id.

For an election protest to succeed, the election protest only needs to present "substantial evidence to believe that a violation of the election law or other irregularity or misconduct did occur and that it was sufficiently serious to cast doubt on the apparent results of the election." N.C. Gen. Stat. § 163-182.19(d)(2)(d), (e) (emphasis added). If an election protest is successful, the statutes authorize the elections board to correct the vote count and declare new results. Id. § 163-182.19(d)(2)(d), (e).

This Court has described the "substantial evidence" standard as creating a "low" bar. State v. Taylor, 379 N.C. 589, 611, 866 S.E.2d 740, 757 (2021). Thus, in State v. Butler, this Court stated: "To be substantial, the evidence need not be irrefutable or uncontroverted; it need only be such as would satisfy a reasonable mind as being adequate to support a conclusion." 356 N.C. 141, 145, 567 S.E.2d 137, 139 (2002) (quotation omitted). In plain terms, "substantial evidence is simply evidence that is "more than a scintilla" and is "such relevant evidence as a reasonable mind might accept as adequate to support a conclusion." Lackey v. Dept. of Human Resources, 306 N.C. 231, 238, 293 S.E.2d 171, 176 (1982).

Courts routinely apply the “substantial evidence” standard, and have recognized for decades that “uncorroborated and untested testimony and hearsay testimony” can constitute substantial evidence, as long as that evidence is reliable and trustworthy. EchoStar Commc’ns Corp. v. FCC, 292 F.3d 749, 753 (D.C. Cir. 2002). It is also generally accepted that the “substantial evidence” standard can be satisfied by something less than a preponderance of the evidence, La. Public Service Comm’n v. FERC, 20 F.4th 1, 7 (D.C. Cir. 2021), and that the possibility of drawing two inconsistent conclusions from the evidence does not prevent a finding from being supported by substantial evidence, Mid Continent Steel & Wire, Inc. v. United States, 940 F.3d 662, 669 (Fed. Cir. 2019).

B. Judge Griffin provided substantial evidence of outcome-determinative election-law violations.

For the reasons already discussed, Judge Griffin’s protests identify three categories of voters who, as a matter of law, are ineligible to vote in the 2024 elections. There is no doubt that North Carolina law prohibited these three categories of voters to cast ballots for Seat 6 of the North Carolina Supreme Court. The State Board’s willingness to allow these voters to potentially determine the outcome of the election is a clear violation of election law.

In addition to establishing election-law violations, Judge Griffin’s protests provide the identities of the ineligible voters. Judge Griffin’s protests were each accompanied by an affidavit that (1) explained how the identities of these ineligible voters were determined based on data from the State Board and (2) attached the resulting lists of the voters’ identities. In the aggregate, the affidavits and lists that accompany the protests establish the following numbers of ineligible voters by category:

- Incomplete voter registration: 60,273.
- Never residents: 267.<sup>13</sup>
- Overseas voters without photo IDs: 5,509.<sup>14</sup>

Judge Griffin currently trails Justice Riggs by only 734 votes. There is no question that the State Board's unlawful decision to permit 5,509 overseas voters to cast ballots without providing photo identification is of a magnitude that it casts doubt on the outcome of the election. That is all the more true of the State Board's unlawful decision to allow 60,273 individuals to cast ballots despite the individuals never completing registration. While the Never Residents are, in isolation, insufficient to change the outcome of the election, those 267 voters could become outcome-determinative after the results are adjusted for the other categories of unlawful voters.

13 Judge Griffin was able to identify Never Residents who had submitted materials to the State Board. There are additional Never Residents who cast ballots but submitted their materials to the county boards of elections. Although Judge Griffin is not certain that these additional Never Residents are sufficient in number to change the outcome of his election, Judge Griffin ask that the Court's relief make clear that all Never Residents—whether they submitted materials to the State Board or a county board—be ineligible to vote in a state election.

14 Judge Griffin filed protests challenging no-ID overseas voters in six counties. Before filing the protest, counsel to Judge Griffin requested the list of such voters from six counties. App. 176. When the protests were originally filed, only one county (Guilford) had provided a list of such voters, and this list was included with the protest filed in Guilford County. App. 1831-78. Since filing the protests, Durham, Forsyth, Buncombe counties have provided the lists as well, and the lists were filed as supplements to Judge Griffin's protests. App. 177-343.

Again, the General Statutes require only “substantial evidence” of an outcome-determinative election-law violation. N.C. Gen. Stat. § 163-182.19(d)(2)(d), (e). This is a “low” bar, Taylor, 379 N.C. at 611, 866 S.E.2d at 757, that does not require “irrefutable or uncontroverted” evidence—it requires only that “a reasonable mind” might find the evidence to be adequate, Butler, 356 N.C. at 145, 567 S.E.2d at 139. The affidavits and lists constitute “substantial evidence” of outcome-determinative election-law violations because the affidavits and lists are, as a matter of law, sufficient to support a reasonable mind’s conclusion that such voters were ineligible to vote. See Lackey, 306 N.C. at 238, 293 S.E.2d at 176.

C. The Board tried to cast doubts about its own data.

In its decision, the Board cast doubt on the unrebutted evidence offered in support of Judge Griffin’s protests. Namely, the Board questioned whether the 60,000 voters identified in the protests had failed to provide their drivers license or social security numbers. App. 52.

As a threshold matter, the affidavits that accompany Judge Griffin’s protest explain that the list identifying the incomplete registrants was provided by the State Board itself in response to a public records request. App. 1754-55 ¶¶ 9-11. The fact that the Board is now attempting to impeach its own data should make the Court suspicious of the Board’s purported factual concerns. But the Court can also quickly dispense with these concerns on the merits.

To try to create doubt about the list provided by the State Board, the Board now speculates that the list could be over inclusive.

The State Board first speculates that the list might include individuals who were never issued a drivers license or social security number. See App. 52-53. But the Board—which certainly knows the answer to its own question—stops short of alleging that a single individual on the list falls within this category.

Second, the Board theorizes that some individuals might appear on the Board’s list because, despite providing a drivers license or social security number with their application, the number was removed from “the voter’s registration record” after the number failed the validation process. App. 53-54. But the Board concedes that, while the number is no longer in the “voter’s registration record,” “the data is still retained elsewhere in the system.” App. 54 (emphasis added). The Board, moreover, provided a list of voters for which the Board’s records did “not contain data” of either a drivers license number or social security numbers. App. 1754-55 (emphasis added).<sup>15</sup> According to the Board itself, the Board provided a list of voters for which the Board had no data of a drivers license or social security numbers. Notably, the Board never alleges that a single individual on the list provided a drivers license or social security number.

<sup>15</sup> Mr. Bonifay explains in his affidavit that he screened the Board’s list for individuals who lacked data for both a drivers license number and a social security number, and then he matched that subset against a list of individuals who voted by absentee or provisional ballot. App. 1755.

None of the Board's speculation undermines the reality that Judge Griffin's incomplete-registration protests provide substantial evidence of an outcome-determinative election-law violation.

D. The Court should order the ineligible votes discounted and the election results retabulated.

Like this Court held decades ago, "To permit unlawful votes to be counted along with lawful ballots in contested elections effectively 'disenfranchises' those voters who cast legal ballots, at least where the counting of unlawful votes determines an election's outcome." James, 359 N.C. at 270, 607 S.E.2d at 644. And the U.S. Supreme Court made the same point decades before that, reconfirming it in Bush v. Gore: "And the right of suffrage can be denied by a debasement or dilution of the weight of a citizen's vote just as effectively as by wholly prohibiting the free exercise of the franchise." Reynolds v. Sims, 377 U.S. 533, 555 (1964), quoted by Bush v. Gore, 531 U.S. 98, 105 (2000).

This case is not the first time that an election protest has caught the State Board violating the law and counting unlawful ballots. In the 2004 general election, the Board "improperly counted provisional ballots cast outside voters' precincts of residence on election day." James, 359 N.C. at 269, 607 S.E.2d at 644. As this Court held, state law did not allow these voters to cast ballots. The issue came to the Court from an election protest. Id. at 263, 607 S.E.2d at 640. And like the violation of law here, that one too was "statutorily unauthorized" and resulted in "thousands of citizens" being denied "the right to vote on election day." Id. at 269, 607 S.E.2d at 644. Nonetheless, this Court unanimously held that the error could not be remedied in a way to ensure the votes were counted: “This Court is without power to rectify the Board’s unilateral decision to instruct voters to cast provisional ballots in a manner not authorized by State law.” Id. at 270, 607 S.E.2d at 644. If the Court had simply permitted the State Board to count the statutorily unauthorized ballots, it would have disenfranchised those who cast lawful ballots: “To permit unlawful votes to be counted along with lawful ballots in contested elections effectively ‘disenfranchises’ those voters who cast legal ballots, at least where the counting of unlawful votes determines an election’s outcome.” Id.

Of course, Judge Griffin filed his election protests because unlawful votes have been counted, which has likely determined the election’s outcome. Under James, the Board was required to discount the unlawful ballots. That is the normal result of a successful election protest. See Bouvier, 386 N.C. at 4, 900 S.E.2d at 843 (“Where the irregularity affects the accuracy of the election results, the county board of elections may order the ineligible ballots excluded from the vote total . . .”).

Before the State Board of Elections, there was discussion of whether the Board could order a post-election cure period for some of Judge Griffin’s protests. But Justice Riggs’s counsel adamantly opposed a cure opportunity, calling it unconstitutional and ultra vires. If there is to be no post-election cure opportunity, then the only remedy left is the James remedy: excluding the ineligible ballots.

REQUESTED RULINGS AND RELIEF

In the interests of finality and expediency, Judge Griffin respectfully requests that the Court's order on the petition a writ of prohibition address every issue that has been raised in this proceeding. To summarize the preceding points, Judge Griffin requests that the Court hold:

- (a) Ballots cast by people who failed to provide their drivers license number or social security number when they registered to vote cannot be counted for this electoral contest.
- (b) Ballots cast by people who represented that "I am a U.S. citizen living outside the country, and I have never lived in the United States" cannot be counted for this electoral contest.
- (c) Ballots cast by overseas voters who did not present a photo identification cannot be counted for this electoral contest.
- (d) Judge Griffin's election protests were properly brought as election protests and were not required to be brought as voter challenges.
- (e) Judge Griffin's election protests do not require the removal of any person from the voter rolls.
- (f) All arguments under the NVRA, HAVA, the VRA, and the Civil Rights Act against the relief requested by Judge Griffin are rejected.

- (g) All arguments under the state or federal constitution that affected persons who cast ballots were improperly served or are due additional process are rejected.
- (h) All other arguments that the ballots cannot be discounted without violating the federal or state constitution are rejected.
- (i) This State Board is prohibited from counting the above-identified ballots, which were not lawfully cast.

CONCLUSION

Judge Griffin respectfully requests that the Court issue a writ of prohibition prohibiting the Board from counting the unlawful ballots in the election for Seat 6 of the North Carolina Supreme Court and ordering the State Board correct the vote count.

10 Facts About NC's Photo ID Requirement for Voting

RALEIGH, NC – The following are 10 facts about North Carolina's photo ID requirement for voting:

1. Voters will be asked to show photo ID when voting in North Carolina, starting with the 2023 municipal elections. Those elections occur in September, October, and November, depending on the town or city. (Find your local election details at ncsbe.gov/voting/upcoming-election.)
2. Most voters will simply show their NC driver's license, but many other types of photo ID will be accepted. See the list of acceptable IDs at ncsbe.gov/voter-id.
3. Voters without ID can get a "No Fee ID Card" from the NCDMV. Soon, voters will also be able to get a free ID from their county board of elections.
4. The State Board is developing a process for approving student and public employee IDs for voting. Lists will be added to the Voter ID website as soon as IDs are approved.
5. When a voter checks in to vote at a polling place, they will be asked to show an acceptable photo ID. Election workers check to see if the picture on the ID reasonably resembles the voter. The address on the photo ID does not have to match the voter registration records.
6. All voters will be allowed to vote with or without a photo ID. If the voter does not show an acceptable ID, the voter may vote with an ID Exception Form and a provisional ballot, or vote with a provisional ballot and return to their county board of elections office with their photo ID by the day before county canvass. (For municipal elections in September and October, this deadline is the Monday following Election Day. For all other elections, the deadline is the second Thursday following Election Day.)
7. Permitted exceptions to the photo ID requirement include the following: The voter has a reasonable impediment to showing photo ID (lack of transportation, lost or stolen ID, disability or illness, family responsibilities, etc.); the voter has a religious objection to being photographed; or the voter was a victim of a natural disaster within 100 days of Election Day.
8. When a registered voter cannot produce a photo ID, the county board of elections must count that ballot if the voter properly completes the ID Exception Form or brings an acceptable ID to their county board of elections before the county canvass.
9. Voters who vote by mail will be asked to include a photocopy of an acceptable ID inside the photo ID envelope that comes with their ballot. If they are unable to include a photocopy of their ID, they may complete an ID Exception Form with the absentee ballot return envelope. Photo ID is not required for military or overseas voters who vote using special absentee voting procedures that federal law makes available for such voters.

1. Members of the active or reserve components of the Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard who are on active duty.
2. Members of the Merchant Marine, the commissioned corps of the Public Health Service, or the commissioned corps of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration.
3. Members of the National Guard or state militia units on activated status.
4. Spouses and dependents of uniformed services members listed above.

The request must be signed before submitting it to the county board of elections. The deadline for individuals eligible under UOCAVA to register to vote and/or request an absentee ballot is 5 p.m. on the day before Election Day.

Only the voter may sign their FPCA or FWAB application. Family members may not sign these forms on the voter's behalf.

Any covered uniformed service or overseas voter that qualifies as listed above has the choice of either applying to register and/or vote through special programs such as using the FPCA (see link above) or FWAB or requesting a mail-in absentee ballot the same way as other registered voters. Access the Federal Voting Assistance website for more information.

Returning the Ballot

Military or overseas voters may return their ballot, including an FWAB, via mail, fax or email. Additionally, a military or overseas voter who has submitted an FPCA or completed the UOCAVA portion of the North Carolina Absentee Request Form may use the UOCAVA portal to retrieve, mark, and return their ballot.

The deadline to return military and overseas ballots is the close of polls on Election Day (7:30 p.m. EST). If the ballot is received after the deadline, it will not be timely, unless the voter transmitted the ballot by 12:01 a.m. on the day of the election (voter time) and the county board receives the ballot by the last business day before the county canvass. The county canvass is typically conducted 10 days after a general election and 7 days after other elections. When returning the ballot by mail, no postmark is required.

Before returning the ballot, the military-overseas voter must sign the Affirmation of Military-Overseas Voter. The affirmation will be included in the instruction materials that are included with the blank ballot. If the balloting materials are mailed, then the affirmation is also on the back of the container-return envelope. Detailed instructions on returning the voted ballot are included with the absentee balloting materials sent to the voter.

Requesting An Absentee Ballot

ABSENTEE BALLOT REQUEST

Request Form

To receive an absentee-by-mail ballot you must complete an Absentee Ballot Request Form for each election. You can now visit the North Carolina Absentee Ballot Request portal (<https://votebymail.ncsbe.gov/app/home>) to complete your request. You can find a Absentee Ballot Request Form on our website or visit our office at 59 Woodfin Place, Asheville NC 28801. You can also call 828-250-4200 (tel:+18282504200) and we will mail you one.

Return the request form in one of the following ways:

- Mail it to: P.O. Box 7468, Asheville, NC 28802
- Hand deliver it to our office at 59 Woodfin Place, Asheville, 28801

If it is after the request deadline and a voter experiences a sudden or unexpected illness or disability that prevents them from going to a polling location, there are exceptions which would allow a near relative to obtain a ballot and deliver it to the voter. If you know a voter who requires this, please visit our office or call (828) 250-4200 (tel:8282504200) for more information.

You can request a ballot for any election in the calendar year beginning on January 1. A separate request form must be submitted for each election, unless you have an illness or disability and request to be sent a ballot for all elections in that year

Returning An Absentee Ballot

Ballots will be mailed to voters who have submitted a completed Absentee Ballot Request Form.

The envelope we send will contain your ballot, a return envelope, and instructions.

- YOU ARE REQUIRED TO RETURN YOUR BALLOT IN THE DESIGNATED RETURN ENVELOPE WITH ALL APPLICABLE FIELDS CORRECTLY COMPLETED FOR YOUR BALLOT TO COUNT. The ballot return envelope has spaces for the signature of the voter and two witnesses, as well as the witnesses' addresses. You are required to have either two witnesses with addresses and signatures OR a valid notary signature. If we receive your ballot early enough, we will make every attempt possible to contact you to correct any deficiencies or missing information.
- Ballots may only be returned by the voter, the voters near relative, or the legal guardian. If you choose to return the ballot in person, it does not require postage.

Absentee-By-Mail Voters

- Voters who vote by mail must include a photocopy of an acceptable ID when returning their ballot, or they may complete an ID Exception Form. The voter places the photocopy of ID or ID Exception Form in a pocket on the outside of the ballot container envelope, which is then placed in an outer return envelope to protect the privacy of the voter.

Acceptable Photo IDs for Voting

Any of the following that is unexpired, or expired for one year or less:

- North Carolina driver's license
- State ID from the NCDMV (also called "non-operator ID")
- Driver's license or non-driver ID from another state, District of Columbia, or U.S. territory (only if voter registered in North Carolina within 90 days of the election)
- U.S. Passport or U.S. Passport card
- North Carolina voter photo ID card issued by a county board of elections (see Get a Free Voter Photo ID)
- College or university student ID approved by the State Board of Elections (see box below)
- State or local government or charter school employee ID approved by the State Board of Elections (see box below)

Note: A voter 65 or older may use an expired form of acceptable ID if the ID was unexpired on their 65th birthday.

Any of the following, regardless of whether the ID contains an expiration or issuance date:

- Military or veterans ID card (with photo) issued by the U.S. government
- Tribal enrollment card (with photo) issued by a tribe recognized by the State of North Carolina or the federal government
- ID card (with photo) issued by an agency of the U.S. government or the State of North Carolina for a public assistance program (Note: Although this is an acceptable form of ID under North Carolina law, the State Board is not aware of any such ID in circulation that contains a photo. All IDs for voting are required to have a photo.)

Ballots can be returned in one of the following ways:

1. By Mail

- Ballots sent by mail must be postmarked on or before election day. If mailing your ballot close to the deadline, we recommend going into a post office and asking a post office official at the counter to postmark your ballot envelope as received. Otherwise, please mail your ballot at least two weeks prior to the election, based on a history of missing postmarks and delays. Election law mandates ballots must be received by the Board of Elections by 7:30pm the day of the election.

2. In Person to an Early Voting Site

- Ballots can be returned by the voter or near relative to any early voting site during early voting hours of operation. You must check in with an election official inside the precinct, which may mean waiting in line. You will hand your ballot to an election official at a computer station. During Early Voting, we will have a wait map available on our website so you can see the number of people in line.

3. In Person to the Elections Office

- Ballots can be returned by the voter or near relative to our office at 59 Woodfin Place, Asheville NC 28801 during office hours, which are Monday-Friday, 8:00 am - 5:00 pm. You will need to fill out a short log sheet when handing your ballot in to an Election Services employee. The deadline to return your ballot to the office is 7:30PM on Election Day.

ABSENTEE VOTING FOR MILITARY—OVERSEAS CITIZENS

Persons serving in the military and their dependents, who are away from their permanent home on Election Day, and U.S. citizens who are living abroad, have special voter registration and voting rights. They may apply to register and/or vote under a special law for military and overseas citizens. The Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act (UOCAVA) is a federal law that requires states to allow certain voters who are absent from their county of residence to have special rights that provide an expedited means to register and vote. In order to qualify under the provisions of UOCAVA in this state, a voter must be a legal resident of North Carolina.

Voters covered by UOCAVA include:

- A member of the active or reserve components of the Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard of the United States who is on active duty.
- A member of the Merchant Marine, the commissioned corps of the Public Health Service, or the commissioned corps of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration of the United States.
- A member of the National Guard or state militia unit who is on activated status.
- A spouse or dependent of a uniformed services member.
- U.S. citizens residing outside the United States.

Covered voters may use the Federal Postcard Application (FPCA) to register to vote and/or request an absentee ballot. They may also use the State Absentee Request Form.

In addition, covered voters may use a Federal Write-in Absentee Ballot (FWAB) to register to vote, request a ballot, and vote an official military-overseas ballot.

Military-overseas voters need to only apply for an absentee ballot by one of the methods mentioned.

UOCAVA DEADLINES

The deadline for military-overseas voters to register to vote and/or request an absentee ballot is 5:00 p.m. on the day before Election Day. The military-overseas voter may return his or her voted ballot, via mail, fax or email. The deadline to return military-overseas ballots is by the close of polls on Election Day (7:30 p.m. EST).

For more information about Absentee Voting for Civilians or Military-Overseas Citizens, please visit our website at www.ncsbe.gov or call us at (866) 522-4723.

ABSENTEE VOTING FOR CIVILIANS

ABSENTEE VOTING BY MAIL

Any registered North Carolina voter may request a mail-in absentee ballot. This type of absentee voting allows a voter, near relative (spouse, brother, sister, parent, grandparent, child, grandchild, mother-in-law, father-in-law, daughter-in-law, son-in-law, stepchild, or legal guardian), of a voter to request an absentee ballot by mail without an excuse.

HOW TO REQUEST AN ABSENTEE BALLOT

To receive a mail-in absentee ballot for an election, a voter or the voter's near relative or legal guardian must use the State Absentee Ballot Request Form to request the ballot. Request forms are available on the State Board of Elections website and at county boards of elections offices. A signed and completed State Absentee Ballot Request Form must be received by the county board of elections office no later than 5:00 p.m. on the last Tuesday prior to the date of the election for which the ballot is being requested. The form may be mailed, faxed, e-mailed or delivered in person to your county board of elections office.

COMPLETING THE STATE ABSENTEE REQUEST FORM

The following information for the voter is required when completing the form:

1. Name and legal residential address
2. Date of birth
3. ID number (NCDMV driver license or identification card); last four digits of Social Security number)
4. Address where the ballot should be mailed
5. Signature

If a voter's near relative or legal guardian makes the request, the person must provide his or her:

1. Full name
2. Address
3. Signature

If an identification number is not provided on the form, the requestor must submit one of the following documents:

- A copy of a current and valid photo ID or
- A copy of one of the following documents that shows the name and address of the voter: a current utility bill; bank statement; government check, paycheck, or other government document.

If the ballot being requested is for a partisan primary, and the voter is registered Unaffiliated, the voter or requestor must indicate the ballot preference (the party primary in which the voter wishes to participate).

VOTE BY MAIL AND EARLY VOTING OPTIONS

Absentee By Mail

Any North Carolina registered voter may request, receive, and vote a mail-in absentee ballot in elections where absentee voting is permitted. Learn about the general election in 2024 at www.fcvotes.com. Registered voters in North Carolina must request an absentee ballot with an official N.C. Absentee Ballot Request Form. There are two ways to access and submit the form:

1. Online:

- "Option 1 – Request an Absentee Ballot" at the N.C. Absentee Ballot Portal.

2. On paper:

- 2024 N.C. Absentee Ballot Request Form in English (fillable PDF)
- 2024 N.C. Absentee Ballot Request Form in Spanish (download to come)
  - After completing, submit the form to your county board of elections or in person or by mail.

Track your absentee-by-mail ballot through the mail: Once you have requested your absentee ballot, you can track its status from printed to accepted by signing up online for status notifications through BallotTrax. BallotTrax will be available 30 days prior to each election in 2024.

Early Voting

During the early voting period, voters may cast a ballot at any early voting site in their county. This is different than Election Day, when registered voters must vote at their assigned polling place. During the early voting period, eligible individuals may also register to vote and vote at the same time.

When you check in to vote at an early voting site, you may update your name or address within the same county if necessary. Individuals who are not registered to vote in a county may register and immediately vote at that same site. This process is called "same-day registration." Find more information at Register in Person During Early Voting. Although same-day registration is available for voters during early voting, same-day registration is not available for most voters on Election Day.

GUIDELINES FOR ELECTIONEERING DURING ELECTIONS

1- Conduct Outside of the Polling Place

- Respect the right of all voters to participate in the election without fear of intimidation or violence. Intimidating any voter is a state and federal crime.
- Be courteous towards those at the voting place, regardless of any difference of opinion.
- Always remain civil and calm. While differences of opinion are expected and should be respected, resolve any disagreements or disputes amicably.
- Disagreements or disputes should not involve profanity or aggressive behaviors. - Confine electioneering and issue advocacy to designated areas outside of the voting place.
- Election officials strictly enforce the marked line beyond which no electioneering or loitering is permitted.

2- Buffer Zone (G.S. 163-166.4 (a))

- Breaching and moving the designated buffer zone is not permitted.
- No person or group of persons shall hinder access, harass others, distribute campaign literature, place political advertising, solicit votes, or otherwise engage in election-related activities inside the voting place or within a buffer zone.
- Dimensions of the buffer zone at each polling place shall be no more than 50 feet and no less than 25 feet from the entrance to the polling place.
- Electioneers may distribute campaign literature, place political advertising, and signage, solicit votes, or otherwise engage in election-related activity in the designated area outside the buffer zone.
- Not all polling locations allow for political signage or literature. You must verify the Restricted Polling Place List on the BOE website under the Polling Place tab.

3- Area for Election-Related Activity (G.S. 163-166.4(b))

- Volunteers and electioneers may distribute campaign literature, place political signs, solicit votes, and engage in election-related activities only outside of the designated buffer zone.
- Privately owned polling places might have restrictions on campaign literature and/or placement of political signs on their property on Election Day. Volunteers and electioneers must check the Restricted Polling Place List before every election, found on fcvotes.com under the tab Polling Places.

4- Curbside Voting

- The voter's vehicle is considered a voting place. Electioneers must respect it as such and not encroach on the designated curbside area. The buffer zone shall be at least six feet from the vehicle, and a greater distance if possible. Electioneers shall not enter the buffer zone.
- Approaching voters in their vehicles in the curbside area will not be tolerated.

5- Party Observers and Runners (G.S. 163-45)

- The party chair must provide observer or runner's names to the Board of Elections before 10:00 a.m., five days prior to Election Day.
- An observer shall do no electioneering at the voting place and shall in no manner impede the voting process or interfere or communicate with or observe any voter in casting a ballot.
- The runner may receive a voter list from the precinct. No runner may enter the voting enclosure except when necessary to announce that runner's presence and to receive the list. The runner must leave immediately after being provided with the list.

Example of Prohibited Acts That Illustrate Prohibited Behavior During Elections

- 1- Federal law prohibits those around the polling place from displaying badges, uniforms, or credentials that reasonable individuals would interpret to mean that the person is a law-enforcement officer (See 18 U.S.C. § 241 and Williams v. United States, 341 U.S. 97 (1951)). Ex.: Individuals outside the buffer zone wearing "SECURITY" insignia and informing voters that they are "monitoring" the polling place.
- 2- It is a crime to interfere with the ability of a voter to access the voting place. Individuals in the parking lot physically delay or prevent cars from parking.
- 3- No person may engage in election-related activity within the buffer zone. (G.S. 163-166.4(a)). Ex.: A radio station is played over speakers inside the voting enclosure, and the broadcast includes political discussion or commentary.

4- It is a crime for any person to commit any boisterous act that disturbs any election official in the performance of his or her statutory duties (G.S. § 163-274(a) (5)).

Ex.: Individuals use sound amplification to make racial slurs or otherwise insult those presenting to vote for their preferred candidate, and the chief judge has told the individual that their noise is causing a disruption inside the voting enclosure.

5- It is a federal crime to intimidate, threaten, or coerce anyone to interfere with an individual's right to vote or not vote in an election; this includes conduct intended to force prospective voters to vote against their preferences (18 U.S.C. § 594).

Ex.: Individuals outside the buffer zone threaten a voter if the voter does not vote for or against a particular candidate or party.

6- It is both a violation of state and federal law for any voter to challenge an individual on the basis of their ethnicity, religion, language fluency, or national origin (G.S. § 163-90.1(a)).

Ex.: An Individual attempts to enter a voter challenge without proper basis.

7- Additional examples of voter intimidation.

Ex.: An individual or individuals outside the buffer zone approach only voters who appear to be of a certain ethnic group to ask whether they speak English or to demand that they verify their citizenship.

Ex.: An individual or individuals outside the buffer zone yell insults or profanity at people who received assistance in the voting enclosure.

For questions or concerns regarding electioneering during elections, contact the Forsyth County Board of Elections at (336) 703-2800

GUIDELINES FOR MEDIA AT POLLING PLACES

1- Conduct at Polling Places

-The term media generally describes people affiliated with a television, radio or newspaper outlet. News media have a right to report on matters of public interest, including elections.

-The Chief Judge is the only election official authorized to interact with the media. Please remember to identify yourselves with your credentials when interacting with election officials.

2- Buffer Zone

-Any interviews or election polls must be conducted at least 50 feet from the entrance of the polling place. However, news cameras may be positioned near the doorway of a voting enclosure to record only panoramic, wide-angle views of the voting room.

Photographers and videographers may not zoom in on ballots or voters. Media shall not block, interfere, obstruct, or disrupt the voting process, and shall not record any ballots or the tabulation of ballots. Photographing voters and poll workers is restricted so if a photo or recording includes voters and/or precinct officials, the media must obtain permission from the voters and/or precinct officials. Breaching and moving the designated buffer zone is not permitted.

-No person or group of persons shall hinder access, harass others, distribute campaign literature, place political advertising, solicit votes, or otherwise engage in election-related activities inside the voting place or within a buffer zone.

3- Closing and Unofficial Results

-After the polls close and all voters have left the enclosure, the media and public are allowed inside to observe the closing process but may not hinder operations of precinct officials.

-The Chief Judge may inform the media how many ballots have been cast at a precinct. However, media may not enter the voting enclosure to check the tabulator.

-Please do not ask officials for any opinions, guesses or predictions about the election. They may provide objective facts regarding the polling place but may not speculate on outcomes or turnout.

REPORTING ELECTION RESULTS

Early Votes Begin to Report

7:30pm

One-stop early votes and absentee by-mail votes that have been approved by the board of elections

Precinct Results Begin to Report

8:30pm

Precinct officials hand-deliver results to the county board of elections

After Election Night

Absentee ballots postmarked on or before Election Day and received by the county board of elections by the return deadline, as well as provisional votes, will be added to the results as they are approved by board during the canvass period after Election Night.

State Board, by a majority vote, may extend voting hours at a polling place if polls are delayed in opening for more than 15 minutes or are interrupted for more than 15 minutes. The Board may extend the closing time by an equal number of minutes.

AFTER ELECTION NIGHT

What is counted after Election Night?

Military or Overseas absentee ballots postmarked on or before Election Day and received by the county board of elections by the return deadline, as well as provisional votes, will be added to the results as they are approved by board during the canvass period after Election Night.

* The absentee ballot return deadline is now 7:30 p.m. Election Day, under Session Law 2023-140.

Why are ballots counted after Election Night?

Absentee by mail and Provisional ballots returned on Election Day must be processed and verified before they can be counted and added to the results. In North Carolina, counties have 10 days to process, verify, and count these ballots – this period is known as the Official Election Canvass.

In a countywide election, there could be thousands of ballots left to be counted after polls close. Results reporting can extend past 1:00 am as precincts deliver their results.

CANVASS: FINALIZING THE VOTE

Election Night

After polling places close at 7:30 PM on Election Day, all election results are secured and transported to be centrally compiled and posted at the Board of Elections, 201 North Chestnut Street Winston Salem, NC 27101. Election Night counts include ballots from precincts as well as One Stop Early Voting and Absentee by-Mail ballots received by Election Day.

Finalizing the Official Vote Tally (Canvass)

Results on election night are unofficial. Canvass is the official process of determining the votes have been counted and tabulated correctly, resulting in the authentication of the official election results.

For close elections, the canvass period is especially important. During this time, elections officials count absentee ballots that came in before the deadline and research provisional ballots to determine whether they should be counted.

In every county, the canvass meeting when the results are certified is 10 days after Election Day. Because elections thrive on transparency, the canvass meeting is open to the public. Unless the county board unanimously votes for another site, the meeting will be held at the county board of elections office, per N.C.G.S. § 163-182.5.

Before the canvass meeting, the board must ensure that the sample hand-to-eye audit count and any discretionary or mandatory recounts have been completed.

Additionally, county boards confirm all eligible ballots have been counted, including:

- Ballots that were unable to be read in the precinct (ballot jams, torn ballots, etc.)
- Absentee ballots
- Provisional ballots

At the meeting, the board will prepare and sign all relevant, permanent public documents. The county board will retain one copy; a copy will be filed with either the clerk of Superior Court or, in the case of municipal elections, with the municipal clerk; and a copy will be provided to the State Board of Elections.

Mandatory Hand-to-Eye Sample Audit

The sample audit count is a test to ensure voting equipment read the voter's choices accurately. It compares the machine counts with hand-to-eye counts conducted by elections officials in randomly selected voting sites. The sample audit count is open to the public and is completed before canvass. The day after the election, the State Board of Elections informs each county of their assigned contest and the two randomly selected samples (Election Day precinct, one-stop site, or absentee by mail ballots) to audit. For a presidential election, the contest audited is always the presidential contest. Selected ballots are hand-counted by a bipartisan team of elections officials.

Who Can Request a Ballot for You

A near relative or legal guardian may request a ballot on behalf of the voter. A near relative is the voter's: Spouse, brother, sister, parent, grandparent, child, grandchild, mother-in-law, father-in-law, daughter-in-law, son-in-law, stepparent, or stepchild. If you need assistance requesting a ballot due to disability, you may choose any person to make that request for you.

Who Can Assist You in Completing a Request

Most voters are only entitled to assistance from their near relative or verifiable legal guardian.

If a voter is unable to read or write, and a near relative or legal guardian is not available to assist that voter, the voter may request some other person to give assistance. That person must complete the assistance section of the absentee request form.

Special note for disabled voters: Any voter who needs assistance due to disability may receive assistance completing an absentee ballot request form from any person they choose.

Assistance for Voters Who Are Patients in a Hospital, Clinic, Nursing Home, or Adult Care Home ("Facility")

Any registered voter in a facility may request assistance from a Multipartisan Assistance Team (MAT). A MAT is a group appointed by a county board of elections to assist voters in facilities with mail-in absentee voting. To schedule a MAT visit, contact your county board of elections.

Important note: Due to a federal court order issued in July 2022, an absentee voter who needs assistance due to disability may receive assistance from any person they choose. They may still request and use a MAT team, but they are not required to do so. They may receive assistance from the staff of the hospital, clinic, nursing home, or rest home where they are a patient or resident. They may also receive assistance from an elected official, political party officeholder, or candidate.

If the voter does not need assistance due to disability:

- It is unlawful for any owner, manager, director, or employee of the facility other than the voter's near relative, verifiable legal guardian, or member of a MAT to request an absentee ballot on behalf of a voter.
- If neither the voter's near relative nor verifiable legal guardian is available, and a MAT is not available within 7 calendar days of a request, the voter may obtain assistance from anyone who is not: An owner, manager, director, or employee of the facility; an elected official, a candidate, or an officeholder in a political party; or a campaign manager or treasurer for a candidate or political party.

How to Complete Your Ballot

1. Mark your ballot.

- Mark your ballot in the presence of a notary public or two witnesses. Your notary public or two witnesses should observe that you mark the ballot, not how you vote.

2. Seal your ballot.

- Place your ballot in the return envelope that came with your ballot and seal the envelope. Don't put anything else into the envelope.

3. Sign the envelope.

- Sign your name on the back of the envelope.

4. Have your witnesses or notary public sign the envelope.

- Each witness will sign their name, print their name, and provide their full address on the back of the envelope.
- Anyone who is 18 years of age or older can be a witness except a candidate (unless the candidate is your near relative or legal guardian or you are in a hospital, clinic, nursing home, or adult care home and are requesting the candidate's assistance due to disability).
- See "Assistance with Returning Your Ballot" on the next tab for additional witness requirements.
- Alternatively, you may have the application certified by one notary instead of two witnesses.

5. If you received assistance, have the assistant sign the envelope.

- If you need assistance, your near relative or verifiable legal guardian may mark the ballot at your direction or help you fill out the envelope. If your near relative or verifiable legal guardian is unavailable to assist you, you may receive assistance from another person.

- If you are a voter who is a patient in a hospital, clinic, nursing home, or adult care home (“facility”), you may receive assistance from a Multipartisan Assistance Team (MAT). A MAT is a group appointed by a county board of elections to assist voters in facilities with mail-in absentee voting. To schedule a MAT visit, contact your county board of elections (<https://vt.ncsbe.gov/BOEInfo/>). Unless a voter requests assistance due to disability, it is unlawful for any owner, manager, director, or employee of the facility other than the voter’s near relative, verifiable legal guardian, or member of a MAT to assist a voter in completing their absentee ballot. A voter who needs assistance due to disability may choose any person who is at least 18 years old to provide assistance.
- If you received assistance with your ballot, the assistant must sign their name, print their name, and provide their full address on the back of the envelope.

6. Include a copy of your photo ID.

- Place a copy of an eligible photo ID in the clear sleeve on the back of your ballot envelope.
- If you are unable to provide a copy of a photo ID, complete and place the Photo ID Exception form (yellow form in your ballot package) into the clear sleeve.

7. Seal and mail the ballot envelope.

- Place the completed and sealed ballot envelope inside the absentee return envelope for mailing or delivering to an early voting site or your county board office.

Two Ways to Return Your Ballot

1. Mail your ballot:

- Include correct postage on your ballot return envelope. Return postage is $1.77. Three Forever stamps (73 cents apiece) would cover this amount, for example.
- Your ballot must be received by your county board of elections by 7:30 p.m. on Election Day. Note: State law previously provided for a grace period if your ballot was postmarked on or before Election Day and received within three days after the election. That is no longer the case.

2. Return your ballot in person:

- You can return your ballot to your county board of elections (<https://vt.ncsbe.gov/BOEInfo/>) office or to an early voting site (<https://vt.ncsbe.gov/EVSite/>) in your county.
- If returning to your county board of elections (<https://vt.ncsbe.gov/BOEInfo/>) office on Election Day, it must be received by 7:30 p.m.
- You may not return your ballot to a polling place on Election Day.

Who Can Return the Ballot?

According to state law, only you, or your near relative or legal guardian may mail or hand-deliver the Return Envelope. Do not give your balloting materials to a neighbor, friend, or stranger. A near relative is your: Spouse, brother, sister, parent, child, stepchild, grandparent, grandchild, stepparent, mother-in-law, father-in-law, daughter-in-law, or son-in-law. If you need assistance returning your ballot due to disability, these restrictions do not apply, and you may ask any person you choose to return your ballot.

Assistance with Mailing Your Ballot

If you have a disability and need assistance mailing your ballot: You may direct an individual to immediately take the sealed envelope containing your ballot to the closest U.S. mail depository or mailbox. If you have a mailbox at your residence, the mailbox is the closest depository. The individual taking your sealed ballot to the closest depository or mailbox must sign the Voter Assistant Certification on the back of the ballot envelope.
